CENTENNIAL YEAR 1876

In Commencing business for the year we return our thanks for the

LIBERAL PATRONAGE

Extended our Firm the past year.

OUR PLAN OF CONDUCTING BUSINESS,

THE CASH PLAN,

has been a success, and we are more than gratified at its results.

Our Customers approve it.

Heads of families approve it and the

CASH BUYING PUBLIC

are jubilant over the CASH SYSTEM adopted by us one year ago.

Why? Because they have no LARGE bills presented to them at the close of the seasons, and because a small bill is easier paid than a large one and because Tucker Bros. can and do sell cheaper for the cash—as they make no BAD DEBTS. The cash customer does not pay any part of the price—necessary to be charged on goods sold bad or doubtful debtors.

THE CASH PLAN

Saves labor,
Saves trouble,
Saves misunderstandings,
Saves money—
Because you buy cheap.

Our stock will always be kept FULL and FRESH—with all the new and desirable STYLES and QUALITIES and will be SOLD CHEAP.

"The best goods at the lowest cash Prices."

Harper's Weekly is the ablest and most powerful illustrated periodical published in this country. Its editorials are scholarly and convincing, and carry much weight. Its illustrations of current events are full and fresh, and are prepared by our best designers. With a circulation of 150,000, the Weekly is read by at least half a million persons, and its influence as an organ of opinion is simply tremendous. The Weekly maintains a positive position, and expresses decided views on political and social problems.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Its articles are models of high-toned discussion, and its pictorial illustrations are often corroborative arguments of no small force.—N. Y. Examiner and Chronicle.

Its papers upon existent questions and its inimitable cartoons help mould the sentiments of the country.—Pittsburg Commercial.

Harper's Weekly stands at the head of illustrated journals in the United States, in circulation, editorial ability, and pictorial illustrations.—Ladies' Repository, Cincinnati.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The Bazar is edited with a combination of tact and talent that we seldom find in any journal; and the journal itself is the organ of the great world of fashion.—Boston Traveller.

The Bazar commends itself to every member of the household—to the children by droll and pretty pictures, to the young ladies by its fashion plates in endless variety, to the provident matron by its patterns for the children's clothes, to paterfamilias by its tasteful designs for embroidered slippers and luxurious dressing-gowns. But the reading-matter of the Bazar is uniformly of great excellence. The paper has acquired a wide popularity for the fireside enjoyment it affords.—N. Y. Evening Post.

In its way there is nothing like it. Fresh and trustworthy as a fashion guide, its stories and essays, its poetry and quibs, are all invigorating to the mind.—Chicago Evening Journal.
