Swim Team Wins MAC Spirit Award

The Jewish Community Center Swim Team finished the 1983 season with the honored Mecklenburg Aquatic Club (MAC) TEAM Spirit Award. Sporting three wins and three losses overall, the team went into the league meet full of spirit. They placed fourth in both the relay and the league meet.

To celebrate this fine season the swim team and the tennis team will hold its Annual Swim - Tennis Team Banquet Thursday, August 25 at 6 p.m. at the JCC. Reservations are needed for the banquet no later than Friday, August 19. Swim Team members attend at no charge. Fees for other family members are $1.75 for children under 5 years old and $2.25 for everyone else. Call the JCC (366-0357) to make your reservations.

Paddling The Nantahala

The JCC ran a swift moving raft trip down the Nantahala River June 12. Fifteen people maneuvered rafts on the warm sunny day trip which kept them waterborn for nearly three hours. Warming up at lunch in the outdoor center restaurant, they then made their way back to Charlotte by nightfall. Another trip has been organized for August 7 to the French Broad River near Asheville.

Chai

The Chai Group finished its "Man, Animals and Nature" class in late June bringing to a close another of Judy Tager's fine CPCC courses. July 11 featured a belated grand finale to that course with a morning jaunt to Discovery Place.

Moving into the CPCC summer quarter, Chai began a cultural arts class, again with Judy Tager. A broad spectrum of arts is explored through music, visual arts and dance. The group plans to take some other day excursions during the summer.

Chai Raffle

This year's Chai Raffle will be held on September 5.

Each year, Chai Group, as partners with the JCC, donates the prizes for the raffle and this year Chai Group member, Sylvia Sadoff, has created a beautiful heirloom afghan. In addition to the afghan, Lina Levine has created a framed paper and fabric collage. Both these items are offered as prizes in the raffle and the funds raised are used to help Chai Group meet their programming needs.

There will be a letter forthcoming explaining the cost of the tickets, which will also be enclosed. We at the Center join Chai Group in asking you to please help all of us in our efforts by registering for the raffle.
