THE ELECTION.

From a telegram which will be found elsewhere, it will be seen that the news generally is good. There seems to be no doubt but what the Republicans will be in a majority in the Convention, which means of course, that there will be an immediate adjournment.—Indications are that the Republican anti Convention ticket will attain a majority on the popular vote of at least ten thousand against the Democratic pro-Convention ticket. In other words, we will have a majority in the Convention, and the voice of at least one hundred and ten thousand votes in North Carolina against making any change in the Constitution.

CONVENTION!

ELECTION RETURNS!

GLORIOUS NEWS FROM PENDER.

We have information from South Washington up to 4 30 P. M. yesterday, at which time the Republican candidates for Convention were 10 votes ahead. Entire Republican Township ticket elected.

This is the strongest Democratic township in the county.

WAKE COUNTY.

Wake gives over 700 Republican majority.

GUILFORD COUNTY.

Guilford county has gone Republican.

ROBESON COUNTY.

Normant and McNeil elected by an increased majority.

RICHMOND COUNTY.

Dockery's majority 145. Birch Camp Township gave Normant 245 majority. Anson and Union Convenional.

FROM RALEIGH.

News generally good. We certainly have a majority in the Convention and at least ten thousand majority of the popular vote.

UNION COUNTY.

MONROE, Aug. 6.

Union has gone for Convention by a majority of 220. J. C. SINCLAIR.

MARTIN COUNTY.

TARBORO, Aug. 6.

Martin goes Democratic by sixty-four majority. A. MCCLOUDE.

PITT COUNTY.

Pitt gives a Democratic majority of

BLADEN COUNTY.

Clarkton, Abbott and Brown Marsh townships gave Democratic gain of W. J. MANN.

NASH COUNTY.

Nash 179 majority.

S. FOUNTAIN.

ROBESON COUNTY.

Robeson county all right.

RICHMOND COUNTY.

Richmond county has certainly gone Democratic.

GASTON COUNTY.

Gaston county has gone Republican.

BRUNSWICK COUNTY.

Brunswick county has gone for E. W. Taylor, anti-Convention, by about 175 majority.

Later.—Official vote of Brunswick gives Taylor 120 majority.

WAKE COUNTY.

Wake 700 Republican majority. We have swept the State so far as heard from. T. B. KEOGH.

WAYNE COUNTY.

All the townships heard from. Faircloth and Grantham, Republicans, elected by 50 majority.

NEW HANOVER AND PENDER COUNTIES.

The anti-Convention candidates in New Hanover and Pender counties are elected by about 1750 majority.

The following is the aggregate vote in the five wards of the city for Township officers:

MAGISTRATES.

J. J. Cassidey	2040
J. C. Hill	2047

J. E. O'Hara, 605.

J. J. Goodwyn, 605.

H. E. T. Manning, 140.

Richard H. Smith, 140.

The county gives 1800 or 1900 majority.

Respectfully,

W. T. J. HAYES.

MECKLENBURG COUNTY.

Good news from old Mecklenburg. She has redeemed herself most nobly, and has gone Republican by 300 majority.

CHARLOTTE, Aug. 5.

Mecklenburg has gone Republican. Good news from everywhere.

R. E. MCDONALD.

LENOIR COUNTY.

Lenoir county has gone 300 majority for no Convention candidates.

Later.—Lenoir county elects Hon. R. W. King by five hundred and two majority. WM. W. N. HUNTER.

Still later.—Republican majority in Lenoir five hundred; Green three hundred; Johnston four hundred and Jones a gain over last year. H. L. GRANT.

GREENE COUNTY.

Greene county gives 200 majority against Convention candidates.

CHANGES.

The following counties sent Democrats to the last Legislature and now elect anti Convention delegates: Wake, Wayne, Guilford, Gaston, Mecklenburg, Lenoir, Greene and Richmond.

WILSON COUNTY.

It is said that Wilson county has elected Singletary, dem., by 300 majority.

UNION COUNTY.

Indications are that Union county has gone for Hasty, Republican, by about 50 majority.

BLADEN COUNTY.

Bladenboro 6 Republican majority; Abbottsburg 7 Republican majority. Brown Marsh gives a Republican majority.

The following counties have gone against Convention, certain:

Alamance, Ashe, Bertie, Bladen, Brunswick, Caswell, Chowan, Cherokee, Craven, Dare, Edgecombe, Forsythe, Gaston, Granville, Greene, Guilford, Halifax, Henderson, Hertford, Johnston, Jones, Lenoir, Madison, Mecklenburg, New Hanover, Northampton, Pasquotank, Perquimans, Polk, Richmond, Robeson, Rutherford, Wake, Warren, Washington, Wayne, Wilkes, Yadkin, Yancy, Mitchelll, Montgomery certain, Cumberland certain—vote 61.

FOR CONVENTION.

Allegheny, Alexander, Anson, Burke, Cabarrus, Carteret, Caldwell, Catawba, Cleveland, Columbus, Currituck, Davie, Duplin, Franklin, Gates, Haywood, Hyde, Iredell, Jackson, Lincoln, Macon, Martin, McDowell, Nash, Davidson, Onslow, Orange, Pitt, Rockingham, Rowan, Sampson, Stanly, Swain, Union, Watauga, Wilson—vote 43.

DOUBTFUL COUNTIES.

Beaufort, Buncombe, Camden, Clay, Chatham, Harnett, Person, Moore, Randolph, Stokes, Surry, Transylvania and Tyrell—votes 16.

Cumberland elects Buxton and Blocker by 200 majority.

Where is would-be Judge Bart Fuller? Go back to your grocery shop, you oily and mangy pimp of Ku Klux aristocracy. You are not fit to lick the boots of a gentleman like Judge Buxton.

On reflection we apologize for the above observation and say we think Fuller is fit to lick a gentleman's boots. We can think of nothing he is so well fitted for.

GOLDSBORO, N. C., August 6, 1875.

EDITOR POST:

The conflict is over and old Wayne has covered herself all over with glory. When we take into consideration that the county went last year 225 Democratic, and that they had the appointment of registrars and poll holders and the seeming advantage the County Commissioners intended to take by appointing their best and shrewdest men and selecting from our side our best workers in the several townships where we had the fewest, and in the others such men as had not the backone to contend for their rights in a contested case; with all those odds we have whipped them fairly, and, for once, I have failed to hear fraud alleged. We have elected our ticket by nearly one hundred majority, and Republicans here carrying high heads and feeling jubilant.

Everything passed off quietly at all the townships. We had at this place a few (I am glad to say a few) boys who seemed desirous of creating a row but they failed. We are willing to throw the mantle of charity over all the trouble of these boys and attribute it to the bad whisky they bought the day before election. A REPUBLICAN VOTER.

KINSTON, N. C., August 6, 1875.

EDITOR POST:

Dear Sir:—The following is the vote of Lenoir county—all the townships heard from: R. M. King, Republican, 1454; J. M. Wooten, Democrat, 952, Kings majority 502. W. F. Loftin, Independent, and claimed to be a Republican, received five votes; King's majority over Loftin 1,449.

Very respectfully,

WM. W. N. HUNTER.

Engelhard, Leach, Vance, Bart Fuller, Stallings, Tom Lee, Glenn, Foote, Matt. Whisky Robson and Weak Whisky Waddell—all sick—very sick. Poor fellows, put up in my little bed.

Johnson's Successor.

Andrew Johnson is not yet cold in his grave, before his successor in the United States Senate is picked out. General William B. Bate, of Nashville, Tennessee, is the man. He is the one who contested the matter so strongly with Johnson, and some of his friends thought at one time he was fairly elected instead of the ex-President. General Bate is a lawyer by profession, but, of course, gained his military title by being in the Confederate service. We take but little stock in persons of this character. Some time ago, however, he addressed a letter to a Confederate reunion, and used this unexceptionable language:

"Nor do they, (ex Confederate soldiers,) yield precedence to any in love of country and in the high hopes of its continued glory and greatness. Having once accepted those terms imposed by arbitrament of the sword, they would forfeit that honor which is dearer than life to the true soldier were they to act otherwise than in the best of faith." * * * "With all our sorrows and misfortunes, however, consequent upon the late terrible struggle, we have not at any time, lost sight of the fact that this is our country, and the only one in which we have a special interest; that its glory is our glory, its shame our shame, and that it is both patriotic and manly for us to vie with our late adversaries, in a generous way, in elevating, strengthening and ennobling it."—Chronicle.

ANOTHER SPEECH FROM ENGLEHARD.

HE "GOES BACK" ON CONVENTION.

LANGUAGE MORE FORCIBLE THAN POLITE.

"WHY, OH! WHY, MY HEART, THIS SADNESS."

Our Special reporter was on hand and took down in short hand and in short order the remarks of Major Joseph A. Englehard of the Wilmington Journal, on the reception of the election on Thursday night. It seems that the Major and Col. Bill Saunders, flanked by a few sattelites and hangers-on around their office were assembled in their little back room with the outer door closed and securely locked, the glass sash in the inner door carefully screened with old papers, and the tallow dip burning very dimly, when a messenger boy rushed in frantically waving a telegram. The Major extended his hand from the rotundity of his obesity and nervously tore the missive open. Immediately his already elongated countenance proceeded to still further elongate as he read a telegram from D. H. Hill in Charlotte conveying the information that Mecklenburg county had gone for the Radicals by 300 majority.

Col. Bill Saunders arose and remarked that, although he was unaccustomed to public speaking, he would just be d—— if it was not an outrage on the freedom and dignity of a brave and noble people to have such things occur in the broad light of this XIXth century and not over come us like a hot day in August. [Profound sensation on the part of the sattelites.] The Col. having delivered himself of these eloquent remarks, lighted his long stem pipe and resumed his seat, when the Major majestically mounted his editorial stand, and opened his mouth and taught them, saying:—

Friends, Countymen and Lovers; hear me for my cause, and be silent that ye may hear my exhalted voice going out in tones of thun der and an nihilating all
