Special Course

On Saturdays beginning October 8, a course in Reading and Understanding Prayers will be offered at the home of Eleanor Weinglass, 1030 Pineborough Rd. Classes are from 2-4 p.m. weekly. The course is free—participants will take turns bringing cake for after class socializing. Call the class instructor, Eleanor Weinglass, at 536-4474 for more information.

HA LAILAH JCC MEMBERSHIP RAFFLE

Although the walls of the JCC no longer stand, the programs and classes of the JCC will continue. So again this year we ask for your support. Each year Ha Lailah Chapter raffles a free year's membership to the JCC. This year we will do the same. The raffle tickets are $1.00 per ticket or a book of 12 for $10.00. The drawing will be held at the December General Meeting.

Ashendorf Memorial Concert To Be At Temple Israel

John Pickett

The second annual Rosalie Citron Ashendorf Memorial Concert will be held at Temple Israel on Sunday, October 16, at 8 p.m. This year's concert will feature soprano Joan Fuerstman of New York City, (formerly of Charlotte) and pianist John Pickett of Charlotte.

A reception will follow the

concert, and both the concert and reception are open to the general community free of charge.

Beth El To Sponsor "The Chosen"

Reserve the evening of October 19 or October 20 for a special event in the Charlotte Jewish Community. The movie, "The Chosen" will reappear in Charlotte for two, that's right, just two special showings.

Sponsored by Temple Beth El, "The Chosen" will run at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, October 19, and at 8:00 p.m. Thursday, October 20 at the Queen Park Cinema. These will be the only performances of this movie and it will not be available to the general public. Following each presentation a dessert social will be held at Fellowship Hall in Temple Beth El for the moviegoers. Ticket prices are $6 per person and the price includes the movie and social; $5 of this is tax deductible.

The Jewish Monthly Magazine describes "The Chosen" as a "positive Jewish film." Based upon the novel by Chaim Potok, the movie stars Robby Benson, Rod Steiger, Maximilian Schell and Barry Miller. "The Chosen" has won awards for best film and best actor (Rod Steiger) at the Montreal Film Festival.

In her review for the Jewish Monthly, Patricia Erens says "...what sets 'The Chosen' apart from so many films on American Jewish life is the avoidance of cliches and stereotypes. It speaks to both adults and children — adolescents can certainly identify with the two young protagonists."

Tickets are available at Temple Beth El, 1727 Providence Road or through the Temple Sisterhood or Men's Club. Only 700 tickets can be sold so make your plans early.

Avraham Burg To Speak At Community Forum

Avraham (Avrum) Burg, social activist and leading peace advocate, will speak to the Charlotte Jewish Community on American - Israeli Relations: The Current State of Affairs. Mr. Burg works as a Consultant to the New Israel Fund on Relationships between Israeli Community groups and American Jews.

Avrum Burg is the son of Interior Minister Yosef Burg, who is the head of the National Religious Party and has been in the Israeli Cabinet longer than any other member. Avrum Burg is also a Leadership Fellow working on the Relationship between Zionism and Judaism. He is a student of Industrial Design at the Bezalel Art Academy.

His speech to the community will be on Tuesday, October 25 and 8:15 p.m. at Temple Beth El. The program will provide a question and answer period following his major remarks. A reception will be held in the social hall after the discussion. The program is sponsored by the Community Relations Committee of the Charlotte Jewish Federation.

Mr. Burg is a somewhat controversial figure on current Israeli policies. This program promises to be an educational experience which should spark a thought provoking discussion. We urge your attendance.
