ONE MORE UNRULY BEAR—This Bear cub was as hard for Shaw University's Homecoming Queen to handle as the Shaw Bear eleven proved for Morris Brown. N. C. NURSES ADOPT MOTION TO ADMIT RACE

Wilmington — The North Carolina State Nurses Association voted to open its membership to qualified Negro nurses in the State at the Forty-sixth Annual Convention of the organization held last week in Wilmington.

Following a lengthy discussion a motion to take the step was placed before the body by its President, Miss Edna L. Heinzerling of Winston-Salem, and was passed by a vote of 52-22.

The action of the N. C. Nurses organization is in line with similar steps taken by other state groups in the past and is in keeping with the policy of the American Nurses Association

The providing of eligibility for Negro nurses marks formal action upon a request made by the North Carolina Association of Registered Nurses, Inc., who voted last June to request membership in the state and national nurses organizations.

The charter of the North Carolina State Nurses Association was amended last year to make possible the admission of Negroes to membership.

As a result of the action of the body the number of state nurses associations which bar Negroes from membership has been reduced to eight.

BOASTS OF "PERFECT CRIME", IS JAILED IN AUTO DEATH OF PAIR

LOS ANGELES (ANP) — Because Paul Martin Graver, 32, once boasted he could commit the "perfect crime," he found himself under arrest last week charged with suspicion of double murder. His suspected victims were his wife, Mary, 39, and their daughter, Martha, 8 who had been found by Upland police dead in Graver's badly damaged car.

The alleged accident occurred near the Village of Upland. The car was found resting against an eucalyptus tree. The man hd only a few minor injuries, but Mrs. Graver died a few hours after she had been removed to a hospital without regaining consciousness. She suffered leg and skull fractures, besides many cuts and bruises. The child died instantly.

Police at first believed Graver's story of the accident, but later found evidence which led them to suspect he had deliberately crashed into the tree. He had told them that the child had been pinned beneath the car and he had lifted it off her.

According to Upland Police Chief Eugene Mueller, the first suspicion that the accident might have been murder, came when it was learned the woman was not Graver's wife, but the wife of Ignacio Warner of Washington, D. C., said to be Negro. They had been living together in Los Angeles. Recently they separated, but she rejoined him a day or two before the tragedy. Warner is also said to be the child's father.

Police plan to hold an autopsy to ascertain if the victims had been killed before the car crashed into the tree.

Moron Is Named As Acting Prexy Of Hampton Inst.

New York — Alonzo G. Moron, general business manager of Hampton Institute has been named acting president of the school and temporary successor to Dr. Ralph P. Bridgman who resigned the post under fire last winter.

The action took place at a meeting of the Hampton Institute Board of Trusees conducted in New York City last week and provides at least a temporary head for the institution which has operated since February under an "interim administrative committee" of which Mr. Moron was chairman.

The appointment was announced by Dr. Channing H. Tobias, chairman of the Trustees Board, who stated that Mr Moron will continue to hold office until a permanent president is selected for the 80-year-old institution which is listed as one of the nation's wealthiest for the education of Negroes.

Although official confirmation could not be obtained, it was reported in reliable quarters that Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, current president of Morehouse College, has been offered the post of president of Hampton.

However, no action upon this offer is expected before the end of the current school year.

Mr. Moron, the new acting president, is a native of the Virgin Islands where he served as commissioner of public welfare. For a number of years he served as manager of two Federal housing projects in Atlanta, Ga.

He is a graduate of Hampton, holds the LL. B. from the Harvard University Law School, a M A. in social work from the University of Pittsburgh and the Ph. B. in sociology and economics from Brown. He is also a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

RUMOR DR. BUNCHE READY TO RESIGN PALESTINE POST

PARIS—(ANP)—Persons close to the situation say that Dr. Ralph Bunche had been on the point of resigning if the security council of United Nations adjourned without acting to reduce peace in the Palestine debacle. He was said to have written a note to one delegate saying "this is the end of the truce."

Dr. Bunche is reported to have felt strongly that unless the council backed up his demand with a strong resolution, the situation in Palestine would explode again into a general war.

Several Jewish leaders in the United States have criticized Dr. Bunche for submitting and standing by the report of the late Count Bernadotte who was assinated by persons as yet uncaptutred and unpunished.

Dr. Bunche blamed the Israeli for failing to give adequate protection to the mission and because of this, he was severely criticized by American Jewish

NASHVILLE CHURCH MARKS CENTENNIAL

By GEORGE W. HARVEY

Nashville (ANP) — The centennial jubilee of Spruce Street Baptist Church, to be celebrated Nov. 7-18, is in line with the development, progress and history of Nashville.

It is called "the mother church" of Negro Baptists in this section, because it was in 1848 that 500 Negro members of the First Baptist Church (white) withdrew by mutual agreement and established the First Baptist Church (colored) on Pearl near Walnut St., now known as 10th Avenue north, with the Rev. Nelson G. Merry as the first pastor.

Those days even as now, were days of great issues and problems. The newly established Negro church being the first in this section to take such action naturally fired the imagination and en-

There is little doubt that such an exemplary character will have a message well worth hearing.

LONE PICKET BLASTS JIMCROW IN HAWAIIAN ILES

Honolulu (ANP) — Ben F. Johnson, a well known Honolulu contractor, has taken the colorful cloak off our Hawaiian "paradise". He is presently waging a campaign against the increasing jim crowism in the Hawaiian island, especially in the city of Honolulu.

Johnson appeared last week on Hotel street with a sign reading "We fought for democracy—this Jim Crow must go." He charged in an interview that most of the Negroes are being discriminated against in the bars throughout Honolulu, and escially on Hotel street. "I am going to picket these places as often as I can get into town from my business in Wahiawa", he asserted.

Johnson also wrote a letter to the editor of the famous Star-Bulletin in which he said, in part, "We, as American citizens, whose flesh and blood have fertiled the soil in every land, are confronted here with a contagious disease that is rapidly growing worse — racial fear and jim crowism.

"How can anyone infected with this disease here call themselves true Americans?"

Protest March Is Planned By N. C. NAACP Chapters

Raleigh — Although the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People may be plagued at times with internal dissention the organization is solidly united behind a policy of combatting discrimination and unequal facilities, local members of the organization were told Sunday.

Speaking at a meeting of the Raleigh Branch held at the Martin St. Baptist Church, Kelly Alexander, president of the N. C. State council of NAACP Branches also predicted intensified activity for equal rights in the state during the coming year.

Lashing out at unequal school facilities, employment opportunities and representation of Negroes on policy-making bodies in the state, Mr. Alexander told his audience that members of the association plan a "March on Raleigh" during the next session of the state legislature in the capital.

The march on the Capitol, Mr Alexander stated, will be conducted in an orderly and peaceful manner, but will be aimed at dramatic presentation to the legislators and to the state of the desires of the Negro citizens for a state FEPC law, the abolition of jimcrow laws and for the recognition of Negroes on policy making bodies in the state and local governments.

FISK U. ARCHIVIST ATTENDS MEET HERE

Dr. Dwight H. Wilson, Fiske University archivist, arrived in Raleigh Tuesday to attend the 12th annual meeting of the Society of American Archivists which is being conducted at the Sir Walter Hotel.

Features of the three-day meeting which will be held Wednesday through Friday will include tours of the University of North Carolina and Duke University archives and libraries as well as lectures by outstanding authorities in the field.

Dr. Wilson, who assumed the Fiske post in April, has since uncovered many important and interesting documents concerned with the early history of the university.

One of the more interesting of these was a previously unknown and unpublished letter written by the abolitionist and martyr, John Brown, to a relative of an early Fiske faculty member.

The only Negro attending the sessions, Dr. Wilson is a native of Raleigh and the son of the late Rev. A. J. Wilson, who pastored here for a number of years.

Prior to accepting the Fiske post, Dr Wilson spent a number of years in the National Archives in Washington, D. C., and later went to Italy as archival consultant to the Allied Commission and deputy director of Allied Force Records Administration Archives. He also directed the reorganization of the Allied Commission Archives in Rome.
