"No matter how small the week's earnings may be, it is not very hard to lay by part of it, though but a little. To do this is to provide an support in case of accident or sickness, to be able to do something for a friend in need, and to avoid useless and expensive habits. The Freedman's Savings and Trust Company offers more local perks as the best and safest opportunity I know of to do this, and I recommend it warmly.

Important to Magistrates, Clerks, Sheriffs and Others.

THE undersigned have in press, and will soon issue, a complete and full

Analysis of the Laws, under the Code of Civil Procedure, as passed by the General Assembly, relating to the duties of Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Clerks of Court, and other County Officers, together with the Constitution of the State, a list of the Counties as divided into Judicial Districts, the time of holding Courts in the several Counties, the names of the Judges and Solicitors of each Circuit, the names of the Clerks of the Superior Court, Register of Deeds, Sheriff, County Commissioners, Treasurer and Coroner for each County. This pamphlet will also contain the Fees allowed by the new law to the several officers, with some of the most necessary

Forms of Civil and Criminal Process.

The work will contain about 150 pages, and will be a most valuable book of reference for County Officers.

Sent by mail to any post office in the State, postage paid, for $1 per copy. Address, NICHOLS & GORMAN, Book and Job Printers, RALEIGH, N. C.

THE undersigned are also preparing, under the direction of a member of the Raleigh Bar, a DIGEST OF ALL THE LAWS CONCERNING COUNTY OFFICERS, WITH A COMPLETE SET OF FORMS, adapted to the new order of things. This book, of some 400 pages, will be published as soon as the final report of the Commissioners appointed to revise the Code has been adopted by the General Assembly. The plan and scope of the proposed book will be further laid before the public at an early day.

NEW BERNE REPUBLICAN,

THE ONLY

DAILY

Republican Paper

PUBLISHED IN EASTERN

NORTH CAROLINA.

ISSUED FROM 70 CRAVEN STREET,

NEW BERNE, No. Ca

THE REPUBLICAN is issued on an Independent and Progressive Journal

which shall reflect the sentiments and opinions of the unmistakeable loyal population of Eastern North Carolina, by an uncompromising opposition to the doctrines of Secession, and by a fearless advocacy of the sterns principles of Union, Liberty and Equality before the Law.

The Republican will be devoted to the common interests of our people, with "malice toward none and charity for all;" it will plead for the maintenance inviolate of the National Government and its credit; the education by all available means of the people; the encouragement of immigration and the developement of our agricultural, mineral and commercial resources.

While the Republican will be pre-eminently a newspaper, the departments of

COMMERCE, AGRICULTURE, ART, SCIENCE, AND LITERATURE, will receive such attention by Reports, Essays, Reviews and Summaries as space will permit.

Full reports on all matters of Local Interest will form a prominent feature, and as there appears as yet no other in Eastern North Carolina, the advantages which the Republican will offer as an advertising medium are apparent.

UNCONDITIONAL UNION PAPER

AN ORDINANCE

To lay Taxes and Provide for the Support of the City Government.

SEC. 1. It is ordained by the Mayor and Council of the city of New Berne, That for the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1869, a tax of one per cent. upon the value of real estate within the limits of the corporation, be and the same is hereby laid to be collected as is by law provided.

It is further ordained, That from and after the 1st day of April, 1869, no person, firm or corporation shall prosecute or carry on either of the trades or occupations mentioned in the schedule of this ordinance, until he or they shall have obtained a license therefor in the manner hereinafter provided.

SEC. 2. It is further ordained, That every person or persons desiring to obtain a license shall register with the City Clerk, first, his name, at what house or style; second, the trades or occupations for which a license is desired; third, the place where such trade or occupation is to be carried on; fourth, if an inn-keeper, the yearly rental of the house and property to be occupied for said purpose, and thereupon, upon payment to the City Treasurer or some person authorized to collect the tax herein provided, shall make out and deliver a license for such trade or occupation, which license shall continue in force for one month, of the place or premises described therein.

SEC. 3. It is further ordained, That if any person or persons shall exercise or carry on any trade or business mentioned and for the exercising of which a license is required, without taking out such license as in this ordinance provided, for, or, part of time, shall, for every such offence, respectively forfeit a penalty equal to three times the amount of the sum of money imposed for such license to the use of the city.

SEC. 4. And be it further ordained, That in every case where more than one of the privileges hereinafter described shall be exercised by the same person in the same place at the same time, except as therein mentioned, license money to be taken out for each, according to the rates severally annexed.

SEC. 5. And be it further ordained, That on and after the first day of April, 1869, for each license, a record the same herein fully stated, specifies respectively and monthly paid. Any member of persons carrying on any business running within the purview of this ordinance, in partnership, may transact such business at each place, under such license, and one subscription.

(1.) Bankers shall pay five dollars for each license, and every person shall be deemed a banker within the meaning of this ordinance, who keeps a place of business where money is exposed, in favor of any person or firm, by the deposit or collection of money or currency, and the same, or any part thereof, shall be paid out or remitted upon the draft or check of such creditor.

(2.) Auctioneers shall pay ten dollars for license.—Every person shall be deemed an auctioneer whose occupation it is to offer property for sale to the highest bidder.

(3.) Retail Dealers in liquors, including all distilled or fermented liquors, and wines of every description, shall pay five dollars for each license. Every person who shall offer for sale such liquors in less quantity than one gallon at one time, to the same purchaser, shall be regarded a retail dealer in liquors.

(4.) Retail Dealers shall pay one dollar for each license. Every person whose occupation it is to sell or offer for sale groceries or any goods, wares or merchandise, or foreign or domestic productions, in less quantities than a whole original piece or package, at one time to the same person (not including wines, spirituous or malt liquors), shall be regarded as a retail dealer.

(5.) Wholesale Dealers shall pay four dollars for each license. Every person whose occupation or business it is to sell groceries or any goods, wares or merchandise, by one or more original packages or piece at one time, to the same purchaser, or wines and liquors in quantities of more than one gallon, shall be deemed a wholesale dealer.

(6.) Hotels, Inns and Taverns, shall pay five dollars for each license. Every place where food and lodging are provided for and furnished to travelers or sojourners, in view of payment therefor, shall be regarded as a Hotel, Inn or Tavern.

(7.) Brokers and Commission Merchants shall pay four dollars for each license. Any person except one holding a license as wholesale dealer or banker who business it is to purchase or sell stocks, money, goods or merchandise, or such orders therefor in original unbroken packages, or produce, or to negotiate loans or matters for the owners of vessels, or consignees of freight, or whose business it is to purchase, rent or sell real estate for others, shall be regarded as a Broker or Commission Merchant.

(8.) Theatres, Circuses and Jugglers shall pay a sum not to exceed two hundred dollars to be fixed by the City Council in each case.

(9.) Bowling Alleys or Billiard Rooms shall pay four dollars for each license.

(10.) Horse Dealers and Livery Stable Keepers shall pay four dollars for each license.

(11.) Peddlers shall pay fifty cents for each license.—Any person, except persons peddling newspapers, books or domestic produce as their own producing, who sells or offers to sell at retail goods, wares or commodities, travelling from place to place in the streets shall be deemed a peddler.

(12.) Manufacturers shall pay two dollars for each license. Any person, except one holding a license as wholesale dealer or banker or firm who shall manufacture by hand or machinery, and offer for sale any goods, wares or merchandise exceeding annually the sum of one thousand dollars shall be deemed a manufacturer.

(13.) Lawyers, Physicians, Dentists, Photographers and Printers, shall pay one dollar for each license.

(14.) Express Companies shall pay five dollars for each license.

(15.) All public drays shall pay twenty-five cents for each license.

(16.) Cart-houses shall pay two dollars for each license.

SEC. 7. And be it further ordained, That all Ordinances and parts of Ordinances conflicting herewith, be, and the same are hereby repealed.
