accabee Reunion

Marvin Bienstock trumming guitar and singing for enthusiastic audience.

We're all so proud of our new Camp Maccabee bus.

On March 4 at McClintock Junior High School, campers from the past and prospective new campers met for an afternoon of fun and friendship.

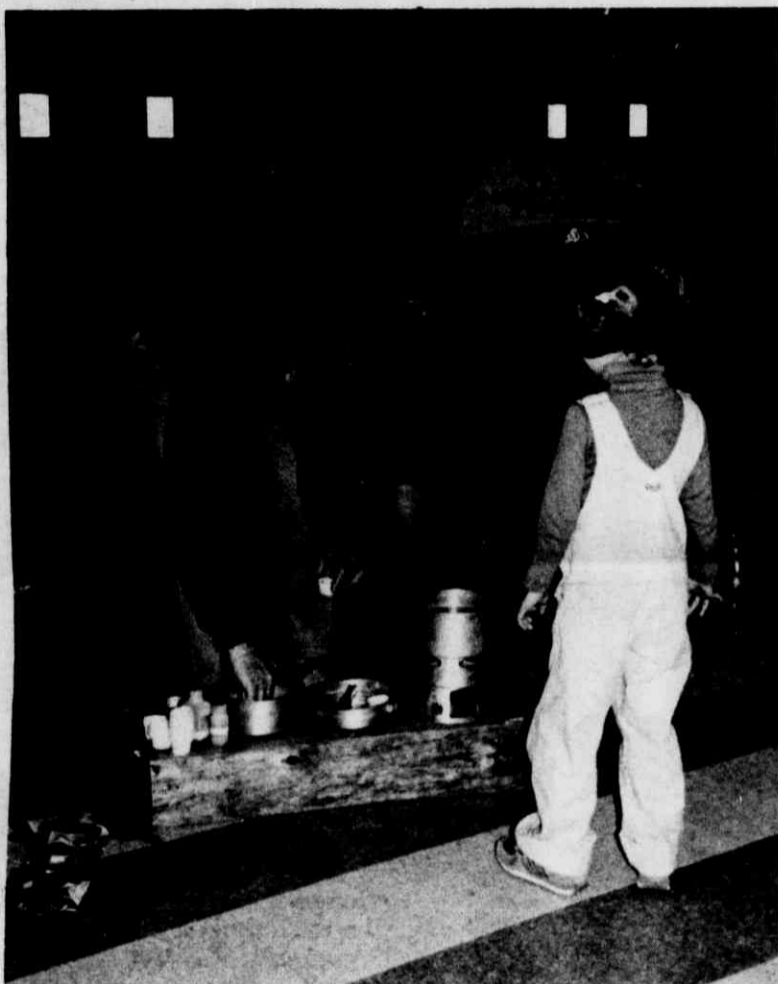

Campers renewed old friendships and got a peek at what Camp Maccabee would offer them this summer.

Highlights of the afternoon included being "introduced" to Camp Maccabee's new bus, finding little hidden Macca-bees," designing this summer's camp "T" shirt, playing games outside and singing around the camp fire.

Thanks to Jesse Brown for bringing the outside in with a wonderful camp display complete with a tent, canoe, sleeping bag, and camp fire. All campers were given a taste of stroganoff cooked camp style and special freeze dried ice cream!

With the help of several teenagers interested in counseling positions this summer, Marvin Bienstock's talent on the guitar, and a big cooler of bug juice, a camp spirit was generated.

If you missed the camp reunion, talk with someone who went, then call the JCC so you don't miss the fun this summer.

One of the prospective campers watches a worker from Jesse Brown's prepare the camp equipment. The children learned of the new things that will happen during summer '84. Note tent in background.

Club 23

On February 26 the Scout Hut on Sardis Road was transformed into a Karate arena as the "Mighty Mights" gave Club 23 a sample of what makes them trophy winners. Dressed in traditional white uniforms with colored sashes and barefeet, the 6-9 year olds impressed everyone with their punches, kicks and board breaking. After the exhibition, it was the club members' turn to get into the act. Under the leadership of Dale Denny, coach of the Mighty Mites, members learned basic karate movements, concentration and important self defense techniques.

Once we had had a good workout we enjoyed fortune cookies, juice and relaxation. Kee-aah!!!

Club 46

Club 46 held their last Club meeting on February 26 at the Scout Hut on Sardis Road.

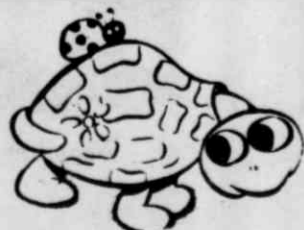

Club 46's welcomed Jr. Kadima members to the meeting and new friendships began.

The meeting opened with a fascinating Karate exhibition by the "Mighty Mites." After the exhibition, it was time for dinner. Members fixed their own stuffed baked potatoes, salad bar style, and met outside for a meal of stuffed potatoes, carrot sticks and apple wedges.

Once dinner was finished, it was election time. Club members and prospective members gave campaign speeches and elections for President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer were held. Our new officers are Stuart Gordan, President; Daniel Weinstock, Secretary; and Sarit Massachi, Treasurer. Mazel Tov to all new officers!

The meeting ended with a planning session for upcoming events. It looks like a fun and interesting Spring is ahead for Club 46! Watch for notices on future meetings.
