THE OBSERVER

Needs no formal statement of principles, nor elaborate recital of what it will do, or expects to do, in the coming year. It can offer no stronger guarantee for its future than is afforded by its past conduct. It will labor earnestly and faithfully for the advancement of the Democratic party, and for the good of the State, which it believes to be one and inseparable.

To this end is desired at once a largely increased circulation for THE OBSERVER and the wholesome literature it is giving to the people of North Carolina. Once in a household, THE OBSERVER becomes a fixture. It needs only to be seen to make its way into every nook and corner of the State. That it may be so seen, and speedily, its Editors offer the following

PREMIUMS FOR 1877:

FOR THE OBSERVER, DAILY:

To each and every person who sends us $8 for one year's subscription to THE OBSERVER, daily, will be mailed postpaid any one of the following novels of Sir WALTER SCOTT, beautifully printed, elegantly bound, and profusely illustrated:

Or, to any one who may send us $96 for twelve annual subscriptions, the whole of the above will be forwarded, by mail or express, free of all charges.

Or, to any one who may send us $192, for twenty-four annual subscriptions, will be forwarded, free of charge, all the above at once, and the remaining 24 volumes of this unrivaled edition of SCOTT'S matchless novels, as issued monthly; the whole delivery to be completed by October, 1877.

FOR THE OBSERVER, WEEKLY.

Or, to any one who may send us $24 for twelve annual subscriptions, the twelve books above named will be forwarded by mail or express free of all charges.

To that person, man, woman, or child, who may send us the cash for the largest number of annual subscriptions to THE OBSERVER, daily, or weekly, or both combined, between January 1, 1877, and March 1, 1877, will be forwarded, free of all charges, ALL the books named as premiums to each paper, and a commission of TEN PER CENT. OF THE AMOUNT REMITTED.

To the person who may send us the second largest list, one-half the volumes named, and the same cash commission.

THE SUN.

1877. NEW YORK. 1877.

The different editions of THE SUN during the next year will be the same as during the year that has just passed. The daily edition will on week days be a sheet of four pages, and of Sundays a sheet of eight pages, or 56 broad columns; while the weekly edition will be a sheet on eight pages of the same dimensions and character that are already familiar to our friends.

THE SUN will continue to be the strenuous advocate of reform and retrenchment, and of the substitution of statesmanship, wisdom, and integrity for hollow pretence, imbecility, and fraud in the administration of public affairs. It will contend for the government of the people by the people and for the people, as opposed to government by frauds in the ballot-box and in the counting of votes, enforced by military violence. It will endeavor to supply its readers a body now not far from a million souls—with the most careful, complete, and trustworthy accounts of current events, and will employ for this purpose a numerous and carefully selected staff of reporters and correspondents. Its reports from Washington, especially, will be full, accurate, and fearless; and it will doubtless continue to deserve and enjoy the hatred of those who thrive by plundering the Treasury or by usurping what the law does not give them, while it will endeavor to merit the confidence of the public by defending the rights of the people against the encroachments of unjustified power.

The price of the daily SUN will be 55 cents a month or $6.50 a year, post paid, or with the Sunday edition $7.70 a year.

The SUNDAY edition alone eight pages, $1.20 a year, post paid.

THE WEEKLY SUN, eight pages of 56 broad columns, will be furnished during 1877 at the rate of $1 per year, post paid.

The benefit of this large reduction from the previous rate for THE WEEKLY can be enjoyed by individual subscribers without the necessity of making up clubs. At the same time, if any of our friends choose to aid in extending our circulation, we shall be grateful to them, and every such person who sends us ten or more subscribers from one place will be entitled to one copy of the paper for himself without charge. At one dollar a year, postage paid, the expenses of paper and printing are barely repaid; and considering the size of the sheet and the quality of its contents, we are confident the people will consider THE WEEKLY SUN the cheapest newspaper published in the world, and we trust also one of the very best. THE "WORLD" FOR 1877.

THE NEW YORK WORLD for 1877, Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly, will be found to be the cheapest and best newspaper published in the United States. It will be printed in an improved form, with new type, upon the best paper, and no expense or labor will be spared to maintain it in every department at the highest possible standard, and to commend it in all respects to the confidence and approval of the best classes in the community, without regard to political opinions or religious differences.

It will lay before its readers:

THE NEWS OF THE DAY of all kinds and from all quarters, by mail and by telegraph, carefully condensed and luckily arranged, special attention being given to all Commercial, Legal, Financial, Social, Criminal and Political Transactions in the city of New York and in the United States.

FULL REPORTS, reciting and illustrating all Congressional and Legislative proceedings at Washington and Albany; all meetings of importance, religious, educational, scientific and political; all social events, gay and grave, and personal information of interest to the public.

CORRESPONDENCE, expressly prepared for this journal by a permanent staff of accomplished resident writers at all centres of interest throughout the world.

LITERARY NEWS and REVIEWS, by which our readers will be kept advised of everything worthy of attention in the current Literature of Europe and America.

CRITICISMS of all notable works and notices of all notable events in connection with Music, the Drama, Painting, Sculpture and all other branches of Art.

EDITORIAL ARTICLES upon every subject of present interest or importance.

For the principles by which THE WORLD will be governed in its discussion and treatment of all public questions, it will suffice to say that THE WORLD, while conservative in politics, desires the conservation only of what is good and wise in our public institutions and our political system; liberal in spirit, it admits no limitation upon the rights of private judgment and the aspirations of Reform, save those which are imposed by prudence, decorum, and a rational respect for vested rights and for the honest opinions of all classes and sects of men. While it has labored for the principles and hails the triumph of the Democratic party as affording us a practical promise of Reform in our public administrations, city, State and national, it will not be blindly devoted to the advancement of any party or any clique. It will freely canvass the public conduct, while it will treat with respect the private rights, of Public Men, and it will examine fearlessly into the workings of our national, State and municipal governments.

It will inculcate a steadfast reliance upon the original principles of our political system as the only sound basis of all needed improvements therein; an unfaltering devotion to the Constitution and the Union, a scrupulous fidelity to the spirit as well as the letter of our laws, and a sleepless vigilance in maintaining all the great safe-guards of Civil and Religious Liberty; it will seek to mitigate and not to aggravate the evils inseparable from Party Government in a Free Country; to promote good and not ill feeling among our fellow-citizens of all creeds and colors, all sections and all sects; and to advance both by its precepts and by its example the reign of Reason and of Law over prejudice and passion in all our public action and in the discussion of public affairs.

It will do justice always, to the best of its ability, to all men and to all classes of men; it will recognize no enemies but the enemies of good morals, public order and the law; it will endeavor, in a word, to make its columns a terror to evil-doers and a praise to them that do well.

Nor will it lose sight meanwhile of the great and legitimate office of the readers of public for entertainment. THE WORLD will keep its readers informed of all that is amusing as well as of all that is momentous in the movements of society and will spare neither trouble nor expense to provide them with a varied, animated and accurate picture of the times in which we live.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE.

"THE LEADING AMERICAN NEWSPAPER."

LARGEST CIRCULATION AMONG THE BEST PEOPLE.

I. IT PUBLISHES ALL THE NEWS. The servant of no man and the slave of no party, it can afford to and does tell the truth about all.

II. IT IS IMPARTIAL AND INDEPENDENT. Believing in intelligent suffrage, it aims to furnish voters the fullest and fairest information, to qualify them for the wisest discharge of their responsibility.

III. IT IS, AS IT ALWAYS WAS, ESSENTIALLY REPUBLICAN. It may quarrel in the future, as it has done in the past, with errors of Republican leaders or corruptions in the Republican party; but it can never cease to be true to Republican principles, and especially to those golden doctrines of civil service reform, hard money, the sanctity of the National faith, and equal justice to all classes at the South, which formed the corner-stones of Gov. Hayes's admirable letter of acceptance.

IV. ITS MORAL TONE IS PURE AND ELEVATED. The family circle is never profaned by anything which appears in the columns of THE TRIBUNE.

V. THE CHOICEST STANDARD AND CURRENT LITERATURE of the day is presented in its columns, including Correspondence, Poems, Stories, and Reviews from the most talented and popular writers.

VI. IT IS THE BEST AND CHEAPEST FARMER'S PAPER PUBLISHED. "THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE has done more to make good farmers than any other influence which ever existed."

VII. THE MARKET REPORTS of THE TRIBUNE are indispensable to every buyer and seller in the country. Quotations are given daily and weekly of almost every article bought and sold in the markets of the world, and with unvarying and almost infallible accuracy. Its Cattle, Butter and Cheese, and other Markets are the recognized standard.

VIII. MORE COPIES of THE TRIBUNE are paid for and read by the American people than of any other newspaper of equal price in the country—a fact which is the best demonstration of the value of the paper.

IX. THE READERS of THE TRIBUNE represent largely the best enterprising and progressive minds of the country. Persons who are interested in pure politics, the advance of science, and the progress of opinion, will find their demands met by THE TRIBUNE.

X. PUBLIC APPROVAL AND PROSPERITY have rewarded the independent and self-respectful course of THE TRIBUNE. It has a larger and stronger corps of earnest workers among its friends than ever before, and constantly receives from old and new readers words of encouragement.
