Bowles Is Leading Down Bigot's Path

By Kays Gary of the Sunday Charlotte OBSERVER in his column, PEOPLE AND POLITICS

If sincere and sane segregationists entertain any hope of relief for their cause, they'd do well to develop leadership other than that of the Milford madman, Byrant Bowles.

It is inconceivable that Bowles could hoodwink even 200 people with the Big Lie technique. But Goebbels did it.

Bowles' followers are still convinced that no publicity preceded the peanut bigot's speech here. They refuse to look at the front-page record because they "know what Bryant said right out in the open."

It takes people blinded to reason by bigotry to place money into Bowles' hands without knowing where it'll go.

In an interview here, Bowles denied he is anti-Semitic. But his National Forum pamphlet, signed by him, refers to "the Jew-dominated, Negro-loving Eisenhower" . . . and to "Jews and other slimy non-whites" . . . "Jewish master race (which hopes to rule) as dictator over mongrelized slaves" . . . "We dream of exposing or executing these Jew traitors" . . . "What cash Negroes get from local and federal agencies goes to Jewish-owned liquor stores or to Jewish dope peddlers" . . . White boys can't win prize fights because "Judges are Jewish" . . . "Because the white man has spread the doctrine of love he is marked for destruction by the Jewish, African and Asiatic forces of Satan" . . . And finally, "By desegregating, the love of Jesus Christ will be forever lost to the world!"

AME Bishops, Ministers Meet; Only One Absent

BY GEORGE A. SINGLETON

DETROIT (ANP) — The summer council of bishops of the AME Church met at Ebenezer AME Church last week. All of the bishops were present except Bishop Frederick D. Jordan of South Africa. The council was entertained at an elaborate lawn fete at the residence of Bishop and Mrs. George D. Baber. It was an occasion for the visitors to meet Mrs. Baber, formerly Mrs. Ella Derrick of Chicago.

The council opened Wednesday morning with a sermon by Bishop Alexander J. Scien, Cleveland, O. Bishop E. C. Hatcher of West Africa and the 15th Episcopal district made the exhortation. The communion of the Lord's Supper was administered. The large gathering was saddened by the news of the death of Bishop B. O. Walker of the Fifth Episcopal district.

The mortality among AME leaders has been high during the quadrennium. Seven bishops, three bishops' wives, and three general officers have died since the general conference of 1952 in Chicago. The assignment of a bishop or bishops over the Fifth district will be announced following the funeral of Bishop Walker at Kansas City, Kan., and Wilberforce University. It has been reported that the district will be supervised by two or three bishops.

America's Rights Come From God

By Rev. James Keller, Director of the Christophers

LAST YEAR the mayor of a large Eastern city read the Declaration of Independence at a July 4 celebration. In his reading he left out all the references to God as the source of our rights — he skipped over the whole basis for the document!

Too often today in our classrooms, the Declaration of Independence is referred to as if it were only of historical importance. Sometimes it is presented only as a list of grievances against the British King.

Keller

IN THE ESSENCE of the Declaration is an appeal to God, the Author of life and of all human rights, to justify the rebellion. Thomas Jefferson in his first draft of the Declaration, gave full prominence to God as the source of our rights and equality. But the Congress itself went even farther.

To Jefferson's words they added an appeal to God as "the Supreme Judge of the World." In the last sentence of Jefferson's draft, Congress added the phrase, "with a firm reliance on divine Providence." This action of our Founding Fathers shows that God and religion are the basis for our government. The Declaration of Independence answers those who would seek to banish God from our schools or any other public institutions.

JEFFERSON AND THE MEN who approved the Declaration of Independence knew that all men are, "endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights." They knew too that if recognition of our dependence on God should ever be stricken from our theory of government, we would have no basis for our liberties.

But are Americans retaining these principles of our founders? Not long ago I received a letter from a state education supervisor. He told me that in his state, "The Declaration of Independence is presented simply as a historical document. The interpretation and philosophy therein would vary with the teacher."

BUT THOMAS JEFFERSON said that the principles of the Declaration are eternal. This means unchanging and not varying with each teacher. If man's rights are inalienable, their foundation must be unchanging too.

Our country is great because of the unchanging principles found in the Declaration of Independence. We will keep it great only by remembering that these principles are based on belief in an eternal God whom we serve and adore.

Bishop Walker Dies; Once Pastored Here

KANSAS CITY — (ANP)—One of the fiercest leaders of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, Bishop D. Ormende Walker, died last week at the AME Douglass Hospital.

Funeral services were scheduled for 11 a. m. Tuesday, July 5 in Kansas City, Kans. and for Thursday, July 7, at Wilberforce, Ohio. Burial will be in Wilberforce.

Bishop Walker died at 2.03 p. m. Tuesday, June 28, after being a patient for a week in the hospital. His death followed a lingering illness of several months.

His wife, Mrs. Eva Walker, and his daughter, Miss Yvonne Walker, were with him when he passed.

The death of Bishop Walker ended the career of a man who was considered the champion of the little man and the minister in the AME church. He was elected bishop in Kansas City in 1948 after he had fought to curb powers of the Bishop Council and the bishopric.

Curiously enough, he was on his way to the Bishops Council meeting held in Detroit last week when he died. He was assigned to the Fifth Episcopal District at the time of his election.
