Estray.
STRAYED from the subscriber, on the 1st inst., TWO SORREL HORSES,—one with a star on the face, with some of his feet white. One was shed,—the other not; and one had saddle marks on his back. One was raised in Wake County, and the other in Cumberland; and it is more than probable that they have respectively strayed in those directions.
Any information concerning them will be gratefully received, and necessary expenses attending them will be paid.

NEW JEWELRY STORE.
CHARLES H. THOMPSON.
WOULD respectfully inform the Citizens of Raleigh, the county and the country adjoining, that he has fitted up in splendid style the house formerly occupied by the Insurance Company, on the west side of Fayetteville Street, and between Mr. S. H. Young's and Murray & O'Neal's Dry Good Stores, where he has opened a rich and beautiful assortment of New Jewelry of all the modern styles, consisting of the ornamental and useful, and to which he invites the attention of the Ladies.
He has also for the gentleman a good lot of Gold and Silver Watches, which will be warranted to perform well, when delivered to the customer; also a few excellent double barrel guns brought on expressly for the hunters of Carolina; also a great variety of walking Canes. In fact, at the New Jewelry Store, any and every thing usually kept in such establishments may be found at prices that cannot fail to please the customer.
Repairing executed at short notice and satisfaction guaranteed.

Peace Proclamation!
THE SUBSCRIBER respectfully informs his friends and patrons, and the public in general, of his return from the Northern cities, and the arrival of his stock of Spring and Summer goods, embracing Cloths, Cassimeres, and Vestings, of French, English and American manufacture, of every variety of color, quality and price.
FURNISHING GOODS,
consisting of super Dress Shirts, Silk, Gauze and Cotton under-shirts; Silk, Linen and Cotton Drawers; Silk, Cotton and Thread, white and fancy Half Hose, Gloves of every variety; a large assortment of Collars, new styles: Cravats, Ties, Stocks, plain and fancy. Suspenders, Silk and Linen Cravats, Silk, Linen, and Linen-cambric pocket Handkerchiefs, Dressing Gowns, &c., &c. In addition, he is also receiving a large assortment of SUPERIOR READY MADE CLOTHING, which, being manufactured under his own supervision and direction, he can confidently recommend to all. To this branch of his business he desires to give more attention than heretofore, and will make regular additions to his already complete stock, as the season advances, and the wants of his patrons may require. All he asks is an examination of his stock before purchasing elsewhere. No charge for looking.
To cash buyers, he offers great inducements. He receives regularly the latest French, English and American reports of Fashions, retains the services of the most experienced workmen, both in cutting and manufacturing, and guarantees all his work to be equal, if not superior, to any in the State, or out of it, either in quality or price. If this be true, then ENCOURAGE YOUR OWN PEOPLE! Why send your money to the North, when your wants can be as well supplied at home? Why break down the working men of your own State, (whose interest should be your interest, as yours is his,) to the building up of your openly avowed enemies? Why banish your Mechanics and Artizans from a home, both of nativity and choice, to climes uncongenial—yea, even to the midst of your enemies?
Ye who have an interest in the welfare of good old North Carolina, think of it; cease this fratricidal policy ere it be too late.
Gentlemen furnishing their own goods may rely upon having the same care and attention as though furnished by myself; but in all cases it is considered a cash transaction. Cutting and repairing done at all times, as usual, for cash.
NOTICE IS AGAIN GIVEN TO ALL IN ARREARS for 1855, and previously, that their notes and accounts will not remain in my hands after the first of May ensuing; to all of which particular attention is solicited by ISAAC PROCTER.
Opposite the Post Office.

Something New!
THE firm of JOHNS & FERRELL respectfully beg leave to inform the citizens of Raleigh, and the surrounding country, that they are now receiving and opening, in their new brick building, on the north-side of the Market Square, a large and well selected stock of staple and domestic goods—together with a large lot of fashionable Hats, Boots, Shoes, Hard and Hollow Ware. Also a large and well selected lot of Family Groceries—consisting in part of Java, Laguyra and Rio Coffees; Loaf, crushed, pulverized and Orleans Sugars; Molasses, Rice, Tea, Bacon, Lard, Butter, Flour, Meal, Sperm, Adamantine and Tallow Candles, Candies, Raisins, Snuff, Segars, Smoking and Chewing Tobacco. Also a large lot of Glass and Stone China Ware—with many other things too numerous to mention.
The undersigned intend to keep constantly on hand a large and fresh supply of FAMILY GROCERIES, which they promise to sell at the lowest prices. Country produce will be taken in exchange for goods at the highest cash prices. Having procured the services of D. Lewis as clerk, whose business qualities are generally known, they flatter themselves with the hope that they will be favored with a liberal share of patronage.

KNOWLEDGE FOR THE PEOPLE, Or, THINGS WORTH KNOWING.
The Cheapest, Handsomest, and Best Book ever Published.
Five Thousand Years Worth of Information.
A Book which should be in the hands of every person living. Sent to any part of the United States and Canadas free of postage, and carefully enveloped,
Upon the remittance of Twenty-five cents, to
F. MACREA, Norfolk, Va.
IT teaches the Art of Love, Courtship and Marriage
It teaches how to win the favor of ladies.
It teaches how to commence a courtship, and how to pop the question.
Advice to young men upon getting a wife.
The style of address for the principal Public Offices of the United States.
How to tame cross, ugly, unruly horses and other animals.
Forms of messages, cards and billets, suitable for all occasions.
How to raise double crops, and of double the usual size, without manure or extra expense.
How to restore, cleanse and beautify the hair, and make it rich, soft and glossy.
Very important secrets to married and single persons.
It teaches everybody how to get rich, and by honorable means.
How to destroy rats, mice, roaches, and every other insect in your house, or on your premises, in one night.
How to restore and preserve the eye-sight for life.
A secret worth knowing.
How to write a secret letter, so as to be read only by the person to whom you write.
How to hasten the growth of whiskers and mustachios.
How to remove tan, pimples, warts, corns, blotches and freckles
How to cure stuttering, stammering and drunkenness.
How to make brown, dark and bad teeth beautiful and white as pearls and so sound as not to decay during life.
How to make two pair of boots or shoes wear five years.
How to make one hundred pounds of good soap for one dollar.
How to make an ordinary tallow candle burn from seven to ten nights, constantly.
A valuable receipt, by the advantage of which any person, male or female, can make from $18 to $20 per week, and an industrious person can make money fast.
It teaches hundreds of other things which are useful to everybody.
Wonderful and mysterious as many things in the above may appear, they are nevertheless true to the very letter, as will be made self-evident to every true and impartial observer.
OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.
A book of sterling merit, from which we have gained useful information.—Syracuse Express.
Every person living should have a copy; it teaches more than it professes.—Albany Daily Globe.
A wonderful and useful book, and worth a thousand times its price. We advise our readers to buy it and peruse its pages, and, our word for it, they will find valuable and useful information.—Bangor Republican.
Let not the careless reader imagine that it is a common book; on the contrary, it is full of information; we commend it as a treasure.—Smithfield Argus.
Address F. MACREA,
Norfolk, Va.,
And the book will be sent by return mail, and free of postage

UNITED STATES MAIL LINE PER STEAMSHIPS
Jamestown and Roanoke.
THE elegant new steamship JAMESTOWN, Captain Parish, which is to run in connexion with the Roanoke, made her first trip from New York to Petersburg, on Saturday, the 25th ult., and will continue to make regular trips weekly—leaving New York every Saturday, at 4 o'clock, P. M, and Petersburg every Tuesday evening.
The ROANOKE will leave New York every Tuesday, and Petersburg every Friday evening. Travellers going North will thus be afforded an opportunity twice a week of taking one of these splendid steamships and thereby avoid the dust and frequent changes of the Railroads. Passengers on board of steamers will find the State rooms fitted up in the most elegant style and the fare and attention unsurpassed.
Passage and Fare from Petersburg to New York,
(State-rooms included,) $10 00
Steerage passage, 5 00

Raleigh & Gaston Railroad.
RALEIGH & GASTON R. R. OFFICE,
RALEIGH, February 8, 1856.
AS THE NORTH CAROLINA RAILROAD is now completed to Charlotte, notice is hereby given, that goods or produce brought down that Road, intended for transportation over the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, will be received by this Company at the North Carolina Railroad Depot in Raleigh, (owned jointly by the Companies,) and will be transported thence without delay or extra charge, and goods designed for the western merchants and others along that Road will likewise be delivered at the same point.
All dues for freight collected at Petersburg or Portsmouth, except new freight, which must be paid in advance or on delivery of the goods.
Every effort will be made by the officers and agents of the Company to give satisfaction in the transportation of goods and produce.
Owners and shippers of goods are requested to have them distinctly marked, so that their destination may be known.
