Behold!

THE Subscriber intending to remove to "Beaufort," at the close of the year, offers for sale the place, whereon he resides, admitted by all to be among the most delightful residences of the up country,—in the midst of a most delightful neighborhood, contiguous to good Schools, and unsurpassed for health; situated on the road leading from Halifax and Tarboro' to Raleigh, and Louisburg and about ten miles east of the latter.

The improvements are mostly new and comfortable; the dwelling consists of eight rooms with fire places; the out building consists of all that are useful and convenient, and are well built; the water is abundant and unsurpassed. The plantation embraces about 770 acres of land, which, taken as a whole, I defy to be beaten, either for the culture of Corn, Cotton, Tobacco or Wheat. It is an eligible stand for a physician and merchant. To any person of the lower country, desirous of removing to the up country, such an opportunity is seldom afforded.

To all interested, I respectfully invite inspection.
JOSEPH S. OUTLAW.
