PHOTOGRAPH
AND
FINE ART GALLERY.

THE SUBSCRIBER TAKES THIS METHOD OF INforming the citizens of North-Carolina that he has taken the Photograph Gallery formerly occupied by E Hunt, on Main S reet, renovated and refitted it in a first class style, and is now prepared to execute all kinds of pictures known in his line, from the smallest miniature to a life size portrait colored in oil Persons having pictures of deceased friends may send the likeness with description of person, color of hair, complexion, &c, and obtain a picture of any size, colored in oil. A splendid stock of material always on hand. Plain and fancy cases, frames and card de visites made at the shortest notice

The subscriber flatters himself that after a practical experience of 16 years he will be able to please even the most fastidious. He is determined to keep pace with the times, and that none may have cause to send work in his line beyond Raleigh to get it better executed, or on better terms

Particular attention given to the making of Children's Likenesses.

Citizens and strangers are invited to call and examine specimens of the art, whether they desire a likeness or not; over the store of M. Grausman, Main Street Cloudy weather makes no difference.

The trade can be furnished with instruments, stock and materials. J. W WATSON.

NORTH-CAROLINA MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.

AT A MEETING OF THE DIRECTORS OF THE Company on the 27th of September, an assessment of 15 per cent was levied on all premium Notes in the office of the Company at the time the losses occurred, to be paid in three instalments, viz: six, nine and twelve months from 1st October 1865.

The amount of premium Notes on hand,	220,000
" " " Allowed Losses,	$10,000
" " " Unsettled do.	7,500

(There are some losses not yet reported, the amount of which, of course, cannot now be stated.)

The assessment may appear to be disproportionate to the amount of the losses; but the Directors, taking into consideration the changes in property by sale, without transfer of policies, by destruction during the war, &c, &c., do not think that more will be raised by it than will be needed to meet the actual wants of the Company.

There will be, necessarily, some delay in the payment of losses. It is hoped, however, that there will be no complaint on this account; especially, when it is recollected that payment in some cases, was tendered in Confederate currency and refused

The Company is prepared to take risks as in former times, and on as favorable terms Address all letters to the Secretary. T. H. SELBY, President.

HAMDEN S. SMITH, Secretary.
