Charlotte Chapter BBW

The chapter, trained and overseen by Helen Jackson of the Services for the Blind, screened 3rd and 4th graders for amblyopia at Temple Israel on March 29 and 30.

On April 12, Meryl Elko, Jean Rosner, Beth Linderman, Susan Coen, Linda Binnick and Steve Taylor worked with the 16-year olds and up at the Special Olympics outdoor events. The gorgeous weather and inspiring work made for a special day.

On May 2, 30 members came to a kitchen shower for the North Carolina Hillel House in Chapel Hill. The gifts came from the proceeds of March's "Color Me Beautiful" luncheon and are to furnish Hillel's kosher kitchen. After brunch was served, Rabbi Fisher, director of N.C. Hillel, and Rishi Baroff, Hillel chairperson, spoke to us on Hillel's function and services, giving us enlightening information. They glowed when they saw the gifts. It was a wonderful event of mutual exchange.

Conference

The Charlotte Council, host of the Mid-Atlantic Regional Conference on May 19-21 at the Marriott/Tyvola, took care of registration, the hospitality room and gave minibus tours of the city for the women who attended from five states.

An honor presentation opened the conference and set the pace for a high caliber two days. Susan Bruck, Charlotte chapter Past President and immediate Past Chairperson of the region, presented the "Life Enrichment Award" to Jeanne Bohn of WSOC. This followed a program on the theme of "Dolls for Democracy," which profiled Mrs. Bohn's achievements and contributions in media, women's issues and volunteer work.

The following two days were filled with stimulating and informative workshops and panel discussions on latchkey children and adolescent sexuality.

Sunday's luncheon featured the Hon. Ida Ruben, a member of the Maryland House of Delegates and Past International Vice President BBW, who spoke on the role of women in politics. Sunday night's award banquet gave special recognition to those who have made outstanding strides in the areas of community volunteer services, fundraising, membership, programming, projects and communication. A ceremony to honor Life Members, held on Monday, concluded the conference.

Osmond Family Telethon

Our chapter was one of many organizations answering phones for the June 3 Osmond Family Telethon cohosted by Laura Quinn and Mike McKay at WBTV and benefitting Memorial Hospital pediatric services and rehabilitation in Charlotte. The Osmonds selected our city and are working 40 minutes to WBTV's 20 minutes in the quest of contributions.

ORT

The final social fundraiser for this year was a Bowl-A-Thon on June 9 held at Park Lanes.

All members are cordially invited to attend the annual Installation Banquet for our new officers on June 20 at the Barley & Rye Restaurant. The 1984-85 officers will be: President, Marci Mehlman; VP Programming, Lydia Kohn; VP Special Projects, Sue Ett; VP Education, Madelyn Moore; VP Membership, Dorothy Shapiro; Treasurer, Kathy Katz. Also at the banquet we will honor other officers, chairmen and members who have contributed their time and support to ORT this year. Please make plans now to attend to make this a truly meaningful evening. Watch for more details in the Bulletin or call Marci Mehlman at 542-2096 if you would like to attend.

Even though we won't have any scheduled meetings during July or August, we will be sponsoring two bake sales at the JCC and a membership tea for new members. More details about these will be printed in future Bulletins. Many thanks go to everyone for all of their help in all of our activities this past year. There were many interesting and exciting programs and activities this year and we owe their success to you!

Young Couples Club

Temple Israel Young Couples Club has had a super few months! We grew to over thirty couples following our membership event, a cocktail party at Kathy and Mark Katz's home on March 17.

March 23 we participated in the service at Temple Israel with members hosting the Oneg Shabbat.

A group Seder was held on April 22 at David and Judy Miller's. Led by Paul Putterman, we all participated and enjoyed it so much that this will become an annual event.

May 19 the club held the first pay-as-you-go-event of the year. It began at 2001/VIP disco and ended at Valentino's for dessert and coffee. In June our second open event will be a family picnic. This party is free and open to all interested couples and their children. Our calendar also includes a theater evening and Break-the-Fast. The club is open for all Jewish couples in the Charlotte area to meet and socialize with one another. Dues are now pro-rated at $15 a couple. Presidents are Ken and Marsha Stern, 563-2696. For further information contact us at 374-5024.
