Splendid Work Done By State's HD Clubs

By H. B. JAMES
Dean of Agriculture
N. C. State College

We have reason to be proud of the work being done by the Home Demonstration Organization. The clubs have increased in stature and in the contribution they are making to the rural women of America. I would personally like to commend the leaders and the club women of our nation, and of our state, as they celebrate National Home Demonstration Week.

Realizing that the home is the center of life it is important indeed that our homemakers be well informed so that their influence will be felt not only in the home itself but throughout the nation and the world. The influenec of home demonstration women is far-reaching and is felt in all civic, social, religious and educational groups.

I am confident that the cooperation and progress of the women of our state, and of our nation, will continue. They are to be congratulated upon their past record and encouraged to go on to even greater achievements in the future.

HD Club Members Plan Visit To Tryon

Chowan County Home Demonstration Club members will leave by chartered bus from the Post Office in Edenton, Wednesday morning, May 3, at 7:30 o'clock for New Bern and will return home between 4:30 and 5 o'clock that afternoon.

This will be an educational tour of Tryon Palace, the first fixed capital and first state capital of North Carolina.

This tour will be a part of Chowan County's observance of National Home Demonstration Club Week. Anyone wishing to make the educational tour may contact the Home Agent's office in Edenton on or before Friday, April 28.

College Day Monday At Negro High School

Plans for College Day at the Edenton Colored High School have been completed for Monday, May 1. The program will begin at 10:30 A. M., with a major address given by a representative from one of the colleges. After lunch, representatives from all the colleges in the state and neighboring states will discuss their various institutions.

The theme of this year's College Day will be in keeping with the school theme "Planning Your Future".

Institutions that will be represented are as follows:

A. & T. College, Greensboro; Durham Business College, Durham; Hampton Institute, Hampton, Va.; N. C. College at Durham; Shaw University, Raleigh; Barnes Business College, Goldsboro; State Teachers College, Elizabeth City; Virginia State College, Norfolk, Va.; St. Augustine College, Raleigh.

IN MEMORIAM TO DELORES LONG

April 28, 1957

We do not like to dwell
For God called our loved one to Heaven
Where He lives and all is well.
We know she is happy in Heaven,
Sharing His joys and love;
We never think of her as gone,
But living with God alone.

—Mr. and Mrs. Stephen
p and Family.
