Recruiting Quotas For Marine Corps Up 50% To 100%

Change Is Brought About By President's Plan to Increase Marine Corps Strength

Gunnery Sergeant Robert D. Van Wart, local Marine Corps recruiter for the Edenton area, announces that as of the first of July, local recruiting quotas will be increased by 50% to 100% over those previously scheduled. The change was brought about by President Kennedy's plan to raise the Marine Corps strength to 190,000 by the end of the fiscal year 1962.

Sergeant Van Wart stated the immediate effect on the local situation will be that the ceiling on the number of men who can be enlisted into the Marine's 120 day delay enlistment program will go up by 50% for the months of July, August, September and October. This is the program whereby a man enlists and leaves for recruit training (boot camp) on a date of his choice within a four month period from date of enlistment.

An additional Marine Recruiter has been assigned to the general area to assist in the increased procurement requirement.

plan prepared for the club by the noted landscape architect Morley Williams. The plan calls for erecting a plaza around the monument and landscaping. The green will also be landscaped with trees on each side. A brick seating wall will be erected around the Joseph Hewes monument. Proceeds from the pilgrimage will be used for the work.

With the needs of the present in mind the club sponsored the first adult education classes at the Holmes High School. A $100 scholarship was given to a student entering science or medicine. It was awarded to Bobby Stokely. Teachers were recognized on Teachers' Day.

The play, "Rumpelstilskin," was presented by the Barter Players under the sponsorship of the club as well as an art exhibit and a Christmas decorating contest.

The club sponsored the Girl Scouts, supported the Teenage Club and held the annual Halloween Party for 1500 children. A help-a-home project was conducted, members participated in the Mother's March, Heart Fund and sponsored the Cancer Crusade for the 14th year, the longest of any club in the state.

At the fall district meeting the club came home with most of the honors, including the mileage and attendance awards. The club received the Corbell Cup as the club doing the most outstanding work during the year and Mrs. Wesley Chesson, Jr., was awarded the Carrie Earnhardt Cup as the outstanding club woman of the district. The Year Book won first place and the Scrap Book second.

Edenton members were active in the district with Mrs. J. M. Thorud, district 16 vice president and Mrs. R. J. Boyce as education chairman. Mrs. J. D. Elliott, president, and other members prepared for the State Convention in May for which District 16 was host. At the convention club representatives were hostesses for two receptions.

lor, Richard D. Dixon, J. Edwin Bufflap and George I. Dail as an advisory committee in Chowan County for the conservation of human resources throughout North Carolina.

Edenton's Lions Club sponsored a carnival at Hicks Field to help bolster funds for blind relief work.

G. H. Harding, through Congressman Herbert Bonner, issued an invitation to Lord and Lady Halifax of Great Britain to visit Edenton while they were on a visit in the United States.

A very successful session of a daily vacation Bible school was completed at the Methodist Church.

W. J. Daniels, Thurlowe McCoy and Hector Lupton served as judges at the Columbia Theatre when Miss Virginia Brickhouse was named "Miss Tyrrell" for the Elizabeth City Potato Festival.

Bond Election Is Called For July 11

sunset for voters to register to be qualified to cast a ballot in the election. On each Saturday during this period each registrar will be stationed at their respective polling place from 9 A. M., to sunset for the registration of voters.

It is again pointed out that in order to cast a ballot a voter must be registered on the county registration book in which he resides. To be registered in the Town of Edenton's registration book does not make a voter eligible to cast a ballot in this, a county-wide election.

The polling places, registrars and judges of the election will be as follows:

East Edenton Precinct

Mrs. William Stokely, Registrar; judges of election, Mrs. Emma Bunch and Mrs. J. M. Thorud. Polling place, Court House.

West Edenton Precinct

Mrs. George C. Hoskins, Registrar; judges of election, Mrs. J. A. Curran and Mrs. Francis Hicks. Polling place, Municipal Building.

Rocky Hock Precinct

Alphonso Spivey, Registrar; judges of election, Norman C. Hollowell and Louis Monds. Polling place, Ross Bunch's store.

Center Hill Precinct

Ralph Goodwin, registrar; judges of election, Ervin Bunch and W. H. Saunders. Polling place, Henry Bunch's store.

Wardville Precinct

T. A. Berryman, registrar; judges of election, H. R. Peele and Jennings Bunch. Polling place, Herbert Peele's store.

Yeopim Precinct

T. J. Hoskins, Sr., registrar; judges of election, J. A. Webb, Jr., and Harry Perry. Polling place, Harry Perry's store.

If the issuance of the $289,000 in school bonds is approved by the voters, $190,000 will be earmarked for additional classrooms and a vocational agricultural building at the Edenton colored high school; $89,000 at Chowan High School, and $10,000 at the John A. Holmes High School for addition of physical education dressing rooms for the gymnasium.

Corolla College Will Open Term June 25

Corolla Academy, a summer school for boys, located on North Carolina's famous Outer Banks opens for its third session on June 25. Director Hatcher C. Williams, an Oxford native, has again garnered an outstanding group of teachers from a number of well-known schools to comprise the faculty.

In its two previous summer sessions Corolla has drawn students from some 20 states. They come for seven weeks of intensive academic training and outdoor recreation.

Corolla offers all high school courses, foundation work in math and English at the junior high level, and special work in reading and writing. The school is controlled by the Corolla Academy Foundation, a non-profit organization.

POCAHONTAS MEETING

Chowanoke Council No. 54, Degree of Pocahontas, will meet tonight (Thursday) at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Beatrice Harrell will present a report of the Great Council meeting held in Asheville, so that Mrs. Myrtle Tynch, Pocahontas, especially urges every member to be present.

Jehovah Witnesses Call Off Meetings

Weekly meetings of the local Edenton Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses will be cancelled from June 18 to June 27, when they will resume on their regular schedule, according to Roy P. Long, presiding minister of the congregation.

The reason for the change, according to Mr. Long is that 14 members of the congregation will be attending the "United Worshipers Assembly" in New York City, from June 20 to 25.

"The convention sessions will actually be a continuation of our local meetings, only on a much larger scale," Mr. Long said. "The presence of delegates from the entire Western Hemisphere among the 70,000 expected to attend the assembly will underscore the convention theme of 'unity'."
