Reece Pictures Economic Status Town Of Andrews

ANDREWS—Wade Reece gave an economic review of the Town of Andrews and Valleytown township in a talk before the Andrews Rotary Club here Thursday, Oct. 6. Mr. Reece revealed that the town of Andrews collects annually approximately $20,000 in taxes, and otherwise receives about $10,000, supplying a budget for the town of $30,000.

Mr. Reece, a former mayor of the town, also stated that the town has a bonded indebtedness of $34,000. This was incurred for the most part for the town's water system.

The speaker sounded a note of optimism about the town's future and surrounding area. He praised particularly the area's newest venture—poultry and hatching eggs. Figures were offered to show that many people in the area have money in the bank or in bonds.

Elementary School Has 888 In Attendance

ANDREWS—Boyd B. Robinson, Principal of Andrews Elementary School, reports that the average daily attendance for the first month of the present school year was 888. This is 45 more in average daily attendance for the first month this year than in the same time last year.
