Revision of the English Scriptures.—The delegations from the American Bible Union and the American and Foreign Bible Society met on Saturday morning, in the First Baptist Church, New York, for the purpose of striking out a course of action in which conflicting opinions might harmonise and together unite respecting the proposed revision of the English Scriptures, a question which had caused much diversity of opinion in the Baptist churches. The following committee was appointed to consider the questions in dispute: Dr. Sharp, of Boston; Dr. Cone, of New York; J. O. Crozer, of Pennsylvania; A. Wheelock, of New York; Professor M. B Anderson, Rev. G. Kempler, and Rev. J. M. Peck. They are to report at a subsequent meeting. A spirit of harmony prevailed among the persons who composed the Convention, and it is quite probable that the existing causes of difficulty may be amicably and satisfactorily adjusted.

Legislative Wit.—The following is a report of a portion of the proceedings at the late Session of the Legislature of Wisconsin, as given in the Milwaukee Sentinel:

"The bill introduced by Senator Alban, on behalf of some of his constituents, exempting a rifle or a shot gun from execution, and which passed the Senate after being amended so as to include a powder flask and a shot pouch, was taken up in the committee of the whole the other day, and amended by including in the exemption a pocket pistol, (restricted to the capacity of a pint,) a brace of pointer dogs, a pair of high boots for wading, and various other things. In this form it was killed this morning, to the great disappointment of the sons of Nimrod, the mighty hunter."

Woman's Rights in California.—A letter from San Francisco says: "The reader may not be aware of the extent to which we have carried "woman's rights," and all that sort of thing, in California. Be it known to them, therefore, that we have a law which enables women to carry on business in their own names independently of their husbands, or of their husband's creditors. The enclosed advertisement, which I take from the San Francisco Herald, gives all the information necessary to an understanding on the subject:

"'NOTICE.—Whereas Mrs. Eunice Smith, wife of Jasper F. Smith, of the city of San Francisco, has this day made and recorded, according to statute, her declaration that she intends to carry on business in her own name, and on her own account, to wit, the Real Estate and Auction business; Now, therefore, she gives notice that from this date she shall be individually responsible in her own name for all debts contracted by her on account of her said business; and she intends to avail herself of all the provisions of an act entitled 'An act to authorize married women to transact business in their own name, as sole traders.

EUNICE SMITH.

"'San Francisco, Aug. 11, 1852.'"

"Dear mother," said a delicate little girl, "I have broken your china vase!"

"Well, you are a naughty, careless, troublesome little thing, always in mischief; go up stairs till I send for you."

And this was a Christian mother's answer to the tearful little culprit, who had struggled with and conquered temptation to tell a falsehood to screen her fault! With disappointed, disheartened look, the child obeyed; and at that moment was crushed in her little heart the sweet flower of truth, perhaps never again in after years to be revived to life. Oh, what were a thousand vases in comparison!

INSTINCTS OF THE TIGER.

In a work entitled "Brown's Anecdotes," we see it stated that on a certain occasion, a party of gentlemen from Bombay, while visiting the stupendous cavern temple of Elephanta, discovered a tiger's whelp in one of the obscure recesses of the edifice. Desirous of kidnapping the cub, without encountering the fury of its dame, they took it up hastily and cautiously, and retreated. Being left entirely at liberty, and extremely well fed, the tiger grew rapidly, appeared tame and fondling as a dog, and in every respect entirely domesticated. At length, having attained a vast size, notwithstanding its apparent gentleness, it began to inspire terror by its tremendous powers of doing mischief to a piece of raw meat, dripping with blood, which fell in its way. It is to be observed that, up to that moment, it had been studiously kept from raw animal food. The instant, however, it dipped its tongue in blood, something like madness seemed to have seized the animal—a destructive principle, hitherto dormant was awakened——it darted fiercely, and with glaring eyes upon its prey, tore it with fury to pieces, and growling and roaring in the most fearful manner, rushed off towards the jungles.

P. S. Whereas an advertisement appeared in the last Watchman, a part of which was as follows: "And to supply those who have hitherto traded with a large House here which has temporarily curtailed its business." We suppose that our Firm is the "large House" alluded to, if so, we hereby notify our customers, as well as those who are so willing to supply them during our temporary curtailment, that we intend no curtailment, either temporary or permanent, and that we can supply all our wholesale customers (not already supplied) with their usual assortment of Goods at greatly reduced prices. Whenever we intend to curtail our business, we will give due notice to the public and to our wholesale customers at our cost and not at the cost of any Braggadocia. And as to the supposed curtailment alluded to, it has no existence, save in the imagination of those to whom the hope was father to the thought.—In conclusion, we say, we are not in the habit of transfering our customers, but should it ever become necessary for us to do so, we will try to send them to some House, where, we think, they will be satisfied to go.

Jew David's Hebrew Plaster.

THE great remedy for Rheumatism, Gout, Pain in the Side, Hip, Back, Limbs and Joints; Scrofula, King's Evil, White Swelling, Hard Tumors, Stiff Joints, and all fixed pains whatever.

Where this Plaster is applied, Pain cannot exist. It has been beneficial in cases of weakness, such as Pain and Weakness in the Stomach, Weak Limbs, Lameness, Affection of the Spine, Female Weakness, &c. No female, subject to pain or weakness in the back or sides, should be without it. Married ladies, in delicate situations, find great relief from constantly wearing this Plaster.

The application of the Plaster between the shoulders has been found a certain remedy for Colds, Coughs, Phthisic, and Affections of the Lungs in their primary stages. It destroys inflamation by prescriptions.

The following commendation is from an agent residing at Trenton, Tennessee:

TRENTON, Gibson Co. Tenn., Nov. 7, '49.

Messrs. SCOVIL & MEAD—Gentlemen: The Hebrew Plaster is becoming popular in this section There is a lady in this county who says she would not be without this Plaster for five hundred dollars a year. She was afflicted for some time with an enlargement of the spleen, which gave her a great deal of pain. The swelling and pain had extended up nearly to the armpit, and occasionally she could scarcely breathe. She was confined for a considerable time, during which she was attended by some of our best physicians, but they gave her no relief. She procured a box of the Hebrew Plaster, and it relieved her almost immediately, and now she keeps a supply of it on hand constantly. These facts you are at liberty to use as you think proper—they are substantially true.

Respectfully yours, &c.,
JESSE J. WELLS.

☞ Beware of Counterfeits and Base Imitations!

CAUTION.—The subscribers are the only general agents in the Southern States for the sale of this truly valuable Plaster; and, in order to prevent purchasers being imposed on by a counterfeit article, sold in this city and elsewhere, for the genuine, they invite particular attention to the following marks of the genuine:

1. The genuine is put up in smooth, engine-turned bottom boxes, soldered in.

2. The genuine has the engraved head of Jew David on the direction around the box, with accompanying record of court to E. Taylor, Rochester.

ALSO TAKE NOTICE.

That the genuine has the signature of E. TAYLOR on the steel plate engraved label, on the top of each box—to imitate which, will be prosecuted as forgery.

The Counterfeit is coarsely put up in imitation of the old labels, and is sold by several dealers in medicine in this city for the genuine article.

BEWARE OF IT—IT IS WORTHLESS.

BARGAINS!
BARGAINS!! BARGAINS!!!

THE subscriber offers for sale his BRICK HOUSE and LOT in the town of Salisbury, on Main street, one door above the Watchman Office. The house is large and convenient for a Boarding House: it contains seven rooms and a pass-way above and below, with a fire place in each room, and two large cellars with a fire place in one of them. The lot is large and runs back the whole depth of the square, which makes it convenient for building purposes.

The subscriber also offers for for sale two valuable small Plantations, one of them contains 100 Acres, lying on the road leading from Salisbury to Hix's Ferry, (formerly Chamber's Ferry,) four miles from Salisbury, on which there is a first rate orchard, very large and of choice fruit, and a beautiful situation, and one of the healthiest places in the country; the land is well timbered, and is well adapted to Cotton and all the grains, and is within a quarter of a mile of the Rail Road; there is about forty acres cleared land on this place. The other plantation, 140 Acres, lies within 3½ miles of the town of Salisbury, and is one of the most convenient places in the county—the land is very free and productive, and is well watered; the land is all fresh, and so arranged that every field can be pastured, and it can't be beat for that purpose: it has a most excellent Meadow on it, well set with herd grass, and is well adapted for tobacco and cotton, and can't be beat for all the various grains, &c. Both of these places can be had with the crops on them, together with a handsome stock of young Cattle, Hogs, and Farming Tools. Those wishing to buy will please to call on the subscriber at his residence four miles from Salisbury, on the road leading to Hix's Ferry.—Persons wishing to buy would do well to call soon, as the only object he has in offering his property for sale is to go to the South on account of his health. Both of these places are in one mile of each other, and the Central Rail Road runs near midway between them. Good Millss and Market for timber handy.

P. S. In the last mentioned tract, there is about orty-five acres cleared.

Grand Master's Office of the Grand Lodge of the State of N. Carolina.

NEWBERN, April 19, 1852.

TO the MASONIC FRATERNITY in North Carolina:—At the last communication of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge it was Resolved, That each Mason in the State, both resident and active, be, and he is hereby most earnestly requested by the Grand Lodge of North Carolina to transmit, as soon as possible, to Brother A. T. Jerkins of Newbern, C. W. D. Hutchins, of Raleigh, William Swaim, of Greensborough, or E. Myers, of Salisbury, as may be most convenient, the sum of $5, more or less, for the speedy erection of St. John's College, the receipt whereof will be weekly announced in the papers published in the aforementioned places.

Brethren, with confidence of success, I appeal to your liberality in behalf of this enterprise, the importance of which has been fully established by the Grand Lodge, and the general concurrence of the Brethren throughout the State. While enough has already been done to encourage the hope of success, and evince its entire practicability, much yet remains to be done to render this success certain, and even to prosecute unremittingly the measures already commenced. And yet it is confidently believed, that the aid which you are able to render will be amply sufficient to accomplish all this, and that speedily. Upon your action then as Masons, depends the success of an enterprise which promises the richest benefits to the cause of Masonry and of humanity in general. Some of our Lodges have contributed promptly and nobly to this work, and we only ask your careful consideration of the subject, convinced as we are that nothing more is needed to secure your cordial co-operation in a favorable and early response to this appeal. Remember that in this as in every other social movement, harmony is its strength and support. I am Respectfully and Fraternally yours,
