Summer Pops

The JCC is excited to be hosting another performance of the Charlotte Summer Pops Orchestra. You may remember the fine program the "J" sponsored last year or perhaps you heard about it from your friends. This is another chance for you and your family to come out to listen to the Pops and, like last year, "make your own ice cream sundaes."

The free program for JCC members is Thursday, July 19, 7:30 p.m. at Providence Baptist Church, 4921 Randolph Road. Call the JCC at 366-0357 to make reservations. This performance is made possible in part by support from the City of Charlotte, Mecklenburg County, the Arts and Science Council and the National Endowment for the Arts.

May Symphony

Flanked with tubas, violins, flutes and the like, the Charlotte Symphony Orchestra joined the JCC for an evening of great musical selections. Myers Park Auditorium was the arena for the brilliant spring performance which coupled new and old music in a lively concert.

Featured was Copland's "Variation on Simple Gifts," Mozart's "Symphony No. 35 in D Major," Marvin Hamlisch in Concert and the Overture to "West Side Story." Following thunderous applause, conductor Jordan Tang led the musicians in "Sunrise, Sunset," the familiar "Fiddler on the Roof" piece and asked the audience to enjoy the rest of the evening.

JCC Hosts Beautiful Older Adult Luncheon

April 30, the JCC hosted a lovely finale to the season of community older adult luncheons. The delectable fare was barbequed chicken, rice, vegetables and cake served up by Susan Ett, Shirley Levine, JCC President Harold Josephson, Hal Levinson, Stephanie Seitlin and Thelma Levy.

Older Adult Chair Lynne Sheffer organized the gorgeous affair which included piano playing during lunch by Vice President Miles Levine.

After lunch, art historian Betsy Bilger gave a dynamic presentation on the life, works and legacy of Marc Chagall.

Her presentation revealed the Jewish and Eastern European aspects of Chagall's work as well as his use of dream imagery.

Other special people contributed to the day: Nicki Levine and Lynne Sheffer iced the 3 layer cake; board members Louise Bernstein and Herman Blumenthal lunched with the group; drivers were Micky Waldman, Thelma Levy, Lillian Sutta, Estelle Hirsh and board member Florence Jaffa. Each participant in the luncheon received a begonia as a special gift.

Special Activities

Joint Adult Institute of Jewish Studies Lecture Series: "Jews in the Greek World"

Sunday, June 10 10:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.
Brunch program held at Temple Beth El.

Sponsored by the JCC in cooperation with each of the Temples, this lecture and slide presentation depicts the history, homes and synagogues, artifacts and the Holocaust of the Jewish Community of Greece.

Dr. Alan Klein, Director of the American Friends of the Jewish Museum of Greece, will come from Winston-Salem to present this impressive lecture.

Reservations must be made for the brunch and lecture program by Friday, June 8. Call the JCC at 366-0357 for more details.

Color Slide Photography

Wed. 5 weeks begins June 13
(No class July 4)

7:30 - 9:30 p.m.

Perhaps you've just acquired a camera and would like to know how to make it click. Or, you have a camera and want to learn what makes a good photograph. This course will provide students with backbone knowledge about photography. With the use of color slides students will critique and accelerate their picture-taking capabilities.
