Punctuality.

A Shoemaker, of the city of Dublin, had a longing desire to work for Dean Swift. He was recommended by James Swing, the banker, and Mr. Sican, a merchant. The Dean gave him an order for a pair of boots, adding:

"When shall I have them?"

"On Saturday next," said the shoemaker.

"I have no appointments," said the Dean, "nor would I have you disappoint others; set your own time and keep to it."

"I thank your reverence," replied Bamerick, "I desire no longer than Saturday e'en, when you will be sure to have them without fail."

They parted. The boots were finished at the time; but, through the hurry of business, Mr. Bamerick forgot to carry them home until Monday evening. When the Dean drew the boots on, and found them to his mind, he said—

"Mr. Bamerick, you have answered to the commands of your master; and you have disappointed me, for I was to have been at Sir Arthur Axleson's, in the county of Armagh on Tuesday."

Indeed I am in need, sir," said Bamerick, "the boots were finished at the time, but I forgot to bring them home."

The Dean gave him one of his stern looks, and, taking a guinea, asked him whether he understood gardening as well as boot making. Bamerick answered—

"No sir; but I have seen some very fine gardens in England."

"Come," said the Dean, in a good humored tone. "I will show you some improvements I have made in the Deanery garden."

They walked through the garden to the further end, when the Dean started, as if recollecting something.

"I must step in" said he, "stay here till I come back."

Then he ran out of the garden, locked the door, and put the key in his pocket.

Bamerick waited until it grew dark, and, not seeing the Dean, he at last ventured to leave him, but found the door locked. He knocked and called several times to no purpose; he perceived himself confined between high walls the night dark and cold, in the month of March. However, he had not the least suspicion of his being intentionally confined. The Deanery servants went to bed at their usual hour, and the Dean remained in his study until two o'clock in the morning. He then went into the yard and drew the charges out of a blunderbuss and other fire arms, then lighted and rang his bell. He was immediately attended by one of his servants.

"Robert" said he, "I have been much disturbed with a noise in the garden; I fear some robbers have entered; get me a lantern, and call up Saunders.

Then the Dean took the lantern, and stayed by the arms until the men came.

"Arm yourself," said he, "and follow me."

He led them into the garden, where the light soon attracted poor Bamerick, who came to nothing up to them. Upon his approach, the Dean roared out:

"There is the robber! Shoot him!"

Saunders presented, and Bamerick, terrified to death, fell on his knees and begged his life. The Dean held the lantern up to the man's face, and gravely said:

"Mercy on us! Mr. Bamerick, how came you here?"

"Lord, sir," said Bamerick, "don't you remember you left me here last evening?"

"Ah, friend!" said the Dean, "I forgot it, as you did the boots."

Then turning round to Robert, who was the butler, he said, "Give the man some warm wine, and see him safe home."

THE GREATEST

Medical Discovery of the Age.

DR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures

EVERY KIND OF HUMOR,

From the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple.

He has tried it in over 1100 cases, and never failed except in two cases, both thunder humor. He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its virtue, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of Pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of Biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Ringworm.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears or blanches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of itch.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of tetter.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst cases of scrofula.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

Reader, I published over a thousand bottles of this in the county of Boston. I know the effect of it in every case. Scrofula or water was distinguished five, scrofula every time. I never sold a bottle of it but that it did my character good. I never sold a bottle of it but that it did my character good. I never sold a bottle of it but that it did my character good. I never sold a bottle of it but that it did my character good. I never sold a bottle of it but that it did my character good. There are two things since that work that are in my mind unpleasant; first, that it did so well, and yet no one has ever been known since; second, that it should have all sold off so soon.

In order to give some idea of the sudden rise and great popularity of this medicine, I will state that in April, 1856, I bought it, and sold about six bottles per day; in April, 1857, I sold over one thousand bottles per day.

MARRIAGE LICENSE FOR SALE AT THIS OFFICE

ONE DOLLAR WILL BUY

ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND Liver Medicines now before the public, namely, DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR, or LIVER REMEDY, that acts as a Cathartic, easier, milder and more effectual than any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver remedy, acting first on the Liver to eject its morbid matter, then on the stomach and bowels to carry off that matter, thus accomplishing two purposes effectually, without any of the painful feelings experienced in the operations of most Cathartics. It strengthens the system at the same time. It strengthens the system at the same time that it purges it, and when taken daily in moderate doses will strengthen and build it up with unusual rapidity.

Dr. Sanford's Invigorator is compounded entirely from new articles of medicine, namely, Gums.

Some idea of the strength of these gums may be formed when it is known that one bottle of the Invigorator contains as much strength as one hundred doses of Calomel, without any of its deleterious effects.

Though possessing rare medicinal powers, these Gums have been but little known to physicians, and never used in their prescriptions until used in the form of the Invigorator, which met with such unprecedented success as to induce the proprietor to offer it as a family medicine tried and known to be effectual. It has rarely ever failed to cure Liver Complaints in their worst forms.

Indigestion being caused by a deranged Liver is cured when the Liver is set in healthy action.

Jaundice is caused by an improper action of the Liver, and as a proof that the Invigorator removes this disease, let any one troubled with Jaundice take the Invigorator regularly one week, and their skin will begin to assume its original color.

Costiveness can be permanently cured by the Invigorator. Take it in small doses on retiring, and it assists nature in her operations. By gradually disordering the doses, the bowels are left in a healthy and active state, and work easily and without pain.

Sick Headache is very soon removed by taking a double dose of the Invigorator, which corrects acidity and sourness of the stomach.

For an overloaded stomach it has no equal, as it relieves all oppressive or uneasy feeling after eating heartily. For a family medicine generally, all who use it speak in the highest terms.

Prepared and sold by Sandford & Co., 188 Front Str., New York. Price $1.00 per bottle, containing 30 doses. Also sold by C. A. Henderson, Druggist, Salisbury, N. C.
