An Appeal for Mount Vernon.

The following admirable appeal of the Ladies' Mt. Vernon Association of the Union, should go to the heart of every patriot of the land, and arouse new interest and zeal in a glorious cause. It is proper to state that the "Southern Matron," in signing her baptismal name to this document, yielded to the solicitations of Mr. Everett and other friends:

MOUNT VERNON, THE PROPERTY OF THE NATION.

It is with feelings of the highest gratification, we announce to the public, that the persevering efforts of the Ladies' Mount Vernon Association of the Union, have been crowned with success, commensurate with their sacred aims and lofty patriotism, and that they have at last secured to the American people the privilege of making the Home and Grave of Washington the property of the Nation!

On the failure of the Mount Vernon bill in the General Assembly of Virginia, we renewed our overtures to Mr. Washington to sell the property to the Association. These overtures met with a favorable response, and, on the 6th of April, a contract was signed by Mr. Washington, which obliged him to transfer Mount Vernon to the Association, on its compliance with the following terms, viz:

The payment of two hundred thousand dollars, for two hundred acres of land, including the mansion, gardens, landing place, and, above all, the tomb.

Eighteen thousand dollars to be paid on closing of contract, and the remainder of the sum, in four bonds, payable in yearly instalments, with the permission, after payment of the first bond, to pay to Mr. Washington any amount of the balance due, in sums of not less than five thousand dollars, which sums will be credited to the Association; in this manner lessing the interest.

The title to the estate and possession to be given on payment of the principal and interest; and the privilege also granted of obtaining possession, on thirty days' notice, at any time the Association may be ready to furnish the entire purchase money.

The price asked for Mount Vernon by its proprietor, and which has never varied, has long been known to the public; and the Ladies of the Mount Vernon Association, in offering to become its purchasers, could not expect to acquire it upon other terms than those given as the ultimatum, to Congress and to Virginia.

Yet there is a concession made to the Association by Mr. Washington, as to the extension of time; and a very important proviso, to save interest, which can best be explained by the following letter addressed to the legal gentleman who negotiated the purchase on behalf of the Association:

RICHMOND, April 7, 1858.

To Wm. H. Macfarland, Esq., and Gen. A. A. Chapman:

Gentlemen—In the negotiations you have recently concluded with me, on behalf of the Ladies' Association for the purchase of Mount Vernon, the payment of interest on the deferred instalments from the date of contract, while I retained possession of the property, was the only serious difficulty between us.

Having satisfied you that I could not yield this point, you finally conceded it.

As the contract is now closed, and I believe in a satisfactory way to both parties, it affords me pleasure to say to you, that if the Association meets its engagements with me on the first of January, 1859, and thinks proper to pay, and does pay the other deferred instalments on or before the 22d day of February, 1859, as you inform me they will probably be both willing and able to do, it is my intention, in that case, to remit to the Association all the interest on all the deferred payments.

This I shall be willing to do partly as an inducement to the Association to obtain possession of Mount Vernon at an early day, but more particularly, as an evidence of my appreciation of the motives that have actuated the Ladies' Association in the cause it has undertaken.

I have the honor to be, gentlemen,
With the highest respect,
Your obedient servant,
JOHN A. WASHINGTON.

More than half a century has now elapsed since Washington walked among us—a half century of neglect and ingratitude to his memory. Between the broken pledges of Congress, and the apathy of his mother State, the remains of the father of his country have lain unhonored by the mausoleum voted in the hour of a Nation's grief, and his Home and Grave, left to the fate of private property, and accessible to the public, only through the forbearance or courtesy of its various private owners!

Ever and anon, a voice was heard to protest against republican ingratitude, for ever and anon, the heart of this great nation seemed to throb with a remembrance of his virtues and of his services, and the priceless legacy he bequeathed. But, during the stern struggles of a young Republic, this voice was unheeded, and since America became a power on earth, it was either silenced by the din of party, and sectional strife, or stifled by the murmurs of Mammon, until the generations, which knew him not, were in danger of forgetting and wholly departing from those principles, which are the bulwark of our greatness, and those warning counsels which can alone maintain our Union in safety. But that Providence which has so often interposed for our rescue in the darkest days of the Republic, when the ship of State, with no master hand at the helm, rocked to and fro on the angry waves of sectional strife and bitterness, which threatened to engulf it, has stirred the heart of woman to revive, through the rescue of the sacred ashes of the Father of his Country, that love for his memory, slumbering, but not dead, which could be made all powerful, in regenerating and healing influence!

A call was made to women of the South, to gather around his grave and become the Vestals to keep alive the fires of patriotism. The motives were pure—the intentions generous—but they failed!—Ye, who watch the signs of the times, know ye not wherefore? Washington belonged not alone to the South!

Again the call was made, and this time to the women of the Nation—Again it failed!—and wherefore?

The title, and all the power were to be given to a State; and Washington belonged not to one State alone!

Devoted woman would be neither baffled nor conquered! but she only triumphs when the common homestead can be procured as a common heritage, for the estranged children of a common father, the spell of whose memory will yet have the power to re-unite them around his hallowed sepulchre.

Unexpected success has crowned her efforts. Our country can be saved, one and indissoluble forever—for woman has become her guardian spirit. In the sacred groves of Mount Vernon, she will never leave us without a Mary, to train a Washington for her Country's hour of need.

Orators—Statesmen—the noble brotherhood of Masons—Odd Fellows—patriots, one and all, have come promptly to the aid of woman! And ye women of the North and of the South, and of the East and of the West, will ye not rally to the work! Will ye not vie, one with another, which will give most and do most, that we may, on the 22nd of February, 1859, claim and take possession of the Home and Grave of him who loved us all, and thus make his birth day, the birth day also of Republican gratitude, justice and fraternal love!

ANNA PAMELA CUNNINGHAM,
Regent Mt. Vernon Ladies' Association.

The Christians in Turkey.—Accounts from Bosnia give frightful accounts of the atrocities perpetrated there upon the Christian rayahs by the Turkish landholders. Forty tenants at a place called Maomos were, for non-payment of rent or taxes, stripped stark naked and bound to trees two and two together—the weather was bitterly cold—and water was then poured over them, until (adds the Gazette des postes) a coat of ice is formed upon their limbs. They were left in that condition for one whole night. Next morning three were dead, and remaining 27 were in a deplorable condition.

DIED:

On the 22d inst., at the residence of her son-in-law, John R. Davidson, Esq., Mrs. MARY LUCK McCANNAUGHEY, in the 80th year of her age.

The deceased was for thirty years a consistent member of the Presbyterian Church. She exhibited many prominent traits of character, among which were true modesty and the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit. In the midst of a natural tenderness and devotion at once vigorous and creditable to herself, she did not forget the claims of God and the important interests of personal piety. At an early period she made a profession of religion at Sugar Creek Church. Her children were baptized in infancy. From the date of her connection with the visible church until her last illness, her life, though one of peculiar and eventful scenes, was exemplary and eminently worthy of the Christian name. In her various positions and relations she adorned the doctrines of Christ and illustrated the practical principles of the gospel. As she was revered and believed by her children, so was she most highly esteemed and respected by neighbors, acquaintances and friends. To know her was to love her.

During a protracted and painful sickness which terminated in death, the writer of this brief notice frequently and freely conversed with her, and at each interview, was fully satisfied with her Christian experience. Her faith seemed to increase in strength and she appeared to enjoy and delight in the exercises of religious meditation and prayer.—She earnestly invoked the blessing of God and requested the prayers of his people, and, it is confidently believed, was received to the divine will and has entered the celestial Paradise. As her piety had ever been silent and unobtrusive so her hope, in the vale of the tomb, was calm and serene rather than rapturous or ecstatic.

Let not the bereaved family mourn and sorrow as those who have no hope, but prepare for a happy reunion with their sainted mother in the holy and unclouded climes of blessedness and joy where the circle of purified friendship can never be broken, and separations shall never be permitted.

"That't gone to the grave but 'twere wrong to deplore thee,
When God was thy ransom, thy guardian and guide;
He gave thee and took thee, and soon will restore thee,
Where death has no sting, since the Savior has died."

Cure of Diseased Liver.

HOUNSDALE Co., PENN., June 10, 1857

MR. SETH W. FOWLE,—SIR: You are at liberty to use the following statement for the benefit of the afflicted:—

I was attacked with the Liver Complaint, which apparently brought me to the brink of the grave. During my sickness I was attended by three physicians in our place, but received no help. I also tried the various remedies recommended for such complaints but they afforded me no relief. As a last resort, I was persuaded to try Wister's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and by using four bottles I was restored to better health than I have enjoyed before for ten years. This statement may be relied upon as strictly true.

OXYGENATED BITTERS,

The history of this remarkable medicine, and its astonishing success in obstinate cases of Dyspepsia, Asthma, and General Debility of the system, places it on the most wonderful discoveries in medical science, and has given it a reputation far beyond any remedy known for these complaints, in all their various forms.

The Oxygenated Bitters contain nothing which can intoxicate; and the medicine has no similarity whatever to the various alcoholic mixtures disguised as "Bitters," being purely a medicinal compound, in which are combined the most valuable vegetable agents and peculiar oxygenated property, hitherto unknown, but the highly efficacious in all complaints arising from weakness and derangement, or prostration of the stomach and system generally. It is a mild and agreeable tonic, removing all disagreeable symptoms, and assisting nature in her efforts to restore the impaired powers of the system.

5,425 Prizes amounting to $220,000

WHOLE TICKETS $10; HALVES $5; QUARTERS $2.50.

PLAN OF THE LOTTERY.

The Numbers from 1 to 80,000, corresponding with these Numbers on the Tickets printed on separate slips of paper, are enclosed with small tin tubes and placed in one Wheel.

The first 657 Prizes, similarly printed and enclosed, are placed in another wheel.

The wheels are then revolved, and a number is drawn from the wheel of Numbers, and at the same time a Prize is drawn from the other wheel. The Number and Prize drawn out are opened and exhibited to the audience, and registered by the Commissioners; the Prize being placed against the Number drawn. This operation is repeated until all the Prizes are drawn out.

APPROXIMATION PRIZES.—The two preceding and the two succeeding Numbers to those drawing the first 7 Prizes will be entitled to the $5 Approximation Prizes. For example: If Ticket No. 11250 draws the $70,000 Prize, those Tickets numbered 11248, 11249, 11251, 11252, will each be entitled to $600. If Ticket No. 556 draws the $20,000 Prize, those Tickets numbered 548, 549, 551, 552, will each be entitled to $300, and so according to the above scheme.

The Prize of $600 will be determined by the last figure of the Number that draws the $70,000 Prize. For example: If the Number drawing the $70,000 Prize ends with No. 1, then all the Tickets, where the number ends in 1, will be entitled to $600. If the Number ends with No. 2, then all the Tickets where the Number ends in 2 will be entitled to $600, and so on to 0.

Certificates of Packages will be sold at the following rates, which is the rate:

Certificate of Package of 10 Whole Tickets, ..... $100
" " " 10 Half " ..... 50
" " " 10 Quarter " ..... 25
" " " 10 Eighth " ..... 10

HORSE POWERS & THRESHERS.

SUGAR MILLS,

WE are now receiving orders for Horse Powers and Threshers, with and without Separ tators. Our WESTERN NEW YORK, DOUBLE PINION AND DOUBLE GEARED, HORSE POWER, is equal to any in the world. It is so constructed that it can be operated by 4, 6 or 8 Horses at pleasure, and need only be seen to be appreciated. No Machine equal to this has ever been introduced into North Carolina. Thousands of them are annually made and sold in Western New York, the finest wheat growing region in the Union.

We are also making five different kinds of which must be seen to be appreciated. The first comprises 2 and 3 roller mills, arranged horizontally with double cranks for hand power, also 2 and 3 roller mills, arranged perpendicularly with sweeps for horse power, and one power mill arranged with 3 horizontal rollers. The latter can be 10 minutes be attached to any horse power, and has many advantages over the perpendicular mills. The above mills are all new style, with iron frames, rollers and screws.

Sugar Cane Mills,

The 3 roller mills are so arranged that the juice cannot fly off while being expressed, and having been gotten up with a full knowledge of the latest improvements and the purposes for which they are intended; we have no hesitation in saying that they are superior to any heretofore offered, and can be afforded at prices that will bring them within the reach of every Farmer and Planter, then let no one hesitate to produce this most valuable article upon his own farm.

We have lately gotten up an entire new series of our CELEBRATED REVERSIBLE

Steel Edge Plow,

with such improvements as have been suggested by the Farmers from time to time, thus making our assortment the most perfect that can be found in the United States.

We also manufacture and keep on hand the latest style and best kinds of

STRAW CUTTERS, CULTIVATORS, HORSE HOES, &c., &c.

☞ Persons wishing any of the above Machines, Sugar Mills or improvements, had better send in their orders early in order to secure the article desired.

☞ Information and prices given by letter or otherwise and articles forwarded to any part of the Union.
