Bad.—A gentleman from the South, who came up on the Express train last Friday morning, having under his charge several ladies, complained of a very uncomfortable reception at this place. On his arrival at the depot they were hooted in the crowd, and there being no Omnibus or lights, they had to pick their way through the mud and gloom to the Mansion House, as best they could. The gentleman assured us they had a shocking time of it, and we doubt not they had. Those who are not familiar with the plank in our crossings, are bound to flounder in the mud. By the-way, how did it happen our friends of the Express, Home and Mansion Hotel were not on hand that morning with their omnibuses? They are usually very prompt.

Another Big Turnip.—Deep Thou hast in the shade.—Mr. Thomas Hall, of Rowan, produced super Turnips, last season, ahead of any yet brought up in this section. He had one measuring 19 inches in diameter and weighing 9½ lbs. Another, weighing 9 lbs 6 ounces. Rowan is ahead yet.

APER FECT CURE BY WILD CHERRY.

From the Editor of the New York Mirror, August, 6.

About four weeks since, one of the compositors of this office was suffering so badly from a cough that he was unable to sleep of nights, and too weak to stand at his case. He became very pale and thin, and gave symptoms of falling a victim to quick consumption. We recommended to him various medicines, which had no effect. Finally, we gave him one bottle of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. It afforded him immediate relief, and he is now a well man, and further particulars may be learned at this office. We should add that the cough, in the above case was accompanied by profuse spitting of blood.

Valuable Gold, Silver and Copper

LANDS FOR SALE.

HAVING been appointed Executor of the last Will and Testament of David McMackin, dec'd, I will sell to the highest bidder at public sale, on a credit of six and twelve months on Saturday the 20th day of March next, on the premises, one mile southwest of Gold Hill, 425 ACRES OF LAND, on which there is a good Dwelling, Barn and other Out-Houses, a first-rate Meadow, and a good Farm. Also, a number of Gold Veins, some of which have been worked profitably; a Silver and Lead Vein, on which there has been a shaft sunk 80 or 100 feet deep, and the ore said to be good; and also a Copper Vein, on which there has been some work done. Said Lands lie in half a mile of the well known Gold-Hill mine, worked by the Gold-Hill Mining Company. The course of said veins pass through said lands for the distance of three quarters of a mile. Said lands are also well timbered.

P. S.—These lands will be sold altogether, or in three several Tracts, as the Executor may think advisable on the day of sale.

Midsummer-Night's DREAM.

THIS SPLENDID $20 (4 GUINEA) LONDON Print, beautifully re-engraved by Sartin, embellishes

The Eclectic Magazine,

For Feb., 1859.

Two match prints, Scott and his friends, Shakespeare and his Contemporaries—29 Portraits adorn the January No.

Portraits of two Empresses—Eugenie of France in Imperial Robes, and Maria Theresa of Austria, embellish the March No. Other splendid plates will follow.

The Eclectic invites all lovers of choice reading to its sumptuous pages, which contain—

1. The best articles—cream gathered from 7 British Quarterlies and 9 Monthlies—like cream from 16 pans of fresh milk gathered into one, for the literary epicure of the reader and his family.

2. The Eclectic is the best, richest in intellectual wealth, most varied, most, free from moral poison, and most satisfactory monthly published.

3. Its portrait and artistic embellishments surpass all others. They are an attractive gallery of fine arts, refining in influence.

4. The Eclectic is the cheapest, in view of the treasures it contains. Its reading matter is nearly equal in a year to three entire Barnes Quarterlies, which cost $7. The Eclectic is only $5. Its embellishment alone are worth that money.

5. It is the easiest and cheapest way of getting a choice library of current literature, good for all time.

6. No family—no father for his sons and daughters—no young lady, no young gentleman, can spend this small sum so well in any way for mental improvement and gentilemism. Try it. You will find it true. Feed the mind with food worthy of its wants and destiny.

7. An intelligent press, far and near, and eminent men, commend the Eclectic in strong and emphatic language.

GREAT ATTRACTIONS!

TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS

Paying in advance the January number, 1859, will be sent, embellished with two splendid match prints—Sir Walter Scott and his Friends, and Shakespeare and his Contemporaries, containing twenty-eight portraits—surpassing all precedent.

TERMS:

The Eclectic is issued on the first of every month. Each number contains one hundred and forty-four large octavo pages, double columns, on fine paper neatly stitched in green covers with one or more beautiful Steel Portraits by Sartain. The twelve numbers comprise three volumes of 600 pages each, with titles, indexes, and embellishments. Price Five Dollars. The postage is only three cents a number, pre-paid at the office of delivery. Specimen No. 6 cents in postage stamps.

For Weakness, Wasting and every form of Debility, use

BAKER & CO'S

COD-LIVER OIL

IT'S use, if fairly tried, will soon restore the tone of the digestive organs, invigorate the blood, give general roundity to the figure, and add energy to the mind and nervous system. Its value has been remarkably evidenced by its wonderful restorative powers, when ordinary tonics had been totally exhausted. It affords nourishment to the body when no other can be borne, and furnishes the frame with fat in a truly remarkable manner.

R ARE YOU SICK?

THAT you can't be cured too soon. Don't delay until your complaint is incurable, and then mourn when it is too late. Four-fifths of all the diseases which people the church yards, might be cured by Ayer's Cathartic Pill, if taken in season. Don't go dragging till Spring, faint, sleepy and listless, because your blood is loaded with bile. Don't wear the headache, heartburn, and their kindred disorders, because your stomach is foul. Don't parade yourself around the world, covered with Pimples, Blotches, Ulcers, Sores, and all or any of the unclean diseases of the skin, because your system wants cleansing. Don't show yourself sallow, lean, haggard, all cured in, because your Stomach and Bowels need strengthening into healthy action. Ayer's Pills set these things right as surely as water quenches fire. They purify the body and blood, and restore their functions into healthy activity which you can feel as quick as they are taken. They are the one great medical wonder of the age, recognized by all who know their virtues, and many thousands know them. Take the Cherry Pectoral for a cough, and the Pills for all derangements requiring a purgative medicine.

Price 25 cts per Box—5 Boxes for $1.00.

OUR MUSICAL FRIEND.

A weekly publication of Sheet Music, suitable for the players and singers of the Home circle, and consisting of sixteen pages full folio size, stitched in a handsome cover. It contains all the popular dances of the day; arrangements from the most favorite operas; scenes, songs, ballads, airs, &c. An abundant supply of every thing that the popular taste demands; never to difficult, always instructive, and ever fresh and delightful.

The favor with which OUR MUSICAL FRIEND has been received by the public, and the commendations it has won from the Press, are guarantees of its worth. A work so cheap, accurate and elegant, does not exist in any other country. The same amount of music procured at the regular stores would cost at least twenty times what it costs in "Our Musical Friend." Variety and excellence are secured by subscribing to a periodical so cheap, and much needed. Pieces by the following composers have appeared in the first ten numbers; the names speak for themselves: Mozart, S. Lover, Wallenstein, Meyerbeer, Flotow, Burgmuller, F. Schubert, Verdi, Donizetti, Strauss, Mazurka, Thalberg, Balfe, Rossini, J. Weber, Kucken, Spryer, Abt, G. A. Macfarren, Bellini, H. Smart Archer, Crouch, D'Albert, Bishop, Auber, Portello, Lindpaintner, Beethoven, &c., &c. All these pieces are within the range of ordinary players and singers and are invariably characterized by delicious melody and easy accompaniments.

Our Musical Friend

is published weekly, price 10 cents, and may be ordered from any bookseller or periodical dealer. It will be sent direct from the office of publication at the following rates, yearly $5; half year $2.50; Clubs, 3 copies, $14; 6 copies, $26; 10 copies, $40 per year; same rates for half year. No subscription taken for less than 6 months, payable in advance.

ANOTHER CHANGE!!

SALISBURY

FEMALE SEMINARY.

THIS flourishing Institution is in charge of the following Teachers, viz:

A. D. Wilkinson, Principal,
Mrs. N. O. Wilkinson, Assistant in the Literary department and Music,
Mr. Wm. Henkel, Instructor in Music.

Take pleasure in saying that the present Session has surpassed their expectation. We are thankful for past favors and request a continuation of the same, with a great addition. As there may be some who are Sectarian in their feelings in regard to Schools, I would say publicly what I have said in private. I teach no Sect, if you want that taught you must send to the Preacher. The second Session will commence on the 21st day of Feb., 1859, and continue twenty-one weeks.

Terms of Tuition as heretofore.

Board in family of Principal and others of the highest respectability.

A. D. WILKINSON,
Principal.

Runaway!!—$50 REWARD.

RANAWAY from the subscriber on the 20th January last, a Negro man named ALEX. or ALEXANDER. Said man is of a dark copper color, 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high, and will weigh from 155 to 165 lbs.—a very likely fellow, but has rather a down-cast look—aged 22 years. The subscriber thinks it probable that Alex is lurking about either in the neighborhood of Salisbury, Mrs. Lowrie's or M. S. McKenzie's plantations. He will give the above reward for his apprehension and delivery to him, at his residence 2½ miles South of Bringle's Ferry, in Rowan county.
