SUMMER SCHOOL WILL HELP OUT BASEBALL

(Special to Daily News.)

Durham, June 9.—The close of the Trinity commencement finds the summer law school in operation and it will run straight through the summer.

This is the first time that the summer feature has been worked. Professors Mordecai and McIntosh will each teach a month, Dean Mordecai having the classes the first one. Then Professor McIntosh holds another month and the third is taught by R. F. Reade, of the Durham bar.

There are 15 of the young lawyers who have agreed to remain in the school this summer. Some of them will be able to take the examination in September, but most of them are first year boys. They will be here three months.

Incidentally it will help the baseball league of the city. Both Bob Gantt and Flowers, the star battery three years, are in the class and will be with the Y. M. C. A. team. The only game that the Christians have been able to capture was the one that the big twirler pitched Saturday.

In addition to the summer law school, a school of education is planned for the beginning of September.

Its specific aim is to prepare high school teachers and it will be under the direction of Prof. H. [illegible] Brooks, of Trinity's department of education.

GAMES THIS WEEK.
Friday and Saturday.
Winston at Greenville.
Charlotte at Anderson.
Spartanburg at Greensboro.

(Special to Daily News.)

Charlotte, June 9.—The Champs exhibited a reversal of form today and won from the Hornets by the overwhelming score of 10 to 1. They hit Humphrey from the word go and never let up until the end of the ninth. Ten hits were secured by Hicks and his men, which, coupled with the six errors of the Hornets and their all round bonehead playing, netted a total of 10 runs. Hammersley was in good form and the Hornets could do nothing with him. But five hits were made off him and neither of them came in the inning that the local's score was made. Springs gathered in three drives in his vicinity that were labeled for long trips. Jackson featured for the Champs with the stick, getting three hits out of four times up, but could not step one with a bread basket. Cross and Williams were the only Hornets to exhibit the slightest snap or ginger, or to show the slightest desire to win. The crowd was about disgusted.

TWINS TOOK AN EASY GAME FROM THE ELECTRICIANS

(Special to Daily News.)

Winston-Salem, June 9.—It was like throwing a kid down and taking an orange away from him. That was the way the Twins treated those Andersonians here this afternoon in a game that terminated in a score of 14 to 5. The locals did all of their good work in the first two innings. After that Pop's crew played to get by the fifth inning to escape a threatened rain, which never came. Finn was knocked so hard in the first two innings that Kelly went in to relieve him, but the manager was really an easier mark for the sluggers.

Kelly stepped down and out at the close of the fifth and called Finn back in the box.

The feature of the game was the heavy swatting by the Twins. Swindell pitched a good game, though he "eased up" after he saw the game was cinched.

CHAMPS AND SPARTANS CLASH HERE TODAY

The "Champs," battered up and shot to pieces, both in batteries and fielders, returned from Charlotte last night, fresh from a victory over Lave Cross' Hornets and this afternoon they will engage the wounded Spartans, who according to report are about ready to give up the "Pass." The game, should the weather permit, will begin at the usual hour, 4.30 o'clock, and in view of the fact that it is "Pug" Hicks' first appearance in managerial roles, together with the fact that opposing teams are fighting for the damp station, a large attendance is expected.

Church Street Won.

Church Street used up five pitchers for Greene Street yesterday, though to tell which one was the most effective would require an expert in mathematics. For Church Street Jones pitched fair ball, holding the opposing team to nine runs and as many hits. Church Street made 21 runs and 27 hits.

Batteries: Church Street—Jones and Cox; Greene Street—Hawkins, Callum, Cox, King Williams, Shaffer and Charter.

HUNTING GRAFT

Mayor Gaynor Thinks He Has Found Something.

(By The Associated Press.)

New York, June 9.—Mayor Gaynor has been hunting graft in another field. He says that he has found it, and that it was flourishing openly in the federal building here. He has written to Attorney-General Wickersham saying that bribes are extorted from aliens who desire to become naturalized.

Soon after the mayor took office he received complaints which led him to begin an investigation. Applicants for naturalization papers are lined up in the federal building and stand there day after day awaiting attention. City detectives were stationed in the line and one of them reported that Jacob Goldstein approached him and demanded $25 as the price of having his case attended to.

Goldstein told him, he said, that if he did not pay he might stand in line 100 days without getting any nearer to the room in which the clerks were making out the papers.

The detective says he paid $14 to Goldstein, who was then arrested.

When Goldstein was arrested he was brought before a United States commissioner charged with having conspired to extort money from applicants for naturalization. Assistant United States District Attorney Walton, the complainant in the case, said that he was not prepared to proceed and the prisoner was discharged. The evidence in Mayor Gaynor's possession will be submitted to the federal grand jury.

SCOTLAND NECK.

Scotland Neck, June 8.—Tuesday evening the Iroquois German club gave its second annual June german, which was in every respect a delightful occasion. These in conjunction with beautiful dresses worn by the ladies made a very attractive scene, and one that added much to the beautiy of the dance. The dance was gracefully led by W. H. MERELY TOOLS

Dead Man Blamed for Great Sugar Frauds.

(By The Associated Press.)

New York, June 9.—The jury in the trial of Charles R. Heike, secretary of the American Sugar Refining company; Ernest W. Gerbracht, superintendent of the company's Williamsburg docks; and James F. Rendernagel, former cashier of the company, all of whom are charged with complicity in the short-weight frauds by which the government was cheated out of more than $2,000,000 in customs dues, decided by a vote of 8 to 4 tonight to postpone hearing Judge Martin's charge until tomorrow morning.

The defense summed up for Gerbracht and Heike and the closing arraignment of the prosecution, delivered by Henry L. Stimson. Former State Senator Clarence Lexow argued for Gerbracht that he was only "an old German sugar cook," faithful to his orders, who had no knowledge of the policy of the company, for which H. O. Havemeyer was responsible and which Havemeyer personally directed in all its details.

"Read these letters from Havemeyer to Heike," he exclaimed. "See in them the fine Italian hand of Havemeyer, who knew it all, who did it all. Havemeyer and his 'head devil,' Oliver Spitzer, convicted and then pardoned by the President to testify in the present trial were responsible," said Lexow.

As for Heike, he had never breathed the "pestilential air of the sugar docks," contended John B. Stanchfield, his counsel, and he had no personal interest in the company's profits. Heike was merely the register of the will of another, the transcriber of the records of his chief. He's the man they call the 'man higher up,'" continued Mr. Stanchfield. "He's the man Mr. Wickersham wants to convict so that he can say to the country: 'It's all right; we've got the 'man higher up.'"

The Fourth Is Because: We provide you with garments that that fit perfectly. You will find us just as anxious as you are to have the clothes you get from us look right, feel right and wear right.

Wallace's Summer Suits for Men

¶ Your custom tailor first puts on a "near-fit" and then cuts and hacks until he gets a "nearer fit."

¶ With our garments this is not so. They are fashioned for all sizes and proportions of men—and it is seldom we have to make any alteration other than to move a button or shorten or lengthen a sleeve.

¶ Get your clothes from us and you will be certain of a perfect fit.
