EVENTS OF THE WEEK IN STATESVILLE SOCIETY

(Special to Daily News.)

Statesville, June 25.—A surprise marriage of much interest to the many friends of the bridegroom here occurred at Hydro, Okla., Wednesday evening, when Robert O. Miller, of Statesville, was wedded to Miss Hinton, a young lady of that place. Particulars of the marriage are not yet known here, Mr. Miller having planned it as a surprise for his homefolks. The bridal pair are now on their way to North Carolina and are expected in Statesville at any time to visit Mr. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Miller. They will remain here until after the marriage of Miss Mary T. Miller and Rev. Oscar Mann next Wednesday.

Miss Lillian Irene Sharpe, of Statesville, and Lemuel Hall White, of Winston, were married Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Johnson, on Race street. The Johnson home was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and the marriage was a very pretty one. The hall and sitting room were decorated in potted plants and pink roses, while in the parlor there were many white carnations and ferns. A pretty arch across a corner of the parlor bore a beautiful wedding bell of daisies. Just prior to the ceremony Miss Edith Burnham, of Savannah, Ga., sang "A Dream," and the bridal pair entered the parlor to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Pearl Hoke. While they stood beneath the large wedding bell the impressive ceremony which made them husband and wife was performed by Rev. T. H. Pruett, of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church, pastor of the bride. The bride was very attractive in her gorgeous costume of tan. She carried a large bouquet of Easter lilies and ferns. After receiving the hearty congratulation of the guests the bridal party hurried to the station, where Mr. and Mrs. White boarded the eastbound train. After a visit to Washington and other points they will be at home in Winston-Salem. Mr. White is a Southern railway conductor with headquarters at Winston.

Among the out of town guests here for the marriage were Mr. and Mrs. Moses M. White, of Winston, parents of the bridegroom; Mrs. Sipka, Mrs. Mortimer McKnight, Miss Mary Bethel and Edwin McNeely, of Mooresville.

Complimentary to Miss Sharpe, who was married Wednesday, Misses Edith and Beulah Smith entertained quite a number of young friends a few evenings prior to the marriage. The game of 004 Maids was the source of much amusement. The bride's prize was a beautiful fan. Following the game she was covered with a shower of handkerchiefs. Appropriate refreshments were served.

Invitations received in Statesville read as follows: "Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Troutman request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Edna, to Mr. Rockwell McClelland, Calp, on Wednesday evening, June 29th, 1910, at 7 o'clock, Troutman, North Carolina." Miss Troutman, the bride elect, has for the past few years been milliner for McNeely Brothers of Mooresville, and is popular with a large circle of friends in Mooresville and at Troutman. She is a sister of Mrs. T. M. Deaton, of Statesville, and is favorably known here. Mr. Calp is a young business man of Mooresville.

The first of the prominent events signalizing the approaching marriage of Miss Mary T. Miller and Rev. Oscar Mann, of Augusta, took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Brady, when the Wednesday Afternoon club met with Miss Margaret Brady and honored the bride-elect, one of the club's most popular members, with a linen shower. Quite a number of guests outside the club were present, and the affair was an interesting and delightful one. The bundles of linen, which included many beautiful handkerchiefs, towels, pieces of bandoric, etc., were hidden in the two rooms occupied by the guests, and Miss Miller searched for them while Miss Brady played a wedding march. Hearts dice was played and the prize, a hand embroidered handkerchief, was won by Miss Anderson, who presented it to the guest of honor, Miss Miller. The bride's prize was a large bunch of sweet peas. Among the special guests of the club on this pleasant occasion was Miss Lelia Scott, of Virginia, who is visiting in town.

Mrs. A. F. Steele was the charming hostess at another enjoyable social function Thursday afternoon when she entertained the Bridge club and a large number of other guests in honor of Miss Miller, the bride-elect. The game was played at five tables. The first prize, a bridge score, was won by Miss Mary Long, and the second prize, a fan, was awarded to Miss Beth Evans. The bride's prize was a beautiful handmade girdle of pink, pink being the color scheme in the decorations. The punch bowl, which was surrounded by pink roses, was presided over by Miss Ethel Boozer, of South Carolina. Other delicious refreshments were served.

Beginning next Tuesday Miss Arleane Gilmer, of Statesville, will give a house party to a number of her young friends at the Gladstone hotel, Black Mountain, of which her father, F. G. Gilmer, is proprietor. Miss Nell Saunders, of Charlotte, who has been visiting Miss Gilmer here, will accompany her to Black Mountain to attend the house party. Other young ladies who will attend are Misses Willie Nicholson, of Statesville, Winnie Reid, of Columbia, and Gertrude Smith, of Mt. Airy.

BISHOP LEO HAID RAISED IN DIGNITY BY THE POPE

(By The Associated Press.)

Belmont, June 25.—Through the apostolic delegation at Washington, notice has been received here that the Pope has raised Belmont Abbey, of which Bishop Leo Haid is abbott, to the rank of abbey a nullius, or cathedral abbey, with its own territory and jurisdiction. This honor is the highest the Catholic church confers on any abbey, and thus Belmont takes rank over all abbeys in North America.

There are only 18 of the class in the world. Bishop Haid celebrates his silver jubilee in October and at that time the canonical erection of the abbey will be formally promulgated in the presence of high dignitaries of the church.

MORGANTON NEWS

Baseball Craze Is on—Many Interesting Happenings.

(Special to Daily News.)

Morganton, June 25.—The baseball craze struck Morganton and the staid citizens and busy business men turned out en masse patriotically to do honor to the national game. Maids and matrons likewise were there and the ever present small boy was also in evidence. Two beautiful games were played on Thursday and Friday afternoons between Morganton and Forest City, and while the visitors were the victors the home team played splendid ball and with more team practice work they would be able to make things interesting for any of the clubs in the Carolina league. The scores stood, first game—Forest City, 4; Morganton, 1. Second game—Forest City, 5; Morganton, 3.

Miss Atwood Hunt's birthday gift to her mother on Friday was a surprise bridge party. The guests were the members of Mrs. Hunt's club and a few special friends. Mesdames Chaffee, McNaughton, Gaither, Ross, Dickson, Silver, Hobbie, Leslie, Davis and Misses Ivy Hayes and Annie Gordon were present. The club presented Mrs. Hunt with a handsome set of plates. She was also the recipient of other remembrances from her large circle of friends. After the game a delicious lunch was served.

Joseph Kincaid, a prominent citizen and wealthy mill owner of Griffin, Ga., and a former resident of Morganton, is in the city for a few days. Mr. Kincaid is on an automobile tour through the Carolinas and speaks highly of the roads that have thus far been improved in the state.

A delightful garden party and reception was given by Mrs. McNeely Dulhoe and Mrs. I. T. Avery at the latter lady's home, Mountain view, on Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. and Miss King, of Sewanee, Tenn. This was the largest affair of the season, over 100 guests being invited. Misses Marie and Eliza Pearson presided at the punch bowl and Misses Marion Milner, Lillian Avery, Eva Walton and Kate Halle Silver served delicious refreshments to the numerous guests.

Miss Ruth McNaughton entertained a small coterie of friends at bridge complimentary to Miss Mary Kirne, of Mt. Holly, on Wednesday night.

SUSPENDED THE CHIEF

Head of Charlotte's "Finest" Engaged In a Scrap.

(Special to Daily News.)

Charlotte, June 25.—The Democratic primaries in this county today attracted widespread interest. The greatest interest was taken in the race between D. B. Smith and F. M. Shannonhouse, candidates for the office of solicitor. Both have many staunch friends who put up a game fight for their choice.

At the city hall this afternoon Smith, who is the city recorder, and T. M. Christenbury, chief of police, engaged in a fight in which no serious damage was done. The chief called Smith a liar and Smith went at him like a bull at a red flag. Friends parted them before anything more than a few scratches had been made. Smith, however, got an umbrella out of business, and the chief was suspended from office until Wednesday night by the executive board which took up the matter at a meeting tonight.

Military Tournament Closed.

Nashville, Tenn., June 25.—Nashville's military tournament was brought to a close this afternoon in the presence of another great crowd. Aviator Hamilton made a brief flight this morning, carrying with him as a passenger Lieut. E. P. Laurson, of General Mills' staff. Hamilton flew again at 2 p. m. and left tonight over the Louisville and Nashville railroad for New York.

NEWS FROM HIGH POINT

Street Car Tracks Connected—Mrs. Coltrane Dead—Notes of Interest.

(Special to Daily News.)

High Point, June 25.—About one year ago J. J. Farriss predicted that High Point would have cars running on both North and South Main streets by July 4, 1910. His prediction, however, was exceeded at 4 o'clock this afternoon when he was asked by the Public Service company to drive the last spike which would connect the North and South Main street tracks. He did so, and within an hour afterwards the car started on its first journey down South Main street.

Packed to its utmost capacity the street car this afternoon at 5 o'clock made the first trip on the South Main street track. The only accident that befell the car on its trip southward was the trolley came off, but after this mishap was adjusted "it went on its way rejoicing," and the residents all along the route welcomed it with flags and shouts.

The car track now covers over two miles of ground.

Death of Miss Coltrane.

Miss Cornelia Coltrane died at the home of her father at Coltrane's Mills yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock, at the age of 72 years. Funeral will take place tomorrow.

Death of Aged Negro.

Alex Linsay, a darkey well thought of by the white people of this city, died at an advanced age at his home on Leonard Row this morning.

Dr. William Linsmore, of Decatur, Ala., is in the city visiting friends. Dr. Linsmore is one of the prominent doctors of Decatur.

Dr. E. E. Richardson, of Leaksville, spent the day in the city.

ROOSEVELT WILL FIGHT FOR REPUBLICAN SUCCESS

(By The Associated Press.)

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 25.—Theodore Roosevelt may never make another political speech as he said the other day, but he is going to roll up his sleeves and plunge into the thick of the political fight that will be waged this fall for the control of New York State. It may be said with authority that he will devote his every effort to save the Republican party from the defeat which he thinks menaces it in this state and that he will not shirk the responsibility which has been placed upon his shoulders by those who look to him as the one man who can command the situation.

Until after the coming conference between colonel Roosevelt and Governor Hughes will issue an articulated policy.

Alyn Williams' Portrait of Late King.

The July Century will reproduce in color Alyn Williams' miniature portrait on ivory of his late majesty, King Edward VII, painted for the city of London's police art gallery. It is interesting to know that the revival of miniature painting in our time after a lapse of nearly a century, virtually dates from the year 1895, when Alyn Williams joined in founding the Society for Miniature painters in London. In 1896 was held in London the first exhibition of miniature paintings by living artists. Ten years later the late King Edward VII, to show his interest and appreciation, raised the organization to a "Royal society."

S.S.S. CURES RHEUMATISM

No case of Rheumatism was ever cured except by a thorough purification of the blood; just as long as the blood remains charged with fermenting uric acid poison the painful disease will continue. The pains and aches of Rheumatism are only symptoms, and it is true these may be scattered and temporarily relieved by the application of plasters, liniments and home remedies of various kinds, but the person who trifles with this dangerous disease by depending on local treatment alone is bound to pay for the mistake with constant suffering, later on. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism in the only way it is possible to cure the disease. It goes down into the blood and removes the uric acid from the circulation, so that the nerves, bones, muscles and joints are all lubricated and fed with nourishing matter, instead of being continually irritated and inflamed with the sharp, uratic impurity. When S. S. S. has cleansed and purified the blood the pains and aches cease, all inflammation disappears, stiffened muscles are made supple, and every miserable symptom of Rheumatism is corrected. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free to all who write.
