The Most Popular Chew Made

There is real enjoyment in chewing SCHNAPPS tobacco. That's why it has won millions of chewers every year, until now more is sold than all similar tobaccos.

SCHNAPPS, the most popular product of the Reynolds fabrics, is manufactured in the very heart of the Piedmont tobacco belt, known to the world as producing tobacco with an aroma so delightful and appetizing that it introduced and popularized the chewing of tobacco.

Schnapps

The Clean, Pure Chew

[illegible] SCHNAPPS, but there is only one genuine SCHNAPPS. Be sure the letters on the tag, and under the tag, spell S-c-h-n-a-p-p-s. There are more pounds of SCHNAPPS chewed every year than the total amount of all similar kinds.

Internal revenue statistics show that SCHNAPPS and others of the Reynolds brands won enough chewers in one fiscal year to make a net gain of six and a quarter million pounds, or one-third of the entire increased consumption in the United States on chewing and smoking tobacco.

SCHNAPPS is made and sold everywhere in 5c. cuts and 10 and 15c. plugs.

56 DEAD IN BRIDGE WRECK

Of the Thirteen Injured and in Hospitals Four May Die.

CORONER CALLS JURY

Displaced Rail Sent Loaded Three-Car Train from Trestle, and Aged Bridge Tender Is an Important Witness—Special Train Takes Philadelphia Victims Home.

Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 4.—An express train of three cars on the Pennsylvania Railroad's new electric line from Philadelphia jumped track and leaped from the bridge at the draw over the swift tideway called the Thoroughfare, just outside this city, at 2.30 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Fifty-six persons were drowned and mangled to death and among thirteen seriously injured four may die. That is the record of the terrible wreck.

Every undertaking shop in the city was filled with corpses, and the old Empire Theater was a morgue with never less than thirty bodies ranged along its walls. A special train carried to Philadelphia most of the victims of the wreck, who were residents of that city.

Displaced Rail Caused Wreck.

The authorities believe from the investigation they have been able to make thus far and from information which has reached them from apparently reliable sources that a displaced rail on the drawbridge caused the disaster. A careful examination of the rails and appliances belonging to the draw and to the trestle approach was made during the day by engineers representing both the railroad company and the county.

It was evident to both sides that the derailment of the wrecked train began when its forward wheels came in contact with the locking point of the outer southbound rail. The big length of steel, which weighs 100 pounds to the foot and which is the heaviest used anywhere on the Pennsylvania system, was found jammed toward the middle of the draw for a distance of nearly twenty feet.

When it comes to fixing the blame for the disaster no one will perhaps play a more important part in the inquiry than Daniel Stewart, the aged tender and flagman of the Thoroughfare draw. To him is attributed a statement made immediately after the wreck, and under the stress of great excitement, that the mechanism of the bridge made it necessary every time the draw was swung to readjust and realign the rails by hand. Stewart was not put forward by the railroad authorities to deny this statement, but General Manager W. W. Atterbury asserted that Stewart could not have possibly said such a thing.

Jury of Prominent Men.

Coroner Gaskill selected his jury from among the most prominent citizens if the county. State Senator Edward S. Glee was made the foreman. With him were, selected as members David R. Barrett, City Assessor; Charles Rosech, a meat packer, of Philadelphia and Atlantic City and officer of the Board of Trade; John P. Ashmead, City Surveyor; Isaac Bacharach, banker, and Samuel Headley, a contractor.

John Goff,
"chief lion killer" to the United States Government in the Rockies from Canada to Colorado. Goff was appointed by President Roosevelt, for whom he once acted as guide.

Bride Beaten on Wedding Day.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 31.—Mrs. Millie Nico, of this city, a seventeen year old girl, who was married on October 1 to Benjamin Nico and lived with him only six days, has begun suit for divorce. She asserts that the first day they were married he beat her, and that on the sixth day, unable longer to stand his ill treatment, she left him.

Alabama Raises Quarantine.

Mobile, Ala., Nov. 3.—The order raising the quarantine established by the State of Alabama against all Central and South American ports, went into effect recently. The order does not include Cuban points where yellow fever is known to exist.

PEARY WINS BACK HONOR OF "FARTHEST NORTH."

Although He Again Failed to Reach the Pole, He Made Wonderful Dash.

New York, Nov. 6.—Commander Robert E. Peary, of the United States Navy, has gone further north in the Arctic than any man ever did before, but he has failed to reach the North Pole. Peary brings to America the honor of holding the record of the "farthest north" and to himself the credit of having performed what will robably be hailed by the entire world, when the complete story is known, as the most wonderful feat of Arctic exploring in history.

A telegram was received from the explorer by Herbert L. Bridgman, of No. 604 Carlton street, Brooklyn, secretary of the Peary Arctic Club.

Commander Robert E. Peary.

It was sent from Hopedale, Labrador, via Twillingate, Newfoundland, and told the result of the expedition in 145 words. Mr. Peary concluded his despatch by satting that he had wired his wife at Washington, but requesting that Mr. Bridgman also reassure her of his safety. Mrs. Peary happens to be in this city. Before telling any one else, Secretary Bridgman telephoned the contents of the despatch to her. "Thank God, he is safe," was her first comment.

"Hopedale, Labrador, via Twillingate, Newfoundland, Nov. 2.

"Herbert L. Bridgman:

"Roosevelt wintered north coast Grant Land somewhat north Alert's winter quarters. Went north with sledges February via Hecklа and Columbia. Delayed by open water between 84 and 85 degrees. Beyond 85 six days. Gale disrupted ice, destroyed caches, cut off communication with supporting parties and drifted due east. Reached 87 degrees and 6 minutes north latitude over ice, drifting steadily eastward.

"Returning ate eight dogs. Drifted eastward, delayed by open water. Reached north coast Greenland in straitened conditions. Killed musk oxen and returned along Greenland coast to ship. Two supporting parties driven on north coast of Greenland. One rescued by me in starving condition. After on week recuperation on Roosevelt sledged west, competing north coast Grant Land and reached other land near 100th meridian. Homeward voyage incessant battle with ice, storms and head winds. Roosevelt magnificent ice fighter and and sea boat. No deaths or illness in expedition.

"Peary."

HOW CHARACTER IS TRIED.

Nov. 11, '06—(Matt. 26:36-50.).

There is a Gethsemane in the pathway of every man. He may be conscious of it, or ignorant of it; he may try to prepare for it, or put it out of his mind; he may meet it early, or he may meet it late, but sooner or later he will walk down into its shadow of death, and sweat blood. All mankind is divided into these two classes, those that have been in Gethsemane, and those who are going there. There is no escape from this experience. Jesus Christ the world's redeemer, could not avoid it. The brightest and the best as well as the dullest and the worst march through those grim portals, solitary and alone. Death is only a circumstance compared with that; when one has drank the cup of the warden the quintessence of bitterness has been drained. Henceforth they are marked men. Whether one drinks that cup for his own sins, or for the sins of others, the effect is always the same.

That is a superficial view of life which looks upon greatness as exempted from suffering, and which regards tears as an evidence of weakness. The greatest men the world has ever known have been the most tender-hearted and human. Greatness does not consist in stoical indifference to suffering. Was Washington weak when he knelt in the snows of Valley Forge and prayed for the assistance of the God of Battles? Was Lincoln weak when he fell on his face in the White House and wrestled for victory for the Boys in Blue? Was William E. Gladstone, Prime Minister of England, weak when he knelt by the side of a crossing sweeper to commend his soul to God? Was Jesus Christ weak when the weight of the world's woe crushed Him to the earth and He "sweat as it were great drops of blood?" If they were, their weakness is the most magnificent characteristic of the human race, the thing which above all others differentiates man from the brute creation, and allies him to the angels.

Gethsemane may be bitter, but it is the crowning development of character. It is the wine press, it is the crucible. It is the threshing floor. Ralph Connor in the "Sky Pilot" gives an illustration of the utility of Gethsemane in human life. Nature came to the prairie and demanded flowers of her. And the next year, crocuses and roses and wild sunflowers grew, but nature looked in vain for the columbine, the clematis, and the sweet violets, and when she inquired the reason, she was told that the wind was too rough, and the sun was too hot for such delicate blossoms. Then nature commanded, and the lightning cleft the rock with one swift stroke, and into the deep, jagged wound a river flowed, bearing rich black mold. Then the birds dropped the seeds, and in the canyon there sprang up mosses and ferns, and lo, the columbine, the clematis and the sweet violets, the favorites of nature.

Many a life is like that. There is broad expanse of character, but few flowers. Ruggedness there is, but no fragrance. Then, suddenly lightning flashes, jagged canyons appear, cataclysms of upheaval take place, and when the storm has spent its fury and is passed, instead of a dead level experience, however grand, the deep valleys are filled with richer soil, and the fragrance of flowers fills the life.

People who have had things their own way are not the most agreeable people. In many cases they are proud, conceited, haughty. No one goes to them for sympathy and condolence in the hour of trial, they have no knowledge of the balm for wounds. But not so, those who have passed through the portals of Gethsemane. They know how to "minister to a mind diseased." They have a look in their eyes that begets confidence. They have a grasp of the hand that puts inspiration into the discouraged. For them to say, "I know just how you feel, I have been there myself," puts hope into the hopeless. "One touch of nature makes the whole world kin."

When Christian, in Pilgrim's Progress, was passing through the Valley of the Shadow of Death, overpowered with the darkness, frightened by the hobgoblins which leered and chattered around him, almost ready to sink down into despair, he heard the voice of Hopeful sounding in the pathway on before him, and cheered by the ringing assurance of that fellow-traveller he plucked up heart of courage, and soon was walking in the light. Thus it is in life, that those who have passed through deep and agonizing experiences of suffering are by that very fact ordained to the high priesthood of help.

Let not the dread of Gethsemane darken shadow the life with gloom. Troubles always have alleviation. Though the Son of Man drank there a cup of trembling such as was never pressed to human lips, before or since, it should not be forgotten that the heavenly visitants flew to his relief in the midnight, and He was sustained by a full chalice of the water of life, brought by an angel's hand. Were it not for crucial moments in life we should never know the refreshing sweetness of angelic ministrations.

Had a Close Call.

"A dangerous surgical operation, involving the removal of a malignant ulcer, as large as my hand, from my daughter's hip, was prevented by the application of Bucklen's Arnica Salve," says A. C. Stickel, of Miletus, W. Va. "Persistent use of the Salve completely cured it." Cures Cuts, Burns and Injuries. 25c at Chas. Cole & Co., druggist.

The best treatment for indigestion and troubles of the stomach is to rest the stomach. It can be rested by starvation or by the use of a good digestant which will digest the food eaten, thus taking the work off the stomach. At the proper temperature, a single teaspoonful of Kodol will wholly digest 3,000 grains of food. It relieves the present annoyance, puts the stomach in shape to satisfactorily perform its functions. Good for indigestion, sour stomach, flatulence, palpitation of the heart and dyspepsia. Kodol is made in strict conformity with the National Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by Chas. Cole & Co.

FOUND RELIEF BY TAKING PE-RU-NA

Suffered Thirteen Years With Pelvic Troubles, Unable to Find Relief.

AN OPERATION ADVOCATED.

Pe-ru-na, Taken as a Last Resort, Brings Health and Strength.

MRS. ANNA MUNDEN

ANNA MUNDEN, Brinkley, Ark., writes:

"I suffered with female troubles for thirteen years, and tried the best doctors in Louisville, Ky., without relief.

"I spent thousands of dollars at the Springs.

"The doctors desired that I have an operation performed to remove my ovaries, which I would not consent to.

"I saw an advertisement of your Peruna and bought one bottle and before I had taken it all I could get out of bed and walk about.

"After taking three bottles I was as well and hearty as ever.

"I gained in flesh. From 118 I increased to 186 pounds.

"If it had not been for your great and wonderful medicine, I would now be in my grave.

"I would advise all women sufferers to try it.

"I would not be without it for the world."

A WOMAN'S LETTER TO WOMEN.

Mrs. Caroline Kramer, Fort Collins, Col., writes:

"The majority of women who are suffering from disordered periods and other troubles, have such strong faith in doctors that they allow them to experiment on them for kidney, liver, or stomach troubles, until they become discouraged and their money is gone.

"This was my unfortunate experience for nearly two years, when my attention was called to Peruna.

"I hardly dared believe that at last I had found the right medicine, but as I kept on using it and was finally cured I could only thank God and take courage.

"I have had most satisfying results from the use of your medicine and have advised dozens of women who were suffering with women's ills to use Peruna and let the doctors alone, and those who have followed my advice are better to-day and many are fully restored to health."

SURGICAL OPERATIONS AVOIDED.

SATISFACTORY RESULTS FROM PE-RU-NA.

There can be no doubt about it that the tendency to resort to surgical operations has been too great in the past and that this harmful tendency is growing less every day.

Experience has demonstrated that many ailments which seemed to require surgical operations in the past are now being cured by the use of harmless remedies. Peruna has done as much as any other remedy to establish this very important fact.

Thousands of people have been condemned to undergo surgical operations. Their physicians have told them that they must either submit to such operations or lose their lives.

After this they have resorted to Peruna and found relief.

Other good remedies have accomplished the same result, but it is safe to assume that no other remedy has equaled Peruna in its beneficent work.

Many of the alleged incurable derangements of the pelvis are dependent upon catarrh.

There is no cure for these except the removal of the catarrh.

Peruna seemingly works miracles in some of these cases. The explanation, however, is very simple. Peruna removes the catarrh and Nature does the rest.

Made Happy for Life.

Great happiness came into the home of S. C. Blair, school superintendent, at St. Albans, W. Va., when his little daughter was restored from the dreadful complaint he names. He says: "My little daughter had St. Vitus' Dance, which yielded to no treatment but grew steadily worse until at a last resort we tried Electric Bitters; and I rejoice to say, three bottles, three bottles affected a complete cure." Quick, sure cure for nervous complaints, general debility, female weaknesses, impoverished blood and malaria. Guaranteed by Chas. Cole & Co's drug store. Price 50c

Croup.

A reliable medicine and one that should always be kept in the home for immediate use is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will prevent the attack if given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears. For sale by Chas. Cole & Co.

A Year of Blood.

The year 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tacket, of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood; which flowed so copiously from Mr. Tacket's lungs that death seemed very near. He writes: "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me at death's door, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, with the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored and as time has proven permanently cured." Guaranteed for Sore Lungs, Coughs and Colds, at Chas. Cole & Co's drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Sells More of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than of All Others Put Together.

Mr. Thos. George, a merchant at Mt. Elgin, Ontario, says: "I have had the local agency for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy ever since it was introduced into Canada, and I sell as much of it as I do of all other lines I have on my shelves put together. Of the many dozens sold under guarantee, I have not had one bottle returned. I can personally recommend this medicine as I have used it myself and given it to my children and always with the best results." For sale by Chas Cole & Co.

"For years I starved, then I bought a 50 cent bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, and what that bottle benefitted me all the gold in Georgia could not buy. I kept on taking it and in two months I went back to my work as machinist. In three months I was as well and hearty as I ever was. I still use a little occasionally as I find it a fine blood purifier and a good tonic. May you live long and prosper."—C. N. Cornell, Rolling, Ga., Aug. 27, 1906. Kodol is sold here by Chas. Cole & Co.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR Cures Colds; Prevents Pneumonia

To the Trustees of Union Presbyterian Carthage Presbyterian Church.

Gentlemen:—

It's sound sense that we tell you It well cost less dollars to paint your church with L. & M. Paint, because more painting is done with one gallon of L. & M. than with two gallons of other paints, and the L. & M. Zinc hardens the L. & M. White Lead and makes the L. & M. Paint wear like iron.

Any church will be given a liberal quantity free whenever they paint.

4 gallons L. & M. mixed with 3 gallons Linseed Oil will paint a moderate sized house.

L. & M. costs only 1.20 per gallon.

J. E Webb, Painter, Hickory, N. C.

Writes, "House painted with L. & M. 15 years ago have not needed painting since."

Sold by Chas. Cole & Co., Carthage, N. C.

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour risings, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol cures indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does not only cure indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy cures all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

Mr. S. S. Hall, of Ravenswood, W. Va., says:—"I was troubled with sour stomach for twenty years. Kodol cured me and we are now using it in milk for baby."

Kodol Digests What You Eat.

In Time of Peace.

In the first months of the Russia-Japan war we had a striking example of the necessity for preparation and the early advantage of those who, so to speak, "have shingled their roofs in dry weather." The virtue of preparation has made history and given to us our greatest men. The individual as well as the nation should be prepared for any emergency. Are you prepared to successfully combat the first cold you take? A cold can be cured much more quickly when treated as soon as it has been contracted and before it has become settled in the system. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of colds and it should be kept at hand ready for instant use. For sale by Chas Cole & Co.

Here is our condensed opinion of the Original Laxative Cough Syrup: "Nearly all other cough syrups are constipating especially those containing opiates.
