[REPORTED FOR THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Confederate Congress.

RICHMOND, Feb. 13.—In the Senate to-day several important bills were introduced. The Committee on Military Affairs reported adversely upon the proposition to enroll Government employees as Conscripts. The exemption bill was discussed until adjournment.

The House passed a bill allowing soldiers five dollars per month for deficiencies in rations. Also passed the impressment bill, which empowers any officer commanding a military district or department to authorize impressment of property when it cannot be otherwise procured. Impressment of slaves to be made in accordance with State laws, but in the absence of such laws in accordance with rules prescribed by the Secretary of War. No slaves to be impressed where they can be hired at usual market rates. No individuals to be deprived of provisions required for the comfortable support of their family, nor except under extreme cases of grain, forage, slaves or other property necessary for plantations. Compensation to be made for property seized, and if the owner and impressing officer cannot agree, it shall be determined by three disinterested persons. Property lost, destroyed or impressed to be paid for by the Government. Penalties are attached for any officer impressing property in violation of the act. Adjourned until Monday.

From our Evening Edition of yesterday.

Further From The North and Europe.

RICHMOND, Feb. 13.—In the Senate on the 7th, Messrs Turpin, of Indiana, and Richardson, of Illinois, made Northwestern anti-abolition speeches. The former characterized Lincoln as a tyrant, and said he would have no subjects west of the Alleghanies.

The letter of Drouyn De L'Huys to Mercier, dated November 13, expresses regret at the refusal of Great Britain and Russia to unite with France in overtures of mediation. He says we will return like them to a passive attitude, from which we would never have departed had we remained indifferent to the present evils and fatal consequences of an endless continuation of a devastating war. He closes by saying that we desire the Cabinet at Washington to discern in all that has just passed proof that it will find us always disposed to lend it, if it should desire at some future time, assistance.

LINES ADDRESSED TO "LITTLE ANNIEBELLE" BY HER TEACHER.

Within the heavenly City
Amid the white-robed throng,
Where countless voices mingle
And chat the angels' song,
Our darling Anniebelle is there
A crown upon her brow,
A golden harp within her hand,
For she's an angel now.

"I want to be an angel"
On earth, she used to sing;
She loved to talk of Jesus
Her glorious heavenly King;
She loved to hear His gentle word
"Let little children come;"
So now we feel that she is safe
Within his blessed Home.

But Anniebelle, our darling,
We miss thee, here below—
E'en while we know that thou art blest
Our hearts with grief o'erflow—
We long to hear thy music-tone—
To see thy loving face—
To watch thy little graceful form,
And feel thy fond embrace.

But now thou art an angel,
We would not call the back
To this dark vale of sorrow
To tread life's thorny track;
We love to think of thee in Heaven
Arrayed in spotless white,
Where flowers bloom eternally
And sin can never blight.

Tho' thou will sing with us no more
Within our earthly home
We hope to sing with thee, in Heaven,
When Jesus bids us come.
Then, close beside the Savior
We'll meet thee, Annibelle,
And there amid the angels
We shall forever dwell.

ECLIPSES FOR 1863.—Grier's almanac for 1863 gives the following list of eclipses for the present year. There will be four eclipses, as follows:

1. The first will be of the sun, on the 17th of May at 14 h. 15 m., A. M., invisible in America.

2. The second will be a total eclipse of the moon, on the 1st day of June, partially visible. It will begin at 4 h. 46 m. 38 sec., P. M. The moon will rise at Augusta with 7 2 10 digits eclipsed on her west limb. The beginning of total darkness will be at 5 h. 24 m. 30 sec., P. M., and the end of total darkness at 6 h. 31 m. 18 sec., P. M. The duration of visibility will be 6 h. 37 m. 16 sec.

3. The third will be of the sun, on the 11th of November, at 2 h. 56 m., A. M., invisible in America.

4. The fourth will be of the moon, on the 26th day of November, visible, and nearly total throughout the continent of America. It will begin at 1 h. 57 m. 14 sec., A. M., the Ecliptic Opposition 3 h. 43 m. 21 sec., and the end of the eclipse at 5 h. 18 m. 32 sec. A. M. Its duration will be 3 h. 24 m. 17 sec. The number of digits eclipsed will be 11½ on the moon's half limb. As the greatest observation, about one 1 24 part of the moon's diameter will remain eclipsed.

ASSASSINATION.—We have in our possession a daguerreotype captured on the field of Murfreesboro'. It was found in the knapsack of a Pennsylvania soldier, and represents a likely negro wench, all bejewelled and bedizened, with a guitar in her hand. With it was a letter from Emma Morris to Ben Moore, advising him of the picture having been sent, and requesting that he should send her a Christmas gift, or if that was not possible, then money to purchase one.

This is to advertise Emma Morris, who resides at 512 Hurst Street, Philadelphia, that the daguerreotype is in our possession, and if she will transmit herself to Dixie we will sell her for at least $2,500—Lincoln's proclamation to the contrary notwithstanding.—Shelbyville Banner.

LACONIC.—Gen. Mitchell, the Federal commander at Nashville, has ordered the property of Dick McCann, the guerilla, to be burnt. The Chattanooga Rebel says:

Dick McCann has sent in his compliments to Mitchell "You may burn and be d——d," says Dick, "but if I don't give you h——l my name an't Dick McCann." And Dick's the boy to do what he says.

FROM KENTUCKY.—The Richmond Whig of yesterday says: A dispatch from Gen. John H. Morgan, to Hon. W. P. Simms, Senator from Kentucky, was received in this city on the 8th inst. It states that General Boyle, the Military Governor of Kentucky, during the past week ordered the Provost Marshal, at Louisville, to take from an Ohio brigade the negroes they had stolen while in the State; that in taking the negroes a fight occurred, in which the citizens of Louisville generally took part, and a number were wounded on both sides.

A resolution was recently introduced into the Indiana Legislature to investigate the secret political societies which are said to exist extensively in opposition to the Lincoln Government. All the democratic members voted against it.

Gerrit Smith has written a long letter to Seymour, the gist of which may be found at its precious close: "The counsels of the Abolitionists—of the men who have made slavery their life-long study—can alone, under God, save our appallingly imperilled nation."

TENNESSEE FACTS.—The Rebel has the following: Andy Johnson's hopeful son "Bob," with his regiment of Yankee cavalry come out to Franklin last Sunday night. They are now reported about eight miles from Columbia, with a brigade or more of Infantry.

It was rumored here yesterday that the Federal General Rosecrans is dead. We don't believe it. He's a "dead head dead" however,—there's no rumor about that.

MILITARY NOTICES.

BY THE GOVERNOR OF NORTH CAROLINA.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, IT HAS BEEN MADE TO APPEAR to me that the terms of the Proclamation issued by me on the 26th ultimo, for the benefit of those members of our army who are absent from their colors without proper leave, may not have been known to all who might have desired to avail themselves of its merciful provisions in time for them to do so.

Now therefore I, ZEBULON B. VANCE, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do issue this second Proclamation, extending the time limited in the former to the 5th day of March next. All such persons as above referred to, who shall have reported to their several camps by that day, will suffer no punishment for their past delinquinces. To those who shall not have so reported, nothing can be promised except the severest penalties of the military law.

In witness whereof, I, ZEBULON B. VANCE, Governor, Captain General and Commander-in-Chief, have signed these presents and caused the great Seal of the State to be affixed. (L. S.)

Done at our City of Raleigh, this 12d day of February, A. D., 1863, and in the 87th year of our Independence.

Adj't and Inspector General's Office,
RICHMOND, Jan. 3, 1863.
GENERAL ORDERS, No. 2.

THE FOLLOWING ORDERS ARE PUBLISHED for the information and guidance of all concerned:

Recognizing the necessity of officers of railroads having full control of their business in order to insure safety and dispatch in transportation, military officers are prohibited from interfering with the engines, cars, running of trains, or with the control and management in any way of railroads.

II. When transportation of troops or freights by railroad is necessary, a Quartermaster or other authorized officer, shall make requisition for the same upon the superintendent or proper officer of the railroad, furnishing the necessary evidence of transportation, and delivering the troops or freight to be transported.

III. In the event that more freight is to be transported over any road than the road has the ability to carry promptly, the officer furnishing evidence of transportation will indicate to the railroad officer what shall take precedence. In the absence of any special order as to what freight shall go first the railroad officer shall be governed by any General order the Quartermaster General may issue in regard thereto.

IV. Where troops or freight is to be moved out of the usual routine of a railroad, the officer having charge of such movement, will fix with the superintendent, or other officer of the road on which the movement is to be made the day and hour of departure, and when so fixed, the troops or freight must be ready at the appointed time.

V. In the event of any military necessity for an unusual movement at any particular point the commanding officer at such a post will communicate fully the character and extent of service, to the principal officer of the road or roads from which it is required, and ask the personal supervision of the proper railroad officers to the duty.

VI. Quartermaster and Commissaries will exercise discretion in shipping freight not wanted for immediate use, and that may be stored at safe and convenient points, taking care not to block up roads and thereby impede transportation.

VII. When it is necessary to send a special messenger with freight, such messenger must travel with the freight placed in his charge, and his transportation shall be so specified on its face, in order to prevent him from travelling in any other way.

VIII. Enrolling officers will permit conscripts, enrolled while in the employment of railroads, to remain at their duties until Colonel William M. Wadley, A. A. G., decides as to who of them it is necessary should be detailed for service on the road.

IX. Any violation of these orders, or remissness on the part of railroad officers to perform promptly all Government transportation will be reported to Colonel William M. Wadley, A. A. G., who will indicate from time to time where his headquarters will be.

By order:
