R. H. Wimble

THE DAILY PROGRESS.

VOL. V. RALEIGH. TUESDAY. DEC. 8, 1863. NO. 24.

J. L. PENNINGTON.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

The following are the only terms of subscription to THE PROGRESS:

1 month, $2 00 | Daily Paper, 3 months, $6 00
2 " 4 00 | " 6 " 10 00

Papers will not be sent to any one without the money in advance; and in all cases it will be stopped when the time paid for expires.

JOB PRINTING.

In connection with the PROGRESS establishment we have a Job Office equal to any in the City or State, we are prepared to execute all orders for BOOK and JOB PRINTING. Orders solicited and promptly attended to.

DAILY PROGRESS.

TUESDAY, DEC. 8, 1863.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

[REPORTED FOR THE PRESS ASSOCIATION.]

According to act of Congress, in the year 1861, [illegible] Clerk's Office of the District [illegible] Confederate States of the Northern Dis-

From East Tennessee.

[illegible] Yankee prisoners, captured [illegible] been guard under Capt. Rhodes of Wharton's [illegible] were brought here to-day. Two of them [illegible] with despatches from Gen. Sherman to Charleston. Capt. Rhodes also captured [illegible] but the enemy [illegible] destroyed the wagons.—[illegible] Ya-hoo regiments [illegible] Island. Some of Capt. Rhode's men [illegible] for saw nothing of them. Heavy [illegible] heard yesterday in the direction of Kingston supposed to be an engagement between Wheeler's cavalry [illegible]

[illegible] Chattanooga [illegible] Yankees on Red left that [illegible] was at [illegible] Springs.

From Charleston.

[illegible] shelling to notice—[illegible] Monitor and [illegible]

[illegible] Dec. 7.—Quiet this morning. No firing last night.

From Richmond.

Richmond, Dec. 7.—Nothing of interest has transpired here to-day. The members of Congress have [illegible] for the last few days. It is feared [illegible] war will be prosecuted [illegible] vigorously. A summary of [illegible] will be sent to the press as soon as delivered [illegible]

[illegible] is no news of importance to hear from Longstreet, no information [illegible] the forces, official or other[illegible] have not been heard for two days. Dispatches [illegible] probably be received to-night.

BY THE GOVERNOR OF NORTH CAROLINA.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, HIS EXCELLENCY JEFFERSON DAVIS, President of the Confederate States of America, has by his proclamation, dated the 15th day of October, 1863, recommended to the people of the Confederate States of America, that they should assemble themselves together on Thursday, the 26th day of November, instant, to unite in ascribing to the Almighty God, the benefits and blessings we have enjoyed during the year now ending, and humbly ask for the continuance of the same, and for the restoration of peace and prosperity to our country, and to offer up our united prayers and supplications to Almighty God, that He would be with our armies in the field, and with our people at home, and that He would bless our rulers, our civil and military officers, our soldiers and our people, with wisdom, with patriotism, with courage, with faith in Him, with love for our country, with love for our fellow-men, with charity for our enemies, with self-sacrifice for our country, with self-denial for our fellow-men, with charity for our enemies, with forgiveness for our enemies, with a spirit of prayer and supplication, that our land may be a land whose God is the Lord, and that we may be a people whose God is the Lord, and that we may be a people whose God is the Lord, and that we may be a people