THE DAILY PROGRESS.

VOL. VI RALEIGH, THURSDAY, AUG. 31, 1865. NO. 246.

THE NEWS.

—For Latest News see Fourth Page.

—Mr. Dugilade, an informal embassador from Maximilian, attempted to present an informal letter of condolence on the assassination of Mr. Lincoln to President Johnson and thereby secure an informal recognition of the Imperial government, but failed, and was formally told that "in these times" the United States failed to see in Maximilian a man as the Emperor of Mexico existed.

—The new Belgian loan for the government of the great Republic has been formally presented to the President. His name is Dodge.

—Ketchum's old claims amount in the aggregate to $4,200,000.

—Mr. Wm. P. Johnson, formerly of the Picayune, and an old friend of Buchanan's family, Texas, has been appointed Surveyor of Customs at Vera Cruz.

—The funeral expenses of President Lincoln are now being paid from the Treasury Department.

—Previous to his departure for Washington Gen. Grant took the parole of Mr. Slidell, that he will be in evidence had he been subpoenaed in the late Conspiracy trial, and so reported to the President. Mr. Slidell is the convict Jeff Davis of Louisiana, the chapelain of the Confederate prison, who "prayed" Lincoln's death at the arch traitor.

—It is said that Roberts, Newell, Clapp and Kerr) is engaged in writing a life of Edgar A. Poe, for which he is said to be well enough qualified.

—The people of Arkansas refuse to take the national currency, considering it as worthless as their own rebel trash, or more so. They are confirmed in the belief by the fellow Burnett, the ex-Rebel General, who is down there spouting treason and going to Congress.

—Commodore Lee Sailing on arrival of Galveston from Mexico, reports that the issues of the warfare carried on between the Liberals and Imperialists are perfectly horrible. No prisoners are taken on either side.

—In Virginia alone, it is said that twenty thousand five hundred paroles have passed through the Attorney General's office, and are now on file at the President. Many other months being disposed of on his table.

Gen. Edward Johnson, late of the Confederate army, has been in Richmond, purchasing stock for farming purposes, &c., preparatory to engaging in farming on his farm in Cresswell, Gen. Harry T. Hayes and the "Dixie" Allen are now in New Orleans. Major General Dabney H. Maury advertises that he will open a classical and mathematical school in Fredericksburg.

—The foreign immigration to the United States for the six months ending with June comprised nearly 70,000 persons of whom 49,000 are males.

—A few weeks since, when Consul General Potter returned from Detroit, an excited mob collected in the neighborhood of his office and counselled [illegible] making his office. News of the excitement reached St. Lawrence Hall, where Congressman Foster of Tenn., was sitting, in company with other southerners. On hearing the account of the intention of the mob, Foster sprang up and declared his intention of going to the Consul's office to defend the flag. "We've had our own fight over it," said he, "but by G—d, [illegible] I regret shall I let it be trodden, unless over my dead body."

—The mail system in the South is fast undergoing restoration. Mails were sent South from Washington yesterday for all points on the continuous line of railway from Petersburg to Lynchburg.

—The democratic committee calling a Convention in favor of those favoring President Johnson's policy, and opposed to colored suffrage in Rebel State, has not suit the copperheads, and Dr. Grund, Byington and others have issued a call for those in favor of the revival of the democratic party as it was before the late abolition war," to meet in State convention at Iowa City, on the 17th of next month.

—The Nashville Union says that one of the largest and finest rolling mills in the United State is already in operation in Chattanooga, Tenn., which is easily turning out the best quality of railroad iron. A blast furnace is in contemplation, and a copper rolling mill of $1,000,000 capital is soon to be put up in the neighborhood. A large blast furnace will be commenced in the Fall on the Tennessee river above Chattanooga. Several coal companies are only waiting for machinery to commence operations in different localities around the place. The old coal mines are being re-worked and new ones opened.

—The Richmond Republic announces as about to appear, Circular No. 1 of Gen. O. O. Howard, Commissioner of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen and Abandoned Lands, which sets apart for the use of loyal refugees and freedmen certain tracts or parcels of land and other property within the State of Virginia, to which the United States have a quitclaim title by confiscation. These lands, embracing thousands of acres, lie in the Counties of Loudon, Fairfax, Elizabeth City, Prince William, Warwick, York, Norfolk, and the cities of Norfolk and Portsmouth; and the Republic says it will be the first of an extensive series of similar publications.

—Three children of Jeff. Davis—two boys and a girl—arrived at Albany on the morning of the 15th inst., on the steamer St. John, stopped at the Delevan house for a few hours, and left on the Rensselaer and Saratoga railroad for Montreal. They were accompanied by the mother of Mrs. Davis, a white servant girl and a white servant. The evening Journal says that a large crowd was attracted to the Delevan House, where quite a disgusting scene took place. A number of women went in, and, amidst the most extravagant processions of delight and affection, repeatedly kissed the children."

THE CITY.

ADVERTISERS.—We have to request our advertising friends to hand in their favors as early as practicable in the afternoon. The morning hours are best, but they ought to send them, when possible, at least as early as three or four o'clock p. m.

RALEIGH FROM A NEW STAND POINT.—It is just now quite interesting to collect from different sources the views presented of our city and its people. In the future, the scrapiana of the present will be of use as the most authentic history of the modification in Southern society, and legal sense, which has resulted from the war.

The last leaf we have seen is found in a letter signed "W. H. T.," dated "Office of the Christian Recorder," and published in Philadelphia. He thus records his arrival here, with the impressions of the people and our oak village.

After Bro. C[illegible]'s sermon, I made a few remarks [illegible] Several I was at a loss to know the [illegible] proceed to talk to them. After making the [illegible] of many new acquaintances, we parted for the night.

The Sabbath came, and it was a glorious day. On going to the Church, we found it [illegible] with eager hearers. From 400 to 500 were present, both white and colored. After the school was organized, our morning service commenced at eleven o'clock. The people came pouring in from [illegible] the house was well filled. Some 10 or 12 persons joined there. We also had a large missionary representation. Several officers, with [illegible] 100 recruits, are stationed here. The reason for our having so many white [illegible] is, that this city is garrisoned [illegible] white troops.

I never spent a more happy day in my life. Everyone seemed to [illegible] with us. A more generous hospitable people I never met [illegible] Raleigh. My members [illegible] congregations, for [illegible] and [illegible] will remember favorably [illegible] Northern Churches. [illegible] considering the many disadvantages [illegible] people have to contend with. I find [illegible] intelligent and cultivated [illegible] people. By way of a very big [illegible] Fruit [illegible] kinds, vegetables, and [illegible] and here [illegible] all that the eye would desire [illegible] But while this is the fact, let me tell you that it [illegible] of the great influx from the country, both white and colored. I can safely say, that [illegible] white and colored are of the best [illegible]

A GOOD SELL.—Last Monday evening a well dressed individual registered at the Exchange Hotel as the foreshadow or precursor of "Fighting [illegible] announced to the guests of the establishment that the battle of Chancellorsville and Marye's heights was en route for the oken city and would probably arrive next day. Of course such a proclamation created no small degree of interest, civilian and citizen, masculine and feminine, were all on the qui vive. Yesterday, however, expectation received a staggering blow from the prolonged absence of "the herald" gentleman, who had vamoosed for parts unknown without even so much as taking his leave of the proprietors. There is only one method of accounting for the stranger's proceedings—He probably heard news that the enemy were in front, and like a faithful subordinate and good soldier has gone to warn his chief.

We take the liberty of saying in this, so could vent his eye, that it is not every one who has the genius to conceive and execute such a masterly movement against both banks, as well as front and rear of the "Exchange," and if he will only return a testimonial supper will be given him by subscription. "Come back, come back, Stephen."

BAPTIST ASSOCIATION.—Quite a number of Baptist Association are to assemble during the next month. The Three Fork Association meets to-morrow, with Rev. J. H. Farding as Moderator and R. Moore, clerk.

On Friday of next week, the Roah Mountain Association will convene, as will also the Salem Association, Rev. Jas. Blythe, Moderator, and J. H. Allen, of Hendersonville, Clerk.

The Pamlico Association meets with Zion Church in Southern Neck, Halifax county, on Friday before the 3d Sabbath in September. Rev. T. R. Owen, Moderator; E. P. Powell, Dawson's Cross Roads, Clerk.

The Raleigh Association meets with the church at Louisburg, on Thursday before the 3rd Sabbath in October. Rev. A. D. Blackwell, Moderator; D. R. Richard, Clerk. Rev. P. W. Dowd has been appointed to preach the Missionary sermon, and Rev. Wednesday, and Rev. J. Hord to preach the introductory.

The Bear Creek Association meets on Saturday before the 4th Sabbath in September. Rev. S. D. Swain, Moderator; R. W. Weston, Zionville, N. C., Clerk.

LABOR OMNIA VINCIT.—We hear from a semi-official source that Capt. McIver has resolved upon a new and more efficient system of punishment for the incorrigible "freemen" who come before him for infraction of the rules of right. Instead of a few hours of thumb-suspension, when guilty, he will make a chain-gang of the culprits and place them at work on the street and elsewhere for a period which will be varied according to the nature of the offence. It strikes us that the idea is a capital one, and while not seemingly so harsh, will be far more repulsive to the negroes than the old method. It is practical, too, because those who indulge themselves in pecadilloes, will thus contribute by their moral filthiness to the physical cleanliness of the town.

NAKED FACTS.—Messrs. Wm. B. Smith & Co., of the New York Fireside Publishing House in this city, have sent us a neatly printed volume of 160 pages, with the title above, being a compilation of poems, reputedly, the production of George Moses Horton, who has won the soubriquet "the colored bard of North Carolina. The publishers now have it on their counter ready for delivery and we promise those who wish something attractive a treat in its perusal. Its defects are sometimes very glaring, but amend is made for such imperfection by some passages which have in them the ring of true poetry. It is a volume which will be very generally read, we predict, from the fact that a colored man—a slave of parts is not supposed to have contributed nothing to literature.

PANORAMIC.—A large and elegant "star spangled banner" has been purchased by the new proprietors of the Exchange Hotel, and yesterday it floated majestically to the breeze. It is their intention to resume the time honored custom of displaying the national colors on public occasions, and in case of distinguished arrivals. Success to them we say.

GOT IN THE CARDS.—We have a large lot of fine paper on hand, and can print military blanks, court blanks, circulars, catalogues, &c., at the shortest notice, and at northern prices.

Also a large lot of cards on hand, which we can print at from $5 to $8 a thousand. Orders solicited at PROGRESS OFFICE.

PAINTING.—Ornamental and Frescoe Painting done by L. Lewis Fenone.

W. & W. R. R. COMPANY.—The election of General Superintendent of the Weldon and Wilmington Railroad will take place to-morrow. We hear a number of gentleman mentioned in connection with the position, so that the Board of Directors will have only one difficulty—that of discriminating between so many worthy and competent applicants.

FIRST MULLETS.—Yesterday for the first time this season, we saw in market a lot of fish from the seaside. They went off like hot cakes at tolerable fair prices and a gentleman who breakfasted on them assures us that at their delicate taste would make you live a week in a day.

This is [illegible] for the great Southern staple [illegible] enterprise in that quarter to a degree [illegible] anything heretofore known. It may be hoped that white men will be awakened to a perception of the splendid opportunity [illegible] presented for retrieving their fortunes. The past year's crop, No one need be afraid that too much cotton will be planted next spring; and all may be assured of remunerative prices. The crop of the present year is nothing, and will at reduce prices—New crop, of best half crop, measured by the standard of that of 1859, as reported in the Census, ought to be made and even then the price would remain at [illegible] formerly received. No [illegible] world, therefore, have so fine a field for agricultural investment as those of the South. When they received but ten cents per pound for cotton they were growing rich faster than the tillers of the soil [illegible] of the world ever did, and now they can realize forty cents for the growing crop, and [illegible] twenty five cents for that to be planted next spring.

There is but one obstacle in the way of a speedy restoration of the South, wealth and prosperity, and that is the difficulty which will confront the Government of the United States, in its efforts to insist [illegible] the establishment of peace and order. Let the [illegible] to their newly-plighted vows, and act [illegible] with justice and kindness toward the [illegible] long-cherished lacks, and in each another year will [illegible] a region of [illegible] and happy [illegible] country but this enjoy. But [illegible] conditions. They must [illegible] that if they persist in the practice of cruelty and injustice to the slaves, the latter will persist in their aversion to labor on the plantations.

No doubt most parts are to blame for the disorganized [illegible] but the superior race, with its [illegible] cannot escape the [illegible] responsibility. Whatever great disorders [illegible] in nine times out of ten the fault is [illegible] acknowledging the freedom [illegible] wages. There are cases, however, where the negroes have been stimulated to take [illegible] and perhaps, to [illegible] who assume to [illegible] But these instances are rare, and we believe, that the provocation arises from the [illegible] temper of the masters, who resent as a [illegible] affront, the presence of their late slaves now made free by the General Government. To make [illegible] this feeling, or make up their minds to [illegible] the remainder of their days amid scenes of anarchy, violence, and poverty.

THE TEETH OFTEN DIE—long before the system loses its youthful vigor—this should not be so. To prevent this species of necrosis use Fragrant SOZODONT. It keeps the dental bone alive, the enamel spotless, the gum rosy and elastic, the breath pure and the mouth clean.
