STOP THE THIEF!
FORTY DOLLARS REWARD.

STOLEN from the Subscriber living at the house formerly occupied by Joseph Hussey, on the main road leading from Salem to Salisbury in Rowan county, N. C. a likely sorrel Mare well made 10 or 11 years old, about fifteen hands high and somewhat dished, some saddle marks and hind foot white, nick'd and carries her tail well, and I believe is with foal, her gate a natural pacer, only on rough road or up hill, will sometimes strike a trot, also a saddle and blanket taken at the same time.

The Thief is unknown. There was a tall strange man seen with a dark coloured coat and white hat on, at dark about the time made off the same night that the mare was taken, that enquired the way to my house, but he never came as any person saw, nor did he stay at any house in the neighbourhood that night. I am apprehensive that he was the ... days ago before, and made his escape, for stealing a horse in Georgia. A man by the name of Thomas Harris past by my house the Sunday before the Mare was taken and saw her, who positively answers the description of the person described by Mr. Hammond. And I have understood a man by the same name a day or two before the Mare was taken bought a bridle at a store and told the merchant that he was going to buy a fine Mare that he had seen a few miles from there. Any person that will apprehend the thief and Mare and secure them, so I get them shall receive the above reward, or twenty dollars for the Mare only.

CONGRESS.

IN THE SENATE.

NOVEMBER 26.

The President communicated a letter from the Secretary of War, transmitting, in conformity to a resolution of the Senate, of March 17th, 1818, a report shewing the organization and strength of the militia of the several states and territories, as far as returns have been made, together with such militia laws as have been received at that department; which letter and report were read and referred to the committee on military affairs.

Mr. BURRELL laid on the table a resolution requesting the President of the United States to communicate to the Senate copies of the several documents referred to in his message to Congress at the commencement of the present session.

The joint resolution, to request the President to take measures to obtain permission of the Honorable Bushrod Washington, for Congress to cause a suitable monument to be erected over the remains of his illustrious relative, the late General George Washington where they now lie, also to authorise him to give the sum of dollars for the best plan of a monument for the purpose aforesaid, to be decided on by the President, the Chief Justice, the Secretaries of the different Departments, and the Attorney General; and appropriating dollars for the expences thereof, was read a second time.

Mr. MACON submitted the following resolution for consideration:

Resolved, That the committee on naval affairs be instructed to inquire into the expediency of authorizing the President of the United States to cause a survey to be made of the shoals of Cape Hatteras, Cape Look-Out, and the Frying Pans, and to have such an examination made of them respectively as will ascertain the practicability of erecting a light house, light beacon, or buoy, on or near the extreme points of them, or either of them; and that the committee report thereon by bill or otherwise.

The bill to increase the compensation of certain officers of government [the Secretaries of the Departments, the Attorney General, and Post master General] was taken up for consideration.

After some debate the bill was ordered to be engrossed (in blank) for a third reading.

DECEMBER 3.

The President communicated a Report of the Secretary of the Treasury, made in obedience to a resolution of the Senate of the 16th of April last, in relation to the Officers of the Customs which it may be proper to suppress

The following Message was received from the President of the United States, by J. J. Monroe, his Secretary:

To the Senate of the United States.

I transmit to the Senate copies of such of the documents referred to in the Message of the 17th ultimo, as have been prepared since that period. They contain a copy of the Reports of Mr. Rodney and Mr. Graham, two of the Commissioners to South America, who returned first from the mission, and of the papers connected with those reports. They also present a full
