Fashion Hotel.

MRS BETTS [illegible] respectfully informs the public that she will continue to keep a House of Entertainment at the FASHION HOTEL, Newbern Court-house. A young man of integrity has been engaged to attend the BAR, which will be furnished with the best of liquors. The country favors for the sale. Provender [illegible] will be made to accommodate customers, as she intends to keep a good establishment.

Raleigh, Sept. 15, 1819. 37-tf

Entertainment.

MRS Armstrong at her long established Hotel, adjoining the two story brick house on Fayetteville street, opposite the State-House, begs leave to inform her friends and the public generally, that she is well prepared to accommodate a boat party, or thirty-five members of the approaching Assembly. She takes this opportunity to inform them that those who may call on her, every attention shall be paid them as she will be on parole spared to render her establishment agreeable. Her terms are reasonable, she has procured the best cooks in the city, for their reception. Her table, bar and stables are supplied with the best the market affords, and that plentiful.

Transient people will be accommodated as usual, as there is an excellent stable on the lot well furnished with corn, fodder and every thing necessary.

Raleigh, September 10 1819. 37-tf

TAKEN UP,

AND committed to the jail of Wake county, a negro man who sometimes calls himself by the name of Isaac Brown, at other times Bell. (He says he belongs to a runaway.) He is a black surly looking fellow, about five feet six inches high, some small scars on his face. Any person claiming said negro is hereby requested to come forward, prove property, pay charges and take said negro within the time prescribed by law.

One hundred dollars reward.

RANAWAY from the subscriber, on the 3d July 1819, two negroes, one man named Jacob, about thirty five years old, of yellow complexion, about five feet ten inches high, when spoken to answers very quick. When he runs away from me he carried with him one blue coat and pantaloons of common broad cloth, one pair of [illegible] spun, double [illegible] and one [illegible] but [illegible] pair of [illegible]. The woman named Dinah, about forty years old, little inclined to talk, of a very savage, thick lips, with a [illegible] look. When she left [illegible] she carried off two silk frocks, one of them [illegible] black, and another checked one bonnet of red or dark silk. Jacob is a very sensible [illegible] fellow and will try to pass as a free person of colour. I think it likely they have procured free passes, Jacob will likely pass by the name of John Bell, he can read—wife will pass by the name of Vilet Horn, as she has procured a pass from a woman by that name. I think it most likely they will make for the north. I will give the above reward to any person delivering them to me or securing them in any jail so that I get them again.

Raleigh, 21st. August 1819. 30—tf.

For Sale,

BETWEEN seven and eight hundred acres of land handsomely situated, within two miles of the University of North-Carolina, on Presswood and Lick Creeks. A good proportion of this land is excellent low grounds. The whole tract is well adapted to the culture of corn, wheat, tobacco or cotton. This tract of land could be divided for the accommodation of purchasers, as it contains two plantations, which are in good repair for farming, a dwelling house and all necessary out-houses, a cotton machine and whiskey distillery—As it is presumed the purchaser would wish to view the premises, those inclined to purchase are respectfully invited to call and see me. A great bargain may be had by an early application.

Land.

I have for sale a Plantation of 441 acres, about 8 miles N. W. form Warrenton. Without wishing to exaggerate, I may with truth say, that the situation is handsome, the soil good, the water excellent, and the neighbourhood as desirable as any in the county. On this Plantation, is a fine piece of Meadow ground, sufficient to support a 100 head of cattle, if properly attended to. You low landers, who wish to repair a shattered constitution, turn your attention this way. My reason for wishing to part from these enumerated blessings, is the prospect of being agreeably blessed some where else, but upon a larger number of acres. This is an excellent stand for a Physician. To say more I deem unnecessary, as I expect every person wishing to purchase will view the premises, and judge for himself. The price will be reasonable and accommodating.
