A Tempest in a Teapot.—Our Le-islature, on taking up the resoluns of the Legislature of Alabama, proving the course of the present ministration, and recommending drew Jackson for re-election, have played a portion of their mighty rath. They have knocked such a eeze as to produce a terrible bubng in the teapot. They declare t Andrew Jackson does not suit ir views; and recommend Henry ay as a candidate in his place. As ney and office is their grand aim,
ne of them, who have been remov-
from office by Andrew Jackson, ve a reason of their own for dising him. The recommendation Henry Clay, coming as it does m our great men at Dover, must ve a powerful effect upon the peoof the United States; but we rathsuspect it will not secure him as ny electoral votes as were given to
r. Adams.—Delaware Gazette.

An example worthy of imitation.
The New York American, comining of the irregularity in the ils, produced by the extraordiry season, mentions the failure
the National Gazette, to prove t the fault was in the head of the partment, and not in the state of roads. The Gazette, now de-edly in the opposition, with a rness and candor which puts to me the conduct of most of its asiates, attributes the failure to the angements of the printing office, tead of the post office; and takes

Sale of a Wife.—On the 16th of
v. a fellow from Marton, (Eng.)
posed an unruly rib for sale in the neck; the lady herself seeming hing loth to be thus exibited. She s put up for a shilling and two bids

An ingenious plan (says an En-

THE STAR.

RALEIGH, FEBRUARY 24, 1831.

President and Vice President of the U. States.—The correspondence between the President and Vice President of the United States, relative to the part which the latter took in the Cabinet during Mr. Monroe's Administration, on the subject of the Seminole war, which has given rise to so much speculation and misrepresentation for several weeks past, began at length made its appearance in pamphlet form, and been translated to the columns of the different journals at Washington. In the pamphlet it occupies 32 pages, and in the U. S. Telegraph 20 columns of small type. The pre-occupation of our columns by the speech of Mr. Bryson, which was in type before we received the correspondence, prevents our laying this interesting subject immediately before our readers. Its publication, however, shall be commenced as soon as the speech is disposed of, which will be next week.

It must be a source of deep regret to the friends of both these distinguished individuals that a controversy of the kind should have occurred; for, although entirely of a private nature, and unconnected with their official or political relation to each other, it will be seized upon by their political opponents as an instrument for dividing the party to which they are attached. In such an attempt, however, we flatter ourselves that they will be unsuccessful. We have too much confidence in the good sense of both Gen. Jackson and Mr. Calhoun, to apprehend that they will permit their personal differences to interfere with their official conduct towards each other; and their political friends should have more sagacity than to suffer their opponents to effect a division among them by a circumstance, which is purely of a personal nature, and such as may occur at any time between any other two individuals in the country.

State Bank of North Carolina.—It was the intention of Duncan Cameron, Esq. to have declined the Presidency of this institution at the annual meeting of the Stockholders in December last; but he was induced by the wishes of the Stockholders to continue in that station with a view to some particular interests of the Bank. These having been attended to, and being desirous to return to the management of his private affairs, he, in pursuance of an intimation to the Board made some weeks previously, resigned the office of President of the Bank on Tuesday last; when Peter Browne, Esq. of this city, was unanimously chosen by a full Board of Directors to that office.

We understand that the business of the Bank is progressing systematically with a view to the ultimate closing of its affairs, and in the mean time affording facilities to the public, by discounting notes at three instalments, and purchasing bills of exchange from merchants and planters.

The following occurrence, which has been related to us by a gentleman of undoubted veracity, deserves to be recorded as an evidence how much can be effected by presence of mind and intrepidity of action in difficult and dangerous situations: As the stage was crossing the Roanoke river at Edwards's ferry, a few weeks ago, a large mass of floating ice accumulated against, and bore down one side of the Flat, so as to admit the water freely. At this critical juncture the ferryman gave the alarm that they were sinking; when the Stage driver immediately plied the whip to the Horses, who plunged into the stream, and swam with the Stage in safety to the shore.

New Post Office.—A new Post Office has been established in Orange county, called Enoe; of which Nathaniel J. Palmer, Esq. is Postmaster.

A Post Office has also been recently established in Wake county, styled Rogers's Store. We have not learned who is Postmaster at this office.

Orange Election.—It will be recollected by most of our readers that the seat of James Barbour, (late Secretary of War,) who was returned from the county of Orange as a member of the House of Delegates of Virginia, was, at the commencement of the session, contested by Thomas Davis. On the 16th instant, the committee on Privileges and Elections, to whom the examination of the polls had been referred, reported unfavorably to the sitting member. Mr. Barbour then resigned his seat, and a resolution was adopted, declaring Mr. Davis duly entitled to the same.

Small Pox.—We learn from the Danville Statesman that this dreadful malady is raging in Grayson county, Virginia. One individual had fallen a victim to it, and 5 families were experiencing its ravages. This fatal disease is also spreading rapidly in may parts of South Carolina. The Rutherfordton Spectator publishes an extract of a letter from Spartanburg, S. C. dated the 3rd inst. which states that it had been brought into that district by two negroes belonging to a Kentucky hog drover, who caught it in the lower part of the State; that there were then more than fifty cases of it in Columbia; and that the whole lower country was literally infected with it. The Spectator expresses serious apprehensions of its reaching that part of this State, and recommends to all who have not heretofore been, to be inoculated with the vaccine virus or kine pox matter which is an infallible preventive against the small pox.

Honor to the Dead.— As a mark of respect to the memory of Capt. Arthur Sinclair, late of the United States' Navy, who died on the 7th instant, the Secretary of the Navy has issued a general order, requiring the officers of the Navy and Marine Corps to wore crape on the left arm for thirty days; and directing that the flags of the Navy Yards, Stations and vessels of the United States Navy, on the day after the receipt of the order, be hoisted half mast, and thirteen minute guns fired at noon.

We learn, says the United States Telegragh, that the Hon. Robert Monell, the author of the report of the minority of the committee on Manufactures, has been appointed Judge of the 6th judicial circuit of New York, and was unanimously confirmed by the Senate.

John Floyd has been unanimously re-elected by the Legislature, Governor of the State of Virginia for the ensuing year; and Peter V. Daniel, Wyndham Robertson and Guy R. Allen have been elected Executive Councillors, under the new Constitution of that State.

The Jews.—By a recent decree of the Emperor of Russia, it is stated that the Jews, who cannot pay their taxes, are obliged to become soldiers.

Rare Sight.—The following facts, says the United States' Telegraph, from the work of R. Hildreth, Esq. (in the Library of Congress,) being a view of the silk trade, and the measures of the British Government relative thereto, will show the immense value of this article of commerce. During the term of seven years, from 1821 to 1828, there were imported into Great Britain, 24,157,516 pounds of raw silk, which, at $2 the pound, cost $193,787,581. It also appears from the same work, that during the like number of years, there was imported of this article from Italy alone, to the value of $19,281,255.

Stage Robbery.—A letter to the Editor of the Roanoke Advocate, states that on the night of the 1st instant, about twelve miles south of Winton, in Hertford county, the stage was robbed of two trunks; one of which contained a number of valuable papers, and some wearing apparel, and the other nothing but clothes. With them was stolen a box of surgical instruments. A trunk was stolen on the same route about six weeks ago.

Reform in Great Britain.—The London Times, supposed by the United States' Telegraph to express the feelings of the British nation with as much fidelity as any other print in the country, gives the following enumeration of subjects, to which the attention of the new administration should be directed, viz. 1, Retrenchment of Expenditures; 2, Parliamentary Reform; 3, Reform in the Law Proceedings; 4, Revision of the Poor Laws; 5, Abolition of the Game Laws; 6, Total Repeal of the Corn Laws; 7, A better distribution of the taxes, and entire release from some of them; and 8, An overthrow of all vile Monopolies, which enable individuals, or knots of men to rob the community, in a manner at once insulting to the rights of commerce, and ruinous to its solid interests.

INVITATION TO THE PRESIDENT.

At a public meeting, held at the court house in the city of Raleigh on the evening of the 21st instant; when, on motion, the meeting was organized by appointing R. M. Saunders, Esq. Chairman, and John Bell, Secretary.

The object of the meeting being briefly stated by the chair, on motion a committee was appointed, consisting of Messrs. A. J. Lawrence, Charles L. Hinton and Wm. H. Haywood, to report suitable resolutions for the occasion. Whereupon the committee, after retiring for a moment, made the following report, which, being read, was unanimously adopted:

Whereas it is understood that the President of the United States has it in contemplation to visit the State of South Carolina, during the present year, and the citizens of Raleigh and its vicinity are desirous of an opportunity to manifest to him their high respect for his personal character and admiration of his patriotism and public services. Therefore,

Resolved, That a committee of seven persons shall be appointed by the chairman of this meeting, who shall, on behalf of our citizens, address a letter to President JACKSON, inviting him to visit us on his journey, and tendering to him the hospitalities of our city and neighborhood.

Henry M. Miller, Esq. then offered the following resolution, which was also unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That public notice be given, that a meeting of the friends of President JACKSON will be held in the city of Raleigh, on Monday of our next Superior Court, at 2 o'clock, P. M. for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the general policy and leading measures of his administration, and such other matters relative thereto as shall be deemed advisable.

The meeting then adjourned, subject to the call of the Chair.

R. M. SAUNDERS, Chairman.
JOHN BELL, Secretary.

Silver & Copper Change.—At a meeting of the merchants and other citizens of Raleigh, held at the Court-house on the 19th inst. to take into consideration the expediency of procuring for circulation a supply of Silver and Copper Change, the Intendant of Police being called to the Chair, and Alfred Williams appointed Secretary, the following Preamble and Resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, The merchants and other inhabitants of the City of Raleigh, in common with the citizens of the State generally, have for years past suffered great inconvenience for want of a sufficiency of Silver and Copper Change; and the Treasury Notes of this State and of South-Carolina and Georgia, hitherto principally used for change, having become ragged and much defaced:

Resolved, That a Subscription be opened for raising a Fund for the purpose of procuring a sufficient quantity of Silver Change and Copper Cents, to supply the place of said Treasury Notes, and furnish sufficient change for the use of the City and Neighborhood.

Resolved, That a Committee be appointed to receive said Subscriptions, and to take proper measures for obtaining, as soon as practicable, a sufficient supply from the Mint of the United States of Silver Change and Copper Cents.—And that Hazlett Kyle, Charles Dewey, B. A. Barham, Geo. Simpson, W. C. Tucker, and Weston R. Gales, form said Committee.

Resolved, That the inhabitants of Raleigh will continue to receive the Treasury Notes of the State, but will not pay them away after the 1st of June next, so that their place may, by degrees, be supplied by Silver and Copper change.

Published by order of the meeting.

J. GALES, Intendant, Ch.
ALFRED WILLIAMS, Clerk.

Mr. Randolph.—We extract the following notice of Mr. Randolph from the Richmond Enquirer:

"We understand, that a letter has been just received from London, stating that Mr. Randolph's health was improved—and that he should return to St. Petersburg in the Spring.—We also understand, a letter has been received from the county of Charlotte stating that a particular friend of Mr. Randolph was at the last Court of that County, and remarked to the writer, that he had received a short time since a letter from Mr. R. desiring him to announce him (Mr. R.) as a candidate for Congress—that it would not be in his power to attend the elections in the Spring—but that he would return to the United States, in time to take his place in Congress, in case of his election.—There can, indeed, be no doubt of the fact—as another letter has been received in this city from the friend of Mr. R. who states his public announciation, at the last Charlotte Court, of Mr. R's being a candidate for Congress.

"We shall see in the events of his election, whether Mr. Tristam Burges will beard the lion in his face—instead of attacking him behind his back—Mr. B. has contrived to run up a pretty considerable account with Mr. R. which, we guess, may be paid up to him in due season with pretty usurious interest.

"We cannot ascertain from the course of the Debate, whether the bill provides for the outfit—Even if it does, there exists much doubt about Mr. R's absolute acceptance of it."

Dreadful Catastrophe.—A correspondent in Buncombe county, informs us of the sad and untimely death of Mr. Alfred Ooton, who was found frozen to death on the 24th ult. near Ivy post office; he was lying near the boat landing opposite his house, on French Broad River, with a jug of brandy by his side. It is presumed that he was so much intoxicated when he reached the landing, as to render him incapable to cross or retrace his steps, and consequently sat down a victim to intemperance, and met his fate. He was about 27 or 8 years of age, and has left a wife and three children.

In the same neighborhood, on Sunday the 29th ult. Allen Edwards was found lying in the deep snow, dead, in the road. He was tracked about one hundred yards from the place, where were found his gun and a jug of brandy—of course intemperance was his end. He has left a disconsolate widow and four small children.

We are also informed from the same source, that a man and woman were found frozen to death on the Cumberland mountain. The snow is represented to have been three or four feet deep on the mountains in Buncombe.—Rutherfordton Spectator.

Fatal Accident.—We are informed, that about two weeks since, while Mr. David Foster, who resided on Packolet, in this county, was engaged in felling a tree a dead limb fell, which struck him on the head. He walked two or three hundred yards to his house, but survived only a few hours.—Rutherfordton Spectator.

Most distressing occurrence.—About a month since, Mr. Abraham Riddick, of Nansemond County, Va. with his wife and child, were returning from Mr. Riddick's father's, after spending the sabbath, and in attempting to cross a Bridge a short distance from home the sleeper gave way; the driver being quite a small boy and unable to check the horses, they were plunged together with the carriage and persons into the stream below, which in consequence of the enormous quantity of rain was very rapid.—They sustained no injury from the fall, nor did the carriage immediately fill with water; the mother was several times heard to say "save the child," but before they could extricate themselves from that miserable situation the carriage filled. Mr. Riddick made his escape by forcing through the window, which was shut, and with great difficulty gained the shore; discovering his child, but 3 months old, floating down the stream, he proceeded to and saved it, but the mother having no assistance, remained in the carriage some 20 or 30 minutes, till assistance was obtained, when alas! her spirit had fled. All the assistance that could be given she had, but no effort would answer. She has left an affectionate husband and fond father and mother, with a large circle of friends and acquaintance to lament her untimely death.
Norfolk Beacon.

Mint of the United States.—From the annual report of the Director of the Mint, made to the President, under date of 1st January, it appears that the coinage effected during the year 1830, amounts to $3,155,620, comprising $645,105 in gold coins, $2,495,400 in silver, $17,115 in copper, and consisting of 8,351,191 pieces of coin, viz.

Half Eagles,	136,351 making	$631,755
Quarter Eagles,	4,540	11,350
Half Dollars,	4,764,800	2,382,400
Dimes,	510,000	51,000
Half Dimes,	1,240,000	62,000
Cents,	1,711,500	17,115
	8,385,191	$3,155,620

Of the amount of gold coined within the last year, about $125,000 were derived from Mexico, South America, and the West Indies; $19,000 from Africa, $466,000 from the gold region of the United States, and about $33,000 from sources not ascertained.

Of the gold of the United States above mentioned, $24,000 may be stated to have been received from Virginia, 204,000 dollars from North Carolina, 26,000 dollars from South Carolina, and 212,000 dollars from Georgia.

"In the last annual report, the progressive developement of the gold region of the United States was illustrated, by referring to the increase of the annual receipts from North Carolina, which, previously to 1824, had been inconsiderable; but from that year to 1829, inclusive, had advanced from 5,000 to 128,000 dollars; and also, to the then novel occurrence of gold having been received at the mint from Virginia and South Carolina, about 2,500 dollars having been received from the former, and 3,500 dollars from the latter. The past year exhibits, in relation to all those States, a conspicuous increase in the production of gold; and presents, also, the remarkable fact of 212,000 dollars in gold received from Georgia, from which State no specimen thereof had been presented at the mint in any previous year.

"The coinage above exhibited, exceeds the amount of any former year. The demand remains, nevertheless, unabated, and the mass of bullion now in the vaults of the mint is large beyond any previous example."

Confirmation and Consolation.—The following paragraph, whilst it confirms the news of the destruction of the interior of Fort Delaware, consoles us with the information that this disaster was not attended with any loss of lives.

Wilmington, (Del.) February 10.

Destruction of Fort Delaware.—On Tuesday night last Fort Delaware, situated on the Pea Patch, was destroyed by fire. Nothing now remains but the bare walls. Maj. Pierce's quarters, which stands within the walls, was saved with much difficulty. We understand the fire originated in the quarters of the Engineer, but how it happened we are unable to say positively; but have heard it was caused by a stove pipe which projected through the roof. We are happy to say, no lives were lost.

A number of kegs of powder exploded, the report attending which was heard distinctly at this place, and as high up the river as Chester, and gave reason to fear that the Magazine had blown up.—Del. Adv.

Temperature of the Earth.—It is stated that the evidence is accumulating in favor of the theory that the temperature of the earth increases as we descend below its surface. In some places, by means of natural and artificial excavations, the earth has been penetrated to the depth of 1600 feet. The result of the observations made in the different excavations in different parts of the globe is, that there is "an increase of heat amounting to about 1° of Fahrenheit for every 46 feet in depth; that at the depth of 10,000 feet the heat would be sufficient to boil water, and that at the depth of about 100 miles, or one-fortieth part of the distance to the centre, the heat would be intense enough to melt most of the earths and stones that are known to enter into the composition of the globe."

This theory, says the American Almanac, if established, is calculated to have an important bearing on the explanation of the phenomena of earthquakes and volcanoes, and opens a wide field for the speculations of the natural historian and geologist.

FOR THE STAR.

Messrs. Lawrence & Lemay,—You may confer a slight benefit on science by inserting the following arithmetical question in your useful journal, with a request that some of your numerous readers will give it a plain solution as it is susceptible of. I assure you and the public that I have no intention to quiz them by propounding a question apparently so simple and easy, to be answered; but it is asked in real honest simplicity, and from an inability either to answer it myself, or to obtain an answer from any of my brethren to whom I have applied for aide. A man borrowed $100, and when he returned the loan with compound interest, he discovered that the compound interest was equal to the principal. Now, as the rate per cent. was equal to the number of years the principal was forborne, I demand the time and rate per cent. PEDAGOGUS.

Scene—An open grove near the commons.

Ha! what do I see! Whose lengthened and giant shadow thus falls athwart the withered grass? But lo! he approaches: What gloomy portents lower on his brow? All the dreadful passions of the human kind seem concentrated in and displayed in the distorted muscles of his writhed and mercy lacking countenance. Again—he points his wand! O! ill betide the victim of his wrath. Dread thunder and clouds roll upon the gale. Look again—a robin falls! the music of the groves is gone. (The curtain drops.)

Valuable Land and Negroes FOR SALE.

On Tuesday, the 15th day of March next, we, the undersigned John Arrington, under a deed of trust executed by Joseph Arrington, (sheriff,) & the undersigned Sam'l W. W. Vick, under sundry executions against said Joseph Arrington, will at his residence, two miles northeast of Stony Cross Roads, in Nash county, expose to public sale several valuable tracts of land, viz. One containing two thousand acres, on both sides of Fishing creek, being the land on which said Arrington lives, which has on it a good dwelling house and other necessary out houses, and is well adapted to the culture of corn, cotton, wheat and tobacco, with an orchard, capable of making fifty or sixty barrels of brandy; also another tract, containing four hundred acres, a few miles from the above; also another tract, of three hundred and forty four acres, three miles north of Nashville; also one other tract, on the south side of Tar river, containing one hundred and seventy acres, and between thirty and forty valuable slaves of both sexes. Also a large stock of horses, hogs, cattle and sheep, corn and fodder, together with household and kitchen furniture.

The terms of sale are cash, and to continue from day to day until all is sold.

STAGES FROM WARRENTON TO DANVILLE.

This Stage will leave Warrenton every Tuesday and Saturday at 3 o'clock P. M. arrive at Oxford same days: Leave Oxford every Wednesday and Sunday at 4 o'clock A. M. and arrive at Danville at 9 A. M. same days. Leave Danville every Monday and Thursday at 3 o'clock A. M. and arrive at Milton at 8 A. M. and at Oxford same days; leave Oxford at 4 o'clock A. M. every Tuesday and Saturday and arrive at Warrenton in time for passengers to take the stage north to Petersburg.

This route combines more advantages and facilities than most routes in the southern country; and for comfort and convenience it is not surpassed. Persons travelling to Petersburg, Richmond, or any place to the north, can enter the stage at Danville either Monday or Tuesday at 5 A. M. arrive at Milton at 8 o'clock, and at Warrenton next days in time for the stage going northward, and arrive at Petersburg Wednesday and Saturday by 3 o'clock P. M. Thus performing the route of 177 Miles in three days. Price of Fare thru' $10 00, and arrive in New-York in six days from Danville or Milton. Persons travelling south can leave Petersburg every Monday and Thursday and arrive in Warrenton next days in time to take the stage to Milton or Danville.

This line intersects at Warrenton the Main daily line running North or South. It also meets the Norfolk line via Murfreesborough and Halifax N. C. Persons travelling north who do not wish to go thro' Petersburg, can go in the line to Norfolk, and there meet the Steam Boats, direct to Washington City, Baltimore &c. This line also meets at Oxford a stage from Raleigh. At Milton it also intersects the stage line from Fredericksburg Va. to Powelton, Georgia: And at Danville meets with a line of stages from Lynchburg Va. and another from Salem, N. C. Once a week which extends via Morganton, Brindletown, Greenville &c. to the south.

The Proprietor pledges himself to keep comfortable Coaches, first rate teams, sober and steady drivers; and by these means hopes to obtain a share of patronage.

Passage from Warrenton to Danville $5 00. All Baggage and Parcels at the risk of the owners.
