TELEPHONE No. 168

FRIDAY ..... June 11

There has been a lot of fun poked at the new dog-muzzling law in England, and a lot of denunciation of it, says the New York Tribune. But here are some figures: In 1889 a a muzzling order was made and kept in force until 1893. In 1889 there were 312 cases of rabies, in 1890 there were 129 and in 1892 only 38. The order was then revoked and in 1893 there were 82 cases, in 1894 there were 248 and and 95 there were 671.

Prof. Dussaud, of the University of Geneva, has invented an apparatus to enable the deaf to hear. The micro phonograph magnifies the human voice in the same way that a lens magnifies. It is simply a telephone connected electrically with a phonograph, but a far more sensitive phonograph than Edison's ordinary model. A battery of from one to sixty calls is used, according to the degree of deafness. The apparatus is useless in cases of absolute deafness, but such an infirmity is far rarer than is suspected; about 95 per cent of so-called stone deaf persons can be made to hear and understand by Dussaud's invention.

One of the best informed men in the state is Mr. Pulaski Cowper of this city, and his knowledge of public affairs dates back to Gov. Bragg's day. He was naturally very intimate with Gov. Braxton Bragg, the Governor's brother. He says that, during the war, Gen. Bragg told him that while he was on his way South, in the early spring of 1861, after he had resigned from the army, he met U. S. Grant and that when he told the latter that he had resigned and intended to offer his services to his state, Grant said: "You are right, and in three weeks I will be with you on your side of the line." The following Saturday, at Cairo, Ill., a regiment was raised for the federal service and Grant was made its colonel.

Edison thinks that there will soon be a horseless carriage on the market, combining the lightness and trimness of the bicycle and costing not more than $100, says the New York Tribune. There are no insurmountable difficulties in the way. The thing is feasible enough, and an army of inventors is at work upon it. When it comes the bicycler will have the choice of working his own passage or having it worked for him. Some of them pretend to like the former, but with the alternative in reach the chances are that they will develop an indolent and luxurious preference for the latter. The vehicle is certainly on the way, various in type and function, and Mr Edison's declaration that it will speedily arrive is the more significant from the fact that he ought to know what he is talking about.

Men who are predisposed to be bald will not be able to take much consolation from the discovery by M. Sabourdraud of a microbe, which he terms "the bacillus of seborrhea, found in rounded masses in the upper third of the hair follicle." He asserts, says the New York Tribune, that this bacillus affects the "sebaceous glands of the scalp, where it produces debilitation, or baldness;" in other words the affected follicle dies. He adds that scales and crusts that are formed on the "sebarrheal head are due to the superposition of other microbes, but here they do not, as a rule, cause ache." There is a little grain of comfort in this fact. The mechanism by which the bacillus causes baldness, he admits, is not understood, but, "anatomically, it leads to progressive hypertrophy of the sebaceous glands and an exudation of leucocytes around the papilla of the hair." It is suggested that, although there has been a great deal of mystery as to the cause of baldness, it is something to know that the actual destruction of the hair is due to bacillus, and even if the prime cause of its development cannot be stopped, perchance much of the mischief may be prevented.

Was Soon Feeling Better.

"For three years I was troubled with my heart and liver. I was run down in health and could hardly walk, I was so weak. I tried many medicines and finally bough a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was soon feeling better, and after taking a few more bottles I was strong and able to work."

W S Harris, Cloverdale, Va.

Hood's Pills are the best cathartic. Easy to take, gentle mild. 25 cents.

Boils, pimples and eruptions, scrofula, salt rheum and all other manifestations of impure blood are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Strong

Nerves just as surely come from the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla as does the cure of scrofula, salt rheum, or other so-called blood diseases. This is simply because the blood affects the condition of all the bones, muscles and tissues. If it is impure it cannot properly sustain these parts. If made pure, rich, red and vitalized by Hood's Sarsaparilla, it carries health instead of disease, and repairs the worn, nervous system as nothing else can do. Thus nervous prostration, hysteria, neuralgia, heart palpitation, are cured by

Nerves

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Because it is the One True Blood Purifier.

Hood's Pills are the best after-dinner pills, and digestion. 25c.
