RALEIGH, N. C., DECEMBER 18, 1897.

ABOUT PEOPLE YOU KNOW.

Don't forget B. W. Upchurch's ad in this issue.

Mr. Dock Haywood favors us with a renewal this week.

Mr. John Reinshaw favored us with a cash renewal this week.

Remember that Watson's is the place to buy your holiday goods.

Mr. W. G. Otey, who has been quite ill, is reported some better.

Groceries at rock bottom prices at Anderson's. See his ad in this issue.

Mr. S. J. Webb, the expert brick-layer of the city, is still at his post leading all others a gale.

Miss Claudia A. Hinton opened school in St. Mary's Township on Nov. 29th. She has a large school.

Mr. A. D. Foushee is now teaching school at New Hill, N. C., and has a large and interesting school.

Miss Claudie Hinton, one of Wake's most successful teachers, sent us the cash for her renewal this week.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mr. H. J. Jones to Miss Rena McCullers, Tuesday, Dec. 21, 1897.

Dr. J. E. Dellinger spent a day in the city this week en route to the Masonic Grand Lodge at Wilson, N. C.

Register of Deeds J. J. Rogers and County Treasurer H. H. Knight were among our cash renewals last week.

Mr James A. Watkins and Mr. Isham Hayes, of Noush, were in the city Saturday of last week and gave us a call.

Rev. J. W. Levy passed through the city Monday en route to Wilson to attend the Grand Lodge of Masons this week.

Mr. D. F. Williams, who has for some time been a resident of Apex, N. C., has moved to Rocky Mount, where he will reside in the future.

Mr. C. C. Stewart, of South Street, has been confined to his room for several days, but we are glad to know that he is again out upon the streets.

Hon. J. M. Watson, of Henderson, N. C., who has been attending Federal Court as juror, returned home Monday of this week. He favored us with a renewal before his departure.

Don't invest your hard earned money in holiday goods and Christmas presents until you have visited Fred. A. Watson's Picture and Art Store. You get prices there that will surprise you.

Mr. Thos. Donaldson, one of Raleigh's experienced butchers, favored us with a renewal this week. Mr Donaldson is a highly respected gentleman, and a man of great business capacity.

Editor Young has received many urgent invitations to speak at different places on the first day of January, but as he is President of the Day for the Celebration in Raleigh, he has had to decline them all.

Prof. S. R. Randolph will be married on the 21st of this month to Miss Martha A., neice of Rev. and Mrs. H. S. Jones, at their residence at Washington, N. C. Thanks for an invitation. We extend our hearty congratulations.

Dr. J. E. Dellinger stopped over in our city on his way to the Grand Lodge of Masons It is always a pleasure to people of Raleigh to shake the Doctor's hand and welcome him back to the home of his youthful days.

Dr. R. G. Seymour, Bible and Missionery Secretery of the American Baptist Publication Society, spent a day in our city last week. He gave THE GAZETTE office a pleasant call. We were glad to meet him, and invite him to visit our State again whenever it suits his convenience.

Rev. H. P. Walker returned to Tarboro last Saturday after a week's visit to his family here. He will prepare to move his family by the first of January. The many friends here which Rev. and Mrs. Walker have made during the two years they have lived in Raleigh will learn with regret that they are to leave our city.

Hon. H. P. Cheatham, Recorder of Deeds for the District of Columbia, has written a letter to President Young accepting the invitation to speak at the Emancipation Celebration in Raleigh on the first day of January. Let there be a great outpouring of our citizens to hear this distinguished gentleman and eloquent orator.

We can not express our joy too freely for the following list of new subscriptions and renewals: Mr. B. F. Montague, one of Raleigh's most enterprising citizens, Capt. Peter C. Cobb, who has ever stood by us, in and out of season, Walter Harris, one of the leading business men of our city, and of the firm of Hamlin & Co., R. A. Cousin and R. Day, who are both enterprising farmers of the thriving and hospitable little town of Alensville, N. C., Reuben McFarland and J. A. Buffalo.

Prof. M. L. Latta is not only to be praised for untiring effort for the advancement of the negro race, but for his vim, push and stickability. This is one time we can truly say that the right man is in the right place. He could not have selected a better corps of teachers, who could reflect credit not only upon the vicinity in which the school is situated, but upon the State at large. We surely commend him for his great work, and only say to him and his able corps of teachers, go on until you too shall have crossed the Rubicon.

Their Second Anniversary.

Monday evening, December 13th, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. McNiell celebrated the second anniversary of their marriage, which fell on the 5th of December. The occasion was celebrated at their beautiful home in Fayetteville. We tender Mr. and Mrs. McNiell our best wishes, and hope they may live to celebrate many more.

Emancipation Celebration at Fayetteville.

The citizens of Fayetteville and county of Cumberland are preparing to celebrate the 35th Anniversary of the Emancipation Proclamation, Monday, January 3, 1898, in patriotic style. They have arranged the following programme for the occasion: Orator of the day, Mr. Arthur Carlton; Chaplain, Rev. J. D Lyles; Prayer, Miss Nannie Picket; Reader of Proclamation, Rev. L. E Fairley; Chief Marshal, Charles H Smith; Musical Director, Mrs. L E Fairley; Master of Ceremonies, Hon. C D. Waddell; paper on the life of Hon. John M. Langston, Prof. Howard Evans; paper on the life of Charles Sumner, Prof. Henry M. Williams.

F. P. WILLISTON, Chairman.

WILLIAM H. JONES, Secretary.

Eastern Snap Shots.

Booker T. Washington, of Tuskegee, is truly fortifying himself not only before the educational world, but the agricultural world as well. Imagine, my readers, a young negro giant bringing 5,000 people of all classes together to do honor to Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, Dr. J. L. M. Curry and Governor Johnston of Alabama. The Southern negro who starts out on the new line of industrial development as planned by Washington will be scaling the heights of merited success. Less politics and the goal will be reached.

Pander to ignorance if you will and failure awaits you. Beware office-seeker! we may busy ourselves in hoping for continued dependence of negro while the white man is trying to be independent.

Bethel Literary will never doubt in future the ability of the North Carolina negro to sustain himself in the forum of debate. "White" rugged and pugnacious is one of the many strong men in this State. Messrs. Atkins, Hawkins, Bruce, J. O. Crosby, Faduma Norman and Pegues could make the arches ring with their superb eloquence and logical reasoning. Carolina has a reserve force.

Harget and Young deserve the postmastership. They are loyal.

B. W. Thorp, Esq., don't know which to take in 1898. Edgecombe-like, you know.

Hon. H. P. Cheatham is an adept at politics as we observe developments for 1900.

P. M. Hargett paid our city a visit last week. He is ambitious that the Rocky Mount office shall lead the district.

Mr. J. R. Barlow has returned to the "Boro" from Vance.

Rev. H. P. Walker has returned from Raleigh. Mrs. Walker will spend 1898 in the "Boro" D. V.

Mr. E. L. Cherry returned via Southern from Washington City. He was all smiles when he greeted the "Jr."; his many friends are pleased to greet the Federal office holder.

The best thing, "though," said in a joke to us by an office holder, was this: "Some men must write and some speak for the success of a candidate from patriotic motives but the shut mouth is the truly successful." 'Tis true patriotism is a great virtue. Ah! so few possess it.

Prof. Samuel H. Vick is at present the most popular young man in this section. We don't think molasses will catch him, as he is not a political fly.

The irrepressible Geo. Lloyd, Esq., is to dress up for 1898 after Xmas.

Be sure to profit by the mistakes of others—Religious, educational and political.

John H Collins, Esq., of Halifax Co., ex Solicitor of Second Judicial District, desires his friends to know that he is the winning candidate for the nomination and election to succeed Solicitor Daniel. Lawyer Fitts, of Warren, must hustle now.

A perfect victory in answering the Drummer's(?) was achieved by Roscoe Conkling Boyd. A Drummer who felt his smartness asked, "What's a farmer, Roscoe?" Answer: "A tract of land surrounded by a mortgage or mortgages." The Drummer left.

"The True Friends," a benevolent society of this place, has performed some excellent work for Christ in ministering to His poor; and 'tis true that such a society must succeed when their work is put in the direction of alleviating the afflictions of others. "True Friends" and "Humble Workers Circle of Kings Daughters" are letting their deeds tell what they are.

Bruce Grit is doing some plain talking now-a-days. Well! Sensible folks, change front. We personally remember when he was an Independent. We admire his writings, but 'tis well for some to know there is a consideration in the writings of Bruce Grit.

Mrs. James B. Dudley has been connected with the educational work of the city of Wilmington for more than twenty years. She has tendered her resignation as a teacher, holding as she did the principalship of the Peabody. A loss to the profession. Energy, with tact and ability, was her guide.

President McKinley is in favor of annexing Hawaii, but opposed to Cuba's freedom from treacherous Spain. Peace is his desire.

Political hypocrisy will sooner or later meet its death despite the vaporings of this negro-hating and pretended anti-Democratic press. Right must and will win. They say the people will be open to impending danger.

Gossippers will note the fact that we are bound to no man, or party, but will support honest, truthful men of integrity.

We shall reserve ourselves for the fray of 1898, should we be on this side of the river We urge men to be men, not like dumb driven cattle. Self-interest is the New Idea, as we see it.

There is some wholesale robbery of the people going on at the expense of the N. P. A. A fellow went out to a club and demanded an amount, which was refused, so he cried it out, and got it too. Another made a second haul last week but failed. 'Twasn't Senator either.

ESSE QUAM VIDERI.

KINSTON, N. C., Nov. 26, 1897.

Please allow me space in your paper to vindicate my friends in reference to an article that appeared in the Caucasian last week. The article was written by a wolf in sheep's clothes, and signed by Lewis Grady. The article stated that the leading Democrats had signed and circulated petitions for me, desiring my appointment for postmaster of Kinston. I am unable to think of language strong enough to condemn and denounce the lie. I have no Democrats of either race on my petition. My petition is endorsed by the Republican patrons of the Kinston office and voters of Lenoir county, regardless to color. If any Democrats signed my petition they signed it in the possession of Gen. Gary, Washington, D. C. I had no one circulating my petition, Democrat or Republican. I received the endorsements myself. In October a friend of mine told me Lewis Grady was trying to prefer charges against me. I immediately got up a certificate of character, had it endorsed by twenty-five leading citizens, regardless of color or party—thirteen Republicans, eleven Democrats—and the Clerk of the Superior Court of the county, with his official seal. This certificate was headed by the sheriff and closed by the county treasurer, both Republicans.

Lewis Grady has been led to believe that on account of two factions in the Republican party a third man will have a showing. For two and a half months he has been beseeching me to recommend and use my influence with Congressman White in his behalf. I, knowing he voted against McKinley, did not vote for White, and had denounced every Populist, calling them disreputable cut throats, who supported Senator Pritchard for United States Senator, thought him a cheeky animal with long ears. He has desired more than once to have an interview with Congressman White through me. I have never made it convenient for him. I have and will continue to use my influence against him politically. His door-neighbor, C. F. Dunn, endorses my certificate. I refused him because I thought he wanted a claim on me. I was born and raised in Kinston. I have never been out of the town, county or State 60 days at once in my life. I have been considered a reputable Republican all my life before I made application for the postoffice. I am considered by Hon. Lewis Grady and some of the bosses in the Republican party a disreputable negro. I was not known as a negro until after November 3d, 1896. I am a negro by race and a Republican from principle. Hon. Grady boasts of being a white man and for white supremacy. Who is his associate every Sunday? I have been embarrassed at him forcing himself on colored company. I have seen him eating and drinking with negroes, and at a negro's house, as late as 1897. I associate with those I am identified with, unless on business.

I can say more, but will not unless I am forced. I am in the post-office race because I helped win the battle in 1896.

Yours truly,

J. C. HARGETT.

Death of Miss Susie L Allen.

NOVEMBER 15th, 1897.

The town of Lumberton was shocked as it has not been for some time at the sudden and unexpected death of Miss Susie Leland Allen, second daughter of Prof. D. P. Allen. Miss Susie had been sick only a few days with typhoid fever, but no one thought her seriously ill. She was twenty years of age, a member of the M. E. Church, where she was converted six years ago, a teacher in the Sunday School, and also in the Public Schools. So suddenly was her death that her father refused to believe it, but after repeated efforts to revive her of no avail was compelled to admit the sad fact that death had claimed its own. Miss Susie was a pious and lovely young woman, a devout Christian and a devoted Bible reader. She was the idol of her father and her home. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Franklin, of the M. E. Church, who said, while preaching the funeral, that "Miss Susie's life was one worthy of imitation," spotless and pure, worthy of the association of angels.

To know her was to love her. Her real true worth and pious life was shown most clearly in her home where she always read some portions of the Scripture before retiring. But all her earthly cares and labor has ceased and she has gone to reap the reward which awaits the final faithful.

While young and tender it pleased her Heavenly Father to pluck and transplant her in that beautiful garden where she will never wither.

The bereaved family have our heartfelt sympathies, for we know that a lovely sister and an obedient daughter has gone from you, who could, while passing to her heavenly home, sing:

"O let me wing my hallowed flight,
From earth born woe and care,
And soar above these clouds of night,
My Saviour's bliss to share!"
