POETRY.

SONNET,

[Imitated from the Italian of Gaetana Passerini.—By Montgomery.

If in the field I meet a smiling flower,
Methinks it whispers, "God created me,
"And I to Him devote my little hour,
"In lonely sweetness and humility."
If, where the forest's darkest shadows lower,
A serpent quick and venemous I see,
It seems to say,—"I too, extol the power
"Of Him, who caus'd me, at his will to be."

The fountain purling, and the river strong,
The rocks, the trees, the mountains raise one song;
"Glory to God!" re-echoes in mine ear:
Faithless were I, in wilful error blind,
Did I not him in all his creatures find,
His voice through Heaven, and earth, and ocean hear.

2. Ten minutes shall be allowed for opening and closing the mail at all offices where no particular time is specified.

3. For every thirty minutes delay (unavoidable accidents excepted) in arriving after the time prescribed in any contract, the contractor shall forfeit one dollar; and if the delay continue until the departure of any depending mail, whereby the mails destined for such depending mail lose a trip, a forfeiture of double the amount allowed for carrying the mail one trip shall be incurred, unless it shall be made to appear that the delay was occasioned by unavoidable accident; in which case the amount of pay for a trip will, in all cases, be forfeited and retained.

4. Persons making proposals, are desired to state their prices by the year.—Those who contract will receive their pay quarterly,—in the months of February, May, August and November, one month after the expiration of each quarter.

5. No other than a free white person shall be employed to carry the mail.

6. Where the proposer intends to convey the mail in the body of a stage carriage, he is desired to state it in his proposals; and the stage must be of sufficient size to conveniently convey seven passengers.

7. The Post Master General reserves to himself the right of declaring any contract at an end whenever one failure happens which amounts to the loss of a trip.

8. The distances stated are such as have been communicated to this office, and some of them are doubtless incorrect; on this subject the contractor must inform himself; no alteration will be made in the pay on account of any error in this respect.

9. Proposals for the routes in Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, and Louisiana, are to be addressed to the Postmaster General, at Huntsville, where an agent will attend and give provisional acceptances.

Proposals for routes in South-Carolina and Georgia are to be addressed to Columbia, S. C.

The contracts are to be in operation on the first day of January next, and are to continue four years.
