TORAH STUDY

For the first time in recent years, Temple Beth El has introduced Saturday morning Torah study and worship services. The sessions are from 10:30 a.m. to about 12 noon. They include Torah study and a short Sabbath morning service.

Sessions will be led by Rabbi Harold I. Krantzler.

It is anticipated that the services will attract those interested in Torah study, with a special opportunity for an exchange of ideas within the framework of Reform Judaism. Guests, as always, are welcome.

Ha Lailah BBW

*Images of the Jewish Woman:
 Myth and Reality*

On Tuesday, January 15 at 8 p.m. at the home of Vickie Neumann, Ha Lailah sponsored an interesting and informative evening, featuring guest speaker, Elaine Chernot-sky. The program was the first in a series of programs produced this year by the National B'nai B'rith Women's organization. The program revolved around the issues confronting the contemporary Jewish woman today.

Chanukah Baskets: Overwhelming Success

The Ha Lailah-sponsored "Chanukah Baskets" for families with special needs was an overwhelming success. The baskets, which Stephanie Seitelin and her committee prepared, were festive and filled with Chanukah candles, menorahs, gifts and ingredients to make traditional Chanukah foods. The spirit of this project will be continued into the Passover season, when we will be collecting foodstuffs to distribute for this holiday. Contributions can be made to Sara Schreiber (542-6594).

Just for Kids Children's Holiday Gift Store

"Just For Kids" the children's holiday gift store which Ha Lailah sponsored for the first time this year was a very successful fundraising effort.

Ha Lailah was available to open the store to two classrooms from the Charlotte Headstart Program. The store opened at a special hour to allow the children to shop for family and friends. Their "shopping spree" was followed by punch and cookies and everyone who participated enjoyed the morning of fun.

ADL Program

February is ADL month nationally for B'nai B'rith Women. Ha Lailah will be hosting a special ADL program on February 19 at Temple Israel.

Senior Adult Luncheon

During the month of March, Ha Lailah will be the sponsor of the monthly Older Adult Luncheon. The "Luncheon" will be held on March 10.

"Creative Connection" Is Open To Help Community

Every Tuesday night Betsy Klein's home is filled with people. They come to look through and buy from her assortment of fun and useful items designed to bring out the artistic in the purchaser. They leave with bags filled with such items as stickers, teddy bears, personalized rubber stamps, gift wrap, and artworks by Sue Alvarez.

"I got the idea from Lynn Lerner's 'Yours Truly Needlepoint.' Lynn has donated so much to our Jewish institutions and organizations that I called her about my idea for a gift shop to try and do the same," said Betsy. "She thought it was a wonderful idea and has really helped me set up and get started.

"The response has been marvelous. People return almost every week to see what new items have come in."

CREATIVE CONNECTION, located at 4017-B Quail Glen Court, just down Quail Hollow Rd. from the corner of Carmel Rd., is open every Tuesday evening from 6-10 p.m.

All proceeds are donated to

Temple Israel Sisterhood To Hold Art Sale

There will be over 60 local artists participating in the Temple Israel Sisterhood Art Sale, Feb. 10 through 13 at Queens Gallery, 1221 The Plaza. Gallery hours are 10-5

Young Couples Club Has Fun

The Temple Israel Young Couples Club invites all Jewish couples (regardless of temple affiliation) to celebrate a Valentine get-together. We will meet at Trevor and Linda Goldberg's home at 3233 Landerwood Drive around 8 p.m. on Saturday, February 16. The only admission charge is to wear "black, white, and a splash of red" (creativity encouraged).

With the election of new officers in December, the club has already had a Chinese dinner and bowling party in January and plan a family outing at the circus on March 16.

Here's your chance to participate in a purely social club and to meet lots of great people! For RSVP and information, call Presidents Judy and David Miller at 542-5921.
