Chicken Salad In Avocado

Chicken salad in a half an avocado makes a fine first course for a party or a main dish for a women's luncheon. This recipe makes 24 portions.

2 lbs. cooked chicken breast
4 green peppers
4 red peppers
6 stalks celery
2 large dill pickles
1 large purple onion
2 large cans pineapple chunks, drained
200 grams thousand island dressing
12 small avocados

Slice all the ingredients very thinly, except the avocados which are cut into halves, with the pit removed. Mix the sliced ingredients with thousand island dressing. Fill each avocado half with chicken salad mixture. Place each half on a salad size plate on a lettuce leaf and garnish with a tomato and a lemon wedge. Serve immediately. Some lemon juice can be sprinkled on the avocado halves to keep them from turning black.

Eggplant Pie with Mushroom Sauce

This recipe makes an elegant main dish for a brunch. Prepare just before serving.

1 large eggplant
8 ozs. farmer cheese
3 ozs. cream cheese
4 ozs. grated munster cheese
1 medium onion, finely chopped
4 oz. can drained, chopped mushrooms
1/2 tsp. salt
1 tsp. black pepper

Bake whole eggplant on top of rack on direct flame. Peel under running water. In a bowl, mash eggplant. Add cheeses, mushrooms, onion and seasonings. Beat together for 5 minutes. Pour into a prepared 9-inch pie tin with dough in it. Add eggplant mixture. Cover with top crust. Cut about 6 slits with a knife. Seal edges and flute. Cover edge of pie with aluminum foil strip, remove for last 15 minutes of baking. Bake at 400 degrees for 15 minutes. Serves 6.

NCCJ To Hold Awards Luncheon

The fourth Annual Brother/Sisterhood Awards Luncheon will be held on Tuesday, February 19, 12 noon, at the United Way Auditorium. This event is sponsored by the National Conference and Jews and its youth programs, Project Aries and Youth Involvement Council, to honor a student from each Senior High School for their outstanding leadership in their school community, especially in the area of human relations.

Civic and business leaders are invited to join in expressing their support of these youth in their efforts to make our community a harmonious, pluralistic society. Keynote Speaker will be H.A. Thompson of WBT Radio. For reservations and information, call NCCJ (332-4420).
