COMMERCIAL.

The Home Market.

WILMINGTON, Dec. 1—6 P. M.

Business to-day has been very inactive, and but few transactions have taken place.

COTTON.—We quote the sale of a small lot of good middling at 45c.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.—No sales.

CRUDE TURPENTINE.—Sales of 77 bbls at $5 25.

TAR.—We quote sales of 100 bbls at $3 15.

ROSIN.—No sales.

TIMBER.—Sales of 4 rafts good mill at $14 a 16, and 1 raft inferior mill at $12 per M,

New York Market.

[By Telegraph.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.

COTTON—Quiet; sales 3,000 bales at 51c.

NAVAL STORES—Quiet.

GOLD—148 1-4.

LATER.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.

COTTON has a declining tendency; sales 1,800 bales at 50c a 51c.

GOLD—148.

[By Mail.]

NEW YORK, November 27.

BREADSTUFFS.—The market for State flour is firm, while other descriptions are inactive, at rates ruling in the buyers' favor. We quote

Superfine State	$7 90 a	8 25
Extra State	8 40 a	8 75
Superfine Western	7 90 a	8 25
Extra Western	8 40 a	8 85
Extra Ohio	9 10 a	9 25
Do Trade	9 30 a	11 75
Extra St Louis	12 75 a	16 00

The market for Southern flour is declining; the sales include 450 bbls at $9 25 a $10 25 for superfine Baltimore, and $10 30 a 16 for extra do. The market for corn meal is dull and heavy.

GRAIN.—Wheat has declined fully 1c, with sales at $1 67 a 1 80 for Chicago spring; $1 76 a 1 81 for Milwaukee club; $1 82 a 1 85 for amber Milwaukee, the latter price for very choice, and about $2 45 for choice new amber State. Corn is in good request, but at a decline of 1c; we notice sales at 91c a 93c for unsound; 94c a 95 1-4c for sound Western mixed, and 88c for damaged.

COFFEE.—The market is inactive at previous rates.

COTTON.—The market is dull and heavy, as neither buyers or sellers are willing to operate to any great extent until further advices are received from Europe. The transactions to-day amount to 1,500 bales; our figures are barely sustained. We quote:

	Upland.	Florida.	Mobile.	N.O.&T.
Good Ordinary	44	45	45	45
Low Middling	49	49	50	51
Middling	52	52	52 1-2	53
Good middling	54	54	54 1-2	55

NAVAL STORES.—Crude turpentine is inactive at $9 for soft. Spirits turpentine sells in small lots at $1 10. Rosins are dull; sales of 150 bbls at $7 20 for common, and $8 a 11 for strained and No 2. Tar is quiet.

PROVISIONS.—The pork market is more active, under a strong effort on the part of holders to realize. Prices are much easier; we notice sales at $30 a 30 56 for mess, cash and regular way, closing at $30 cash, and $26 a 26 50 for prime mess. Also 2,740 bbls new mess, for December and January delivery, sellers' option, at $29 a 30. The beef market is quiet; sales were made at $11 a 14 for plain old Western mess, and $14 a 17 for extra do. Beef hams are inactive; we notice sales of 100 bbls Western at $40 50 a 41. Bacon sides are dull and unchanged. Cut meats have again declined; the sales include 275 packages at 17 1-2c a 21 1-2c for hams in dry salt and sweet pickle, and 13 1-2c a 15c for shoulders in dry salt. Lard is not active, and has again declined 1 1-2c; we notice sales at 20c a 24 1-2c for No 1 to prime kettle rendered.

SUGAR.—The demand for raw is still confined to grocery grades, of which small lots only are taken. We quote fair to good refining at 13 1-4c a 13 5-8c. Refined are inactive, but we do not alter our figures; we quote soft yellow at 15c a 16 1-2c; soft white at 17 1-2 a 18 1-2c, and crushed, powdered and granulated at 19 1-4c.

TALLOW is quiet and steady; we notice sales at 14c a 14 1-2c for common to prime city; 19c a 23c for prime stearine, and 12 3-4c a 15 1-2c for grease.

TEAS.—There is a steadier market, with a little better inquiry. Sales 2,000 half chests greens, from first hands.

WHISKEY.—The market is inactive and nearly nominal.

Laws

OF THE

UNITED STATES.

Passed at the Second Session

OF THE

THIRTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS.

CHAP. XXV.—An Act making an Appropriation for completing the Defences of Washington, and for other Purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars be, and the same is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for completing the defences of Washington: Provided, That all arrearages of debts already incurred for the objects of this act shall be first paid out of this sum: And provided, further, That no part of the sum hereby appropriated shall be expended in any work hereafter to be commenced.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the fifth section of the act of twenty-eighth September, eighteen hundred and fifty, providing for the discharge from the service of minors enlisted without the consent of their parents or guardians, be, and the same hereby is repealed: Provided, That hereafter no person under the age of eighteen shall be mustered into the United States service, and the oath of enlistment taken by the recruit shall be conclusive as to his age.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That no volunteers or militia from any State or Territory shall be musterdd into the service of the United States on any terms or conditions confining their service to the limits of said State or Territory, or their vicinities, beyond the number of ten thousand in the State of Missouri, and four thousand five hundred in the State of Maryland, heretofore authorized by the President of the United States, or Secretary of War, to be raised in said States.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the second section of the act of the tenth of April, eighteen hundred and six, shall be, and the same is hereby, so amended as to read as follows:

"SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That, in time of war or rebellion against the supreme authority of the United States, all persons who shall be found lurking as spies, or acting as such, in or about the fortifications, encampments, posts, quarters, or headquarters of the armies of the United States, or any of them, within any part of the United States which has been or may be declared to be in a state of insurrection by proclamation of the President of the United States, shall suffer death by sentence of a general court-martial."

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the fifty-fifth article of the first section of act of tenth April, eighteen hundred and six, chapter twenty, be, and the same is hereby so amended as to read as follows:

"Article Fifty-five. Whoever, belonging to the armies of the United States in foreign parts, or at any place within the United States, or their Territories, during rebellion against the supreme authority of the United States, shall force a safeguard, shall suffer death."

APPROVED, February 13, 1862.

CHAP. XXVII.—An Act to prohibit the "Coolie Trade" by American Citizens in American Vessels.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That no citizen or citizens of the United States, or foreigner coming into or residing within the same, shall, for himself or for any other person whatsoever, either as master, factor, owner, or otherwise, build, equip, load, or otherwise prepare, any ship or vessel, or any steamship or steam-vessel, registered, enrolled, or licensed, in the United States, or any port within the same, for the purpose of procuring from China, or from any port or place therein, or from any other port or place the inhabitants or subjects of China, known as "coolies," to be transported to any foreign country, port, or place whatever, to be disposed of, or sold, or transferred, for any term of years or for any time whatever, as servants or apprentices, or to be held to service or labor. And if any ship or vessel, steamship, or steam-vessel, belonging in whole or in part to citizens of the United States, and registered, enrolled, or otherwise licensed as aforesaid, shall be employed for the said purposes, or in the "coolie trade," so called, or shall be caused to procure or carry from China or elsewhere, as aforesaid, any subjects of the Government of China for the purpose of transporting or disposing of them as aforesaid, every such ship or vessel, steamship, or steam-vessel, her tackle, apparel, furniture, and other appurtenances, shall be forfeited to the United States, and shall be liable to be seized, prosecuted, and condemned in any of the circuit courts or district courts of the United States for the district where the said ship or vessel, steamship, or steam-vessel, may be found, seized, or carried.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That every person who shall so build, fit out, equip, load, or otherwise prepare, or who shall send to sea, or navigate, as owner, master, factor, agent, or otherwise, any ship or vessel, steamship, or steam-vessel, belonging in whole or in part to citizens of the United States, or registered, enrolled, or licensed within the same, or at any port thereof, knowing or intending that the same shall be employed in that trade or business aforesaid, contrary to the true intent and meaning of this act, or in anywise aiding or abetting therein, shall be severally liable to be indicted therefor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars and be imprisoned not exceeding one year.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That if any citizen or citizens of the United States shall, contrary to the true intent and meaning of this act, take on board of any vessel, or receive or transport any such persons as are above described in this act, for the purpose of disposing of them as aforesaid, he or they shall be liable to be indicted therefor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars and be imprisoned not exceeding one year.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this act hereinbefore contained shall be deemed or construed to apply to or affect any free and voluntary emigration of any Chinese subject, or to any vessel carrying such person as passenger on board the same, Provided, however, That a permit or certificate shall be prepared and signed by the consul or consular agent of the United States residing at the port from which such vessel may take her departure, containing the name of such person, and setting forth the fact of his voluntary emigration from such port or place, which certificate shall be given to the master of such vessel; but the same shall not be given until such consul or consular agent shall be first personally satisfied by evidence produced of the truth of the facts therein contained.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That all the provisions of the act of Congress approved February twenty-second, eighteen hundred and forty-seven, entitled "An act to regulate the carriage of passengers in merchant vessels," and all the provisions of the act of Congress approved March third, eighteen hundred and forty-nine, entitled "An act to extend the provisions of all laws now in force relating to the carriage of passengers in merchant vessels and the regulation thereof," shall be extended and shall apply to all vessels owned in whole or in part by citizens of the United States, and registered, enrolled, or licensed within the United States, propelled by wind or by steam, and to all masters thereof, carrying passengers or intending to carry passengers from any foreign port or place without the United States to any other foreign port or place without the United States; and that all penalties and forfeitures provided for in said act shall apply to vessels and masters last aforesaid.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the President of the United States shall be, and he is hereby, authorized and empowered, in such way and at such time as he shall judge proper to the end that the provisions of this act may be enforced according to the true intent and meaning thereof, to direct and order the vessels of the United States, and the masters and commanders thereof, to examine all vessels navigated or owned in whole or in part by citizens of the United States, and registered, enrolled, or licensed under the laws of the United States, wherever they may be, whenever, in the judgment of such master or commanding officer thereof, reasonable cause shall exist to believe that such vessel has on board, in violation of the provisions of this act, any subjects of China known as "coolies," for the purpose of transportation; and upon sufficient proof that such vessel is employed in violation of the provisions of this act, to cause such vessel to be carried, with her officers and crew, into any port or district within the United States, and delivered to the marshal of such district, to be held and disposed of according to the provisions of this act.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after six months from the day of its passage.

APPROVED, February 19, 1862.
