New Year's Eve Was "Super" Volunteer of the Month

Sandra Gunn

Approximately 70 couples attended the JCC New Year's Eve Party at the Adam's Mark Hotel. Of these couples, 19 opted for the overnight stay at the hotel, which included a buffet breakfast New Year's Day.

While there were over 500 people celebrating the event, JCC couples were seated together and truly formed a close-knit party within the larger affair. The dinner was excellent; the entree, being prime rib, the hotel accommodated our members who preferred a fresh fish dinner.

Most would agree that one of the highlights of the evening was the band "Steel Creek", which performed top 40 hits until after 1 a.m.

We anxiously await the opening of the new JCC so that we can hold these types of functions in our own building. In the interim, we have found that our new and beautiful hotels are providing an excellent alternative.

Register Now For Mother's Morning Out

We are aware that parents register their children for Mother's Morning Out programs well in advance. Therefore, we are seeking early registrations for next fall's program. At that time (Sept. 1) we will again offer "Mother's Morning Out" each Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. All children from 4 months to 2½ years are welcome to participate. We are confident that we can more than match other similar programs in the city. Give us a try, contact Irene Komor at 366-0357.

— JCC To Begin Weekend Phone Updates —

As the JCC is no longer open on weekends except for special events, a taped recording of weekly JCC activities and highlights will be available by dialing the JCC phone number (366-0357). Please let us know if you have suggestions for our recordings.

From all of us to all of you - "A Happy New Year."

This time it's Frank Rosen with Linda Goldsmith.

Older Adult Luncheon

The Sisterhood of Temple Beth El will be hosting this month's luncheon at the Temple on Wednesday, February 13, at 11:30 a.m. Gladys Lavitan will be the guest speaker. This luncheon is an excellent opportunity for seniors to spend time together, while enjoying a delicious lunch and an interesting program. The cost of the lunch is $1.00. To RSVP, please call the JCC at 366-0357. The deadline is February 7. Please indicate if you need transportation.

The phrase "What would we do without Sandra?" has been heard many times around the JCC. Sandra became involved with the Center about 18 months ago. Since then, it has been non-stop. She is the chairperson of the Adult and Phase-In Adult Committees. Her most recent "J" involvement is the new JCC Board Leadership Program.

Sandra has a B.A. in English and an M.Ed. in counseling. Her background includes teaching and counseling at the Jr. High level and working in the 5 Points Community with the Gethsemane Enrichment Program. Sandra was a UNCC professor in the Human Services Department. During her 5 years at the University, she was involved in "University Year for Action" and supervised student teachers.

Sandra's desire to volunteer didn't start at the 'J'. She has been an advocate for the Council on Children, on a study commission for the United Way, and a facilitator at the Latch Key Conference. During the campaign season, you may have seen Sandra with her "D.G." watch, stickers and pins. She was an active member of his campaign and would love to see him run again.

Currently, Sandra is on the Council on Adolescent Pregnancy, involved in a grant writing project for Open Door School, and an active member of Temple Beth El.

Husband Bob, an architect, and 3½ year-old daughter, Julia, couldn't be more supportive of Sandra. The JCC is extremely fortunate to have such an outstanding community member as a volunteer.

Our Teams Are Playing

Our JCC-Temple Israel boys basketball teams have begun their competitive season in the Parochial League. Our J.V. team (4th and 5th grades) has played well against some tough competition. They can use your cheering at their games on Saturdays at 4:30 p.m. at St. Patrick's gym. Our coaches, Danny Levine and Robert Gleiberman, appreciate your support.

The Varsity team (9th-12th grades) has fine-tuned the many aspects of offense and defense under the guidance of Coaches Lloyd Scher, Chuck Freedman, Larry Segal and Morris Spil. At early season our team looks strong as they build for future seasons as well. Their games are played on Sunday afternoons at St. Patrick's. We hope to see a big crowd there.
