HOME PENCILINGS.

Blind Tom to-morrow night.

Perry advertises something new in the way of sweetmeats to-day.

A cock fight going on for four days in the city and no mayor's court in a week.

The Academy of Medicine meets again next Tuesday night. A uniform tariff of charges is the subject for discussion.

Attention is directed to the communication of the president of the relief society, published elsewhere in this issue.

Gaudy posters announcing the New Orleans Mardi Gras have arrived, and may be seen in a few public places in the city.

THE OBSERVER is indebted to Mr. J. L. Bailey, formerly of Charlotte, now connected with the Agricultural Department, for a copy of the annual report of the commissioner of agriculture.

The clerk of the board of commissioners of Cleaveland county has been ordered to notify the holders of the county bonds to meet the commissioners at their office in Shelby on Tuesday after the first Monday in February next to confer together in regard to the payment of their bonds.

Thermometer Record.

The following will show the state of the thermometer, at the stations mentioned, at 4.35 yesterday evening, Washington mean time, as ascertained from the daily bulletin issued from the signal office in this city:

Atlanta	54	Jacksonville	72
Augusta	56	Key West	70
Charleston	60	Mobile	69
Charlotte	51	Montgomery	60
Corsicana	51	New Orleans	58
Galveston	58	Punta Rassa	73
Havana	78	Savannah	64
Indianola	62	St. Marks	62

Important on Matrimony.

A "Catechism for young men and young women contemplating matrimony" has been put forth with the imprimatur of the Most Rev. Archbishop of Baltimore. It is a timely work for a much-neglected class of people who generally get but little good advice on what most intimately concerns them, and who are in the habit of receiving more jokes than sound counsel. The Catholic Standard says: "We would be glad to see it in the hands of all young Catholics. Married persons, also, may derive from its pages useful instructions and practical hints as to how they may avoid the unhappiness which frequently arises in families from want of consideration, ill-judgment, ill-temper, the absence of the disposition which religion inculcates and encourages, and from other causes."

Blind Tom.

The public only need to have attention called to the fact that Blind Tom appears in the opera house to-morrow night. The character of his performance and his own genius are so well known that they need not be referred to here. The entertainment he gives is purely intellectual, such as all persons, whatever their creed or habits of life, can hear with profit. The price of admission is moderate and seats can be had at the Central Hotel cigar stand. The box sheet has been open for a day or two and the reserved seats are selling well.

The Smith & Forbes Case.

On yesterday Mr. J. M. B. Reynolds, of Boston, the trustee, under the deed executed by Messrs. Smith & Forbes, seized through the United States marshal the goods which were levied upon some days ago by Constable McLure at the instance of Monroe & Co. This seizure was made under an order of the United States Circuit Court, for the Western District of North Carolina, in an action commenced by Mr. Reynolds. The goods were accordingly returned to the storehouse lately occupied by Smith & Forbes, last night, and placed in the hands of a bailee until further orders.

St. Mary's College, Gaston County.

The advertisement of the above named institution appears in our columns this morning. The Rev. Father Lyons, O. S. B. is a graduate of St. Vincent's College, Westmoreland county, Penn., and a native of that State. He is a ripe scholar, in the prime of life and a gentleman of universal attainments. His popularity as a professor and in the community, render his promotion to the rectorship of the college by the distinguished Abbot Wimmer, a cause of pleasure to the students and faculty and promises prosperity to the growing institution.

Personal.

Capt. Armistead Burwell has returned from a business trip to New York.

Lt. Jas. A. Buchanan, of the United States signal service, is in the city for the purpose of making an examination of the office here. Lt. Buchanan will be remembered as the officer who swam ashore from the Magnolia, a vessel from Elizabeth City to Kitty Hawk, during the terrible storm which prevailed on the 22d of last October.

Mr. Wm. V. Overton, of Port Jervis, N. Y., has purchased the Martin place, near the Jewish cemetery, and will shortly move his family there. Another Northern settler.

Society Notes.

Rather dull just now; awfully dull, some say.

Miss Bussy, of Columbus, Ga., who has been on a visit of some weeks to Miss Maggie Morehead, and who was much admired, left yesterday morning at 1 o'clock for home.

There is talk of a hop some time this week, though nothing definite has been decided upon.

Mr. Jas. G. Holmes, of Charleston, well-known here, is in the city to-day.

The reading club meets Tuesday night at the residence of Maj. W. W. Flemming. It has revived thoroughly and promises to be the source of much pleasure during the remainder of the winter.

Mr. Robert Glenn, one of Greensboro's most popular young men, and a decided beaux in his own town, is in the city, the guest of Capt. A. G. Brenizer.

The Gounod musical club has recently had several accessions to its membership, and has afforded much pleasure and profit to its members.

Mr. Lyon and his pleasant family, of Pennsylvania, who have been guests at the Central Hotel for some time, will spend the winter season in Charlotte.

Railroad Notes.

The pay train of the Atlanta and Charlotte Air-Line arrived yesterday evening one day behind. The employes of this road are paid off with the utmost regularity.

It is reported that the mail over the Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta road is to be transferred from the day to the night train.

Business, both passenger and freight, has begun to look up a little on the main lines.

Nothing definite will be known about the removal of the Carolina Central shops from Laurinburg to this city until the next term of New Hanover Superior Court, which we believe occurs in May or June, as the order for the removal has to be obtained through this court.

In consequence of the accident at the Polkton trestles, reported yesterday morning, the Carolina Central passenger train was delayed yesterday. It had not arrived at a late hour last night. The car that jumped the track had to be left standing on the trestle. One of the wheels was found to be broken when the train stopped, but whether this was the cause or effect of the run-off has not yet been determined.

Associated press dispatch from Washington, dated, 17th: "The case of the comptroller-general of South Carolina against the Richmond and Danville Railroad Company, brought to the United States Supreme Court by appeal, was argued to-day. The question involved is the liability of the Atlanta and Richmond Air-Line Railway Company to taxation in South Carolina under the general act of 1868, without regard to the exemption from taxation granted by its charter. The appellee, who is a stockholder of the Air-Line Company, denies the liability, and is sustained by the court below."

Pit Notes.

Hack fights were kept up throughout yesterday in the rear of "Our House," and were almost as numerously attended as the battles of the main. The scene was changed last night to the basement of Tom Black's establishment, on College street, where there were a number of excellent fights.

There is strong talk of arranging another main to be fought in this city before long. One side suggests the idea and the other is quite willing. So it may be said that the prospects for the main are good.

What drew so large a crowd around the pit last night was the announcement given out in the early evening that a "battle royal"—six cocks in the pit at one time—would be fought. It was the most thrilling engagement of the week.

Some of the sporting men of Charlotte are speaking of attending the great inter-State main between Kentucky and Georgia to be fought at New Orleans on George Washington's birthday—the 22d of February. All of them want to go so bad they dream about it.

The familiar face of Virginius Gratius O. has been much missed within the past few days by the frequenters of the pit. He has engagements just now which unavoidably detain him at the capital. He is letting the assembled wisdom find out what he knows about draw.

The fame of the cocking main here last week has gone abroad. The New York Herald of Friday, referring to a main on Long Island, Thursday between Kings and Queens counties, N. Y., and speaking of the crowd, says: "Aside from the all absorbing topic of the evening and the resulting loss or gain in betting, the conversation was chiefly directed to the three days' cocking main now in progress in the South." The one here was the only main in progress in the South last week.

Highly Commendatory.

The following from the Lincolnton Progress is highly appreciated: "We are indebted to the telegraphic columns of THE CHARLOTTE OBSERVER for all the latest news from Raleigh, Washington City and elsewhere. THE OBSERVER has become a necessity in Western North Carolina. We commend it as equal to any daily in the State in the ability of its editorials, the enterprise of the proprietor and the character of its seclections. We always give it a hearty welcome to our office."

Religious Notes.

Mrs. Mary Moon, the Quakeress revivalist, has arrived in the city and commenced a revival in Calvary Mission church. Her efforts in this State, especially in the town of Greensboro, have been crowned with a remarkable degree of success. Her zeal, earnestness and deep piety render her a powerful instrument in the conversion of even some of the oldest and vilest sinners. She will preach at Calvary to-day, morning and evening.

Rev. Mr. Logan, of Spartanburg, will fill the vacant pulpit at St. Peter's church this morning and this afternoon.

By the action of the recent called meeting of Mecklenburg Presbytery, the spring session of this body meets at Castanea Grove (Rev. S. H. Chester's church) on the Monday before the first Sunday in May.

It is learned here that Rev. Dr. C. R. Vaughn, who has been supplying the Presbyterian church at Raleigh, has just been called as stated supply to the Central Presbyterian church of Atlanta, Ga., which was vacated a few weeks since by Rev. Dr. Leftwitch.

Around the World in 120 Days.

Our readers remember to have seen in the newspapers an account of the travels of a postal card which was mailed at Chemnitz, Saxony, on the 24th of May last, and made the circuit of the world in one hundred and twenty days, reaching its starting point on the 18th of September last. Its making this trip was a matter of wager the singularity of which attracted the attention of the world. On the 4th of June the card arrived at Alexandria, Egypt, and was on the same day forwarded to Singapore, reaching that place on the 29th. Thence it was hurried on to Yokohama, where it arrived July 14th, and where it was obliged to remain until the 31st. It reached San Francisco August 23d, New York September 7th, and got back to Chemnitz, as stated, on the 18th of that month.

Upon its return, the card was at once photographed. Copies of this photograph were written for and received by the book-keeper for Messrs. Wallace Bros., Statesville, and these gentlemen have forwarded it to THE OBSERVER. After to-day it can be seen at the Central Hotel cigar stand.

News Briefs from Statesville.

While there have been no cases of special importance before the Inferior Court, the first ever held in the county, the manner in which it was conducted by Justices Sharp and Patterson (Justice Campbell being absent on account of sickness,) has tended to strengthen the favorers of the court and convince the doubting.

Friday night some scoundrel ignoring the law both ecclesiastical and constitutional, broke into the postoffice and stole some stamps and change amounting to not more than $2 or $3—all that was available. The safe which they vainly attempted to force contained the valuables of the office.

Last Monday night Mrs. Grant, the efficient principal of the Simonton Female College, gave one of those enjoyable "receptions" which have become so popular, Miss Dewey adding much to the occasion by her exquisite performance on the piano.

The building interests of Statesville are on the increase. Mr. J. S. Ramsey of the Landmark, is erecting a residence which when completed will be a decided credit to the town; the Baptist church is being pressed towards completion, and other buildings are in contemplation.

Mr. Barrett, the new presiding elder of this district, has located here with his interesting family.

The young folks propose reproducing at an early day, the "Poor of New York," and are rehearsing it regularly.

The extreme cold weather of some days back enabled owners of ice houses to lay in a good supply of the refrigerating element.

Notice to Members of the Relief Association.

By order of the Charlotte Relief Association, the committee of citizens whose names appear below, are requested to meet in the Young Men's Christian Association room, over the Merchants' and Farmers' bank, at 4 o'clock, p. m., of Monday, the 20th inst.

It is very desirable that every one named below will be prompt in their attendance. It is already ascertained that there exists much destitution and distress in our city which calls upon us for relief:

Gen. Thos. F. Drayton, Capt. A. G. Brenizer, Mrs. Julia Fox, Mrs. B. R. Smith, Mrs. H. C. Jones, Mrs. John Wilkes, Mrs. Jno. Vanlandingham, Mrs. Owens, Mrs. J. L. Whitsitt, Mrs. Powers, Mrs. Rufus Jones, Mrs. Jonas Rudisill, Mrs. Dr. Whitfield, Mrs. Capt. DeWolfe, Mrs. Col. J. L. Morehead, Mrs. Sidney Reading, Mrs. Gen. T. J. Jackson, Mrs. Frank Snyder, Mrs. W. C. Morgan, Miss Sallie Davidson, Miss Clara Yates, Capt. S. Grose, Rev. J. F. Butt, Rev. W. S. Haltom, Mr. H. Hilker, Prof. G. B. Hanna, Hon. B. R. Smith, mayor.

JOHN A. YOUNG, President.
