Older Adult Luncheon

Rabbi Krantzler and Helen Krantzler singing Jewish songs.

Annie Goldberg gave invocation.

On January 15, the Charlotte Chapter of B'nai B'rith Women organized a beautiful luncheon as part of the JCC's older adult luncheon series. Annie Goldberg, one of the communities most beloved seniors, delivered the invocation. The delicious lunch included a fruit cup, kosher chicken, rice pilaf, mixed vegetables and a luscious dessert.

Rabbi Krantzler and his lovely wife Helen entertained the group with music and song. This was followed by Rabbi Krantzler's enlightening discussion on "Everything You Always Wanted to Know About Being Jewish, but Were Afraid to Ask."

Teams To Be Feted At Awards Dinner

Our JCC-Temple Israel youth basketball teams have played an exciting season this year.

The J.V. team (5th and 6th grades) has shown much improvement as the season progressed and looks forward to playing next year with a strong team.

The High School team (9th-12th grades) has played an outstanding season with a 4-1 record at this writing. Their deep bench ensures this winning tradition will continue in future seasons as well.

Both teams look forward to a spaghetti dinner-awards evening at Temple Israel in March. Many thanks to our devoted coaches for all their hard work and interest in our young players.

Volunteer of the Month Barry Kaye

As we approach the opening of the new JCC the Center's premembership committee becomes increasingly more important. This committee is charged not only with developing a myriad of new policies, but must also develop a comprehensive membership campaign. The chairman of both the standing and phase-in membership committees is Barry Kaye. Barry has been chairman of the membership committee since he joined the JCC Board in 1983. His phase-in committee recently completed a new set of membership policy recommendations. Barry's leadership enabled the committee to deal with some very difficult issues in an intelligent and systematic fashion. He has spearheaded the JCC membership retention campaign in the past and has already begun to play a key role in this year's recruitment drive.

Barry earned his MBA from Baruch College in New York City. He has been a sales representative for Koret of California for the past 14 years and is on the Board of Directors of the Carolina Trade Mart. Barry and his wife Susan have 3 children: Lisa, 8 months old; Joshua, 7-years-old and Peter, 10-years-old.

We thank Barry for his tireless efforts on behalf of the JCC and we look forward to his continued involvement.

JCC Companions

Wanted: Caring adults, young and old, to share a few hours a month with a child who wants companionship. Consider bowling, reading at the library, taking a walk or talking about growing up. If you or someone you know might enjoy the special friendship of a young person, call Irene Komor at the JCC at 366-0357.

After School With The JCC

Next school year, beginning September 1985, the Jewish Community Center plans to offer an After School Care Program at the JCC Child Care Center (910 Sardis Lane). It will be available for first through sixth graders every school day from 2:30-6 p.m. (cost to be determined). Children will be expected to register on a monthly basis; preregistration opens this month.

Consider sending your child to Charlotte's only Jewish After School Care Program for grade school children.

Call the "J" today for an application form.

Special Events For Senior Adults

Ha Lailah Chapter of B'nai B'rith Women will be hosting a senior adult dinner on March 10, from 4 - 6 p.m. at Temple Beth El. A delicious hot supper will be served. They will be entertained by the dynamic musical duo, Jay Kirsh and Jimmy Bedrick.

On March 20, the Sisterhood of Temple Israel will be hosting a senior adult luncheon from 11:30 - 1:30 p.m. at Temple Israel. This tasty lunch will include the ever popular potato latkes. The program will look into the lives of Jews around the world. What was it like to grow up in places as far away as Egypt, or as close as the Georgia mountains? This is your chance to find out.

R.S.V.P. for both events at the JCC, 366-0357. Please indicate if you need transportation.

Mother's Morning Out

September 1985, the JCC will again be offering a three-days-a-week childcare program for infants and toddlers (ages four months to two-and-a-half years). Children will be welcomed into the warm and loving environment of the JCC Child Care Center (910 Sardis Lane), provided by experienced staff. Children will be provided snacks, toys and playmates from nine to one every Monday, Wednesday and Friday morning.

Interested? Call Irene Komor at the JCC to register and for more information.
