174.—WHAT HAPPENED TO JONES.

Friday was always an unlucky day for Jones and this particular day was no exception. He woke later than usual and in his hurry to dress, he found that he had put his right shoe on to the left foot. He quickly changed them about, but when he had finished dressing, he found he still had the right shoe on the left foot. He couldn't account for it, as he was sure he had changed them, but had no time to study over it, as the fire must be built. He filled the stove full of wood, and soon had it burning briskly, and as he went about his chores he thought of his favorite dish that he would soon be enjoying. But when he looked at the fire again, he found that, though it had been burning fiercely for twenty minutes, yet the wood was still the same as when he lit it. He was now beside himself, and seizing a part of his little daughter's set of furs, he ate it ravenously, and started for the factory; and though he had missed his breakfast, he had the satisfaction of knowing he had partaken of his favorite dish after all. Who will explain these three odd happenings of Jones?

175.—PALINDROME.

A BOY'S QUESTION.

Over in town to-day
A man from Washington
Got up, they said, to say
What Roosevelt has done

He was a great big man,
Big as a barrel round;
I think few bigger can
In any place be found.

And now I want to know,
So please to tell me, pa,
If what they said was so—
W*S *T A *A*T * S* W?

176.—CHARADE.

Alicia lightly leaned ONE o'er the brook,
TWO THREE she had,—and so ENTIRE her look.
He said, the rogue, "A penny for your thought."
Yet long have been enjoying, all unbought,
Charmed by its lovely, shimmering perfection,
Alicia's dear, enrapturing REFLECTION.

A WOMAN TELLS HOW TO RELIEVE RHEUMATIC PAINS.

I have been a very great sufferer from the dreadful disease, rheumatism, for a number of years. I have tried many medicines but never got much relief from any of them until two years ago, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I found relief before I had used all of one bottle, but kept on applying it and soon felt like a different woman. Through my advice many of my friends have tried it and can tell you how wonderfully it has worked.—Mrs. Sarah A. Cole, 140 S. New St., Dover, Del. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. It makes rest and sleep possible. For sale by W. L. Hand & Co.

"I finally wrote to you, and you said if it was not a cancer or a tumor, Peruna would cure me.

"I commenced taking Peruna right away, and have never had one of those spells since.

"I am an old soldier, one of Phil Sheridan's Rough Riders, and pretty nearly played out now, but I have a pretty good stomach again."

"Or if you suffer with sleeplessness or if your appetite is poor, again Peruna acts as a good, true friend and is the tonic needed.

I am 73 years old and can attend to my business as usual."
