All the teachers of the colored graded school were re-elected.

The street carnival has had large crowds all the week, especially at night, the attendance reaching up into the thousands.

Musical Event at Lenoir.

Special to The Observer.

Lenoir, June 8.—A large audience enjoyed a delightful musical treat last evening, under the auspices of the Daughters of the Confederacy. The solos of Mr. Leon Louis Rice, the well-known tenor, were most enthusiastically received. His voice is one of rare sweetness combined with great volume. Particularly enjoyable was his rendering of "If with all your hearts" from Elijah, and Campion's "Ninety and Nine." Mr. Rice was ably assisted by Mrs. J. T. Jones, soprano, Miss Downum pianist, and Misses Henkel and Rutledge, readers. The concert is said by many to have been the best ever heard in Lenoir. A nice sum was realized for the Confederate monument.

Apples Preserved in Ice.

Philadelphia Record.

J. C. Braunbeck, of Wallis Run, Lycoming county, adopted a unique method of preserving his apples last fall. He built a bin in the orchard seven feet wide, 14 feet long and three feet high. In the bottom of this he put straw, then filled it with apples, putting straw on the sides and ends. Then he placed straw and cornstalks on top. He dug a ditch around it to keep the water from standing there.

Some water, however, found its way through the top and formed ice about each of the apples, but they were not disturbed until the ice had all melted. The apples are now sound, crisp and without a wrinkle.

"Gentle Prevarication" chiseled in enduring stone" is the language in which Bill Nye describes the custom of inscribing on tombstones greater virtues than were possessed by the deceased. Many a man has lived his life so selfishly that his family were paupers before his burial. Insurance cannot cure bad habits, but it prevents some, and atones for others. The man who insures, lives up to his epitaph, as a good husband and kind father. While the gentle breezes are blowing things to you way, why not bottle up some of your success for the proverbial "Rainy Day," that is sure to come to every one in some form or other?

A policy in the Equitable, taken now, will take care of you in your old days, or take care of your family in the event of your early demise.

No company in the world offers greater certainty of payment than the Equitable. This is the first consideration in life insurance. No company can furnish safer life insurance at a permanently lower cost than the Equitable.

An Actual Fact

Yesterday morning I was in a drug store for a few minutes and while there Mr. —, the proprietor, threw down a letter which he had received and just opened.

"That must be a cheap skate firm," he said. "Why?" I replied, with a sense of curiosity, at what the letter contained. "Look at their stationery. I can tell by the way that letter head is printed and the kind of paper used that that is a cheap John place, although I do not know them."

And so we emphasize it—that your printed stationery is judged by all who receive your business letters. That letter is your salesman. Have it dressed well and it will carry more weight. The same about your bill heads, envelopes, cards and all your printed matter. This case is not fictitious—it actually occurred just as given, which prompted this advertisement.
