COMMERCE AND FINANCE

THE STAPLE SHOWS A NET LOSS.

Market Opened Steady at a Decline Owing to Disappointing Cables—Renewal of Bull Support and Demand Through Wire and Commission Houses Bring About a Rally and the Market Closes Easy.

New York, Jan. 18.—The cotton market opened steady at a decline of 3 to 9 points during the first few minutes showed a net loss of 7 to 10 points on the active months as a result of disappointing cables, realizing and local bear pressure. At the decline there was renewal of bull support and demand through wire and commission houses on which prices rallied to a net gain of 4 to 5 points, later pulling irregular around the closing figures of last night. The cotton market closed easy with prices net 10 at 18 points lower.

Receipts at the ports to-day: 37,040 bales against 46,794 last week, and 41,530 last year. For the week, 225,000 bales against 253,322 last week and 299,155 last year. To-day's receipts at New Orleans, 16,516 bales against 15,375 last year, and at Houston, 7,244 bales against 17,811 last year.

GOOD DAY IN STOCKS.

Expectation of a Strong Bank Statement, Together With Reports of Improved Collections Sustaining Factors.

New York, Jan. 18.—The stock market counted on a strong bank statement to-day, although the return was not published until after the close of the market in accordance with the rule made permanent last fall. This expectation was the principal sustaining force to prices. The most serious obstacle to the advance was the heavy tone of American Smelting, which was heavily sold while prices elsewhere were advancing. Reading was the feature of strength.

Improved collections reported by the mercantile agencies' weekly reviews and hopeful auguries drawn from this development for the revival of commercial activity were favoring influences on the market. Realizing was in progress side by side with the new buying, notably in Northern Pacific, and the gains were not fully held at the last. The gain of upwards of $26,000,000 in cash holdings reported by the banks is a revelation of the extent to which hoarded funds are rushing back into banking deposits. The loaning power of the New York banks is thus expanded upwards of $100,000,000. The week's slight loan expansion under the circumstances seems moderate.

Hubbard Bros. & Co.'s Cotton Letter.

Special to The Observer.

New York, Jan. 18.—The reaction to-day after the sharp advance of the week was a natural decline due mostly to profit-taking by those who bought at lower prices and by rumors of disruption in the ranks of those who had expected this advance. These rumors are denied and are probably without foundation, though. Whether true or not, none of the selling to-day could be traced to the large holders. From the action of the market the pressing offerings came from those who have been wrong upon the course of prices in opposing the advance. Meanwhile the basis for an advancing market has not changed, as the movement to-day is again lighter than last week and last year, while all the trade reports indicate a slow but constantly increasing upward movement to normal business conditions. That the American mills are without supplies is not only evident to trade but to every inhabitant of a mill town either North or South. Fear of a strike and American short selling depressed Liverpool to-day but we believe the dispute between the masters and their operatives will be settled without a strike.
