PLAYS AND PLAYERS.

[illegible]

A dispatch of A. W. Pinero, the dramatist, is about to make his debut in authorship. He has written a book on Korea, having spent a year in that country.

Public interest in the acting of Henry Irving shows no sign of abatement. The great actor has been greeted with enthusiastic welcome in every city that he has thus far visited.

Daniel Sully has suffered for the want of a good play ever since he discarded "The Parish Priest." Recently he put on a society play called "The Chief Justice," but it is not a success.

"La Sorciere" ("The Sorceress"), the drama in six acts produced at the Theater Sarah Bernhardt, Paris, shows that Sardou has lost none of his fertile imagination and free imitation of stage effect.

Relief in One Minute.

One Minute Cough Cure gives relief in one minute, because it kills the microbe which tickles the mucous membrane, causing the cough, and at the same time clears the phlegm, draws out the inflammation and heals and soothes the affected parts. One Minute Cough Cure strengthens the lungs, wards off pneumonia and is a harmless and never failing cure in all curable cases of Coughs, Colds and Croup. One Minute Cough Cure is pleasant to take, harmless and good alike for young and old. Sold by F S Duffy.

The Literal Truth.

Dunns—What do you mean by sending me word that you were not in? Debts—I didn't. I sent you word that I was out. Dunns—Well, and what did you mean by that? Debts—Exactly what I said. I am out of cash.—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

"Stop your groaning." Rheumacide will cure you, and make you feel ten years younger. Get it at your druggist's.

"There's one thing the women can't get into!" said the anti woman suffragist.

"What's that?" cried a chorus of feminine voices.

"The secret service!"—Detroit Free Press.

When you feel blue and that everything goes wrong, take a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They will cleanse and invigorate your stomach, regulate your bowels, give you a relish for your food and make you feel that in this old world is a good place to live. For sale by all Druggists.

His Chance.

"That boy never will be worth anything."

"I wouldn't be so sure of that. He may marry well."—Chicago Post.

Suspicions are weeds of the mind which grow of themselves, and most rapidly when least wanted.—Walleck.

Mysterious Circumstance.

One was pale and sallow and the other fresh and rosy. Whence the difference? She who is blushing with health uses Dr King's New Life Pills to maintain it. By gently arousing the lazy organs they compel good digestion and head off constipation. Try them. Only 25c at C D Bradham's, Druggist.

Jack—You know when Mabel refused me last week I told you my troubles and you promised to help me. Well, she accepted me last night. Am I to thank you for intervening in my behalf? Cousin Belle—Not exactly, dear boy. I simply intimated to Mabel that I was after you myself.

Another Case of Rheumatism Cured by Chamberlain's Pain Balm.

The efficacy of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the relief of rheumatism is being demonstrated daily. Parker Triplett, of Grigsby, Va., says that Chamberlain's Pain Balm gave him permanent relief from rheumatism in the back, when everything else failed, and he would not be without it. For sale by all Druggists.

Cost in Fishkers.

Probably most policemen could have answered the question of the magistrate who asked a burglar in court why he carried about pieces of coal. Among other coal hunters in the burglar's firm faith that the possession of a piece confers good luck, and when searched in the police station it is usually found in his pocket. A belief in coal as a talisman is said to have been held by the early Britons, and it is certainly frequently found in their burial places converted into personal ornaments, such as beads, etc. Believers in dreams maintain that to dream of coal is a certain sign of coming riches. Then, too, there is the superstition of mines of divination—that caused such a sensation in the sixteenth century—of Dr. Dee, which subsequently formed part of the Strawberry Hill collection. It was formed of cannel coal, though the doctor pretended to have received it from the angels.—London Chronicle.

Struck Him Unfavorably.

Mr. Gardell, who had quite recently been the possessor of a considerable fortune, had decided to erect a large office building and was discussing the plans with an architect.

"As to the floors, sir," said the architect, "you would want them in mosaic, I presume?"

"I don't know about that," responded Mr. Gardell, dubiously scrutinizing his face. "I hadn't put any prejudice against them as a man, and he certainly proved a good deal about law, but when it comes to laying down in front of people to be kicked off—I don't know about that."

PITH AND POINT.

Some things that are easily swallowed are hard to digest.

You can lead a man to college, but you cannot make him think.

The binding does not make the book for the office the statesman.

There is something almost melancholy about your highly intellectual person.

What a lot of meddlesome old fogies are such persons who spend their lives making complaints.

No spider ever conceived a trap for the innocent fly like the advertising webs of Wall street. Beware of the man who invites you to double your money.—Schoolmaster.

Perfect Confidence.

Where there used to be a feeling of uneasiness and worry in the household when a child showed symptoms of croup there is now perfect confidence. This is owing to the uniform success of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the treatment of that disease. Mrs. H. L. Bastford, of Poolesville, Md., in speaking of her experience in the use of that remedy says: "I have a world of confidence in Chamberlains Cough Remedy for I have used it with perfect success. My child Gerland is subject to severe attacks of croup and it always gives him prompt relief." For sale by all Druggists.

They Were Not There.

"Are these men the future husbands of our daughters?" said a matron at the afternoon swell wedding reception.

"No," said a knowing mother. "They are downtown, making a living."—Cleveland Leader.

Philosophy.

If we would realize the fact that life is pain, not pleasure, our quarrel with it would be gone, and we would accept thankfully a little scrap of dripping on our daily bread, but we go on expecting happiness, stand, empty plate in hand, beggars to an invisible cook, and we grow old standing there, but we won't budge.—Helen Mathers.

Have You Indigestion?

If you have Indigestion, Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will cure you. It has cured thousands. It is curing people every day—every hour. You owe it to yourself to give it a trial. You will continue to suffer until you do try it. There is no other combination of digestants that digest and build at the same time. Kodol does both. Kodol cures, strengthens and rebuilds. Sold by F. S. Duffy.

A Reminder.

Singleton—I say, old chap, what have you that string around your finger for? Wedderly—To remind me of something I am to get for my wife. Singleton—What are you to get? Wedderly—Why—er—I've forgotten what it was.—New Yorker.

Escaped an Awful Fate.

Mr H Haggins of Melbourne, Fla. writes, "My doctor told me I had Consumption and nothing could be done for me. I was given up to die. The offer of a free trial bottle of Dr King's New Discovery for Consumption, induced me to try it. Results were startling. I am now on the road to recovery and owe all to Dr. King's New Discovery. It surely saved my life." This great cure is guaranteed for all throat and lung diseases by C D Bradham, Druggist. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

THE TIME WILL COME

When This Advice Will Help You.

Very few New Bern people are entirely free from backache. It does not take much to derange the kidneys. A little cold, a strain, stooping positions or hard work, overtax these delicate organs, and many aches and pains promptly follow. A man well known in New Bern tells you here how every kidney ill can be relieved and cured. Read about it.

J B Cotten, farmer and lumberman, of Depot, N. C., says "I suffered for years with my back. It was so bad that I could not walk any distance nor even ride in easy buggy. I do not believe I would have relost ten pounds of weight from the ground, the pain was so severe. This was my condition when I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. They quickly relieved me and now I am never troubled as I was. My back is strong and I can walk or ride a long distance and feel just as strong as I did twenty-five years ago. I take or speak of Doan's Kidney Pills that I have given a supply of the remedy to some of my neighbors and they have also found good results. If you can add anything from this enabling now that will of any service to you or to anyone suffering from kidney trouble you are at liberty to do so."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Baby Mine

Those who use this remedy are no longer despondent or gloomy; nervousness, nausea and other distressing conditions are overcome, the system is made ready for the coming event, and the useless accidents so common to the critical hour are obviated by the use of Mother's Friend. "It is worth its weight in gold," says many who have used it. $1.00 per bottle at drug stores. Mother's Friend

Reading in Bed.

Commenting upon the recent discussion of the habit of reading in bed, American Medicine concludes that if the position is literally prone the habit is bad, because in such a position the eyes are fixed upon the book in a straining and harmful way and the book cannot be sufficiently illuminated.

But if one sits propped up by pillows, in much the same position of the head and trunk as when in a chair, there can be no evil consequences, provided a good rich light is skillfully placed behind and at one side of the head.

The greatest argument for reading in bed is that the attention is not distracted by the discomfort of the body, the noises and interruptions usual at other times. Let one take an erect position of the body and head, be assured he has a good oculist and that his light is strong, white, steady and properly placed. He may then read with impunity until drowsiness cautions him to stop.
