The Third Annual Community-Wide Family Afikomen Hunt

Your Family could win $125 toward a JCC membership or a b/w portable TV!

HERE'S HOW

There is a family Passover tradition of searching for the Afikomen (the last piece of matzoh eaten at the seder). All the Jewish Institutions of Charlotte — Temples Beth El, Beth Shalom and Israel, the Hebrew Academy, JCC and Federation — have taken this tradition and turned it into an exciting treasure hunt.

ON SUNDAY, APRIL 14, at 2:30 p.m. the JCC is holding an open house and tour of the COMMUNITY PROJECT in progress. At 2 p.m. that day, those who qualify will be invited to come and hunt for the Afikomen.

To qualify you must solve a puzzle and submit your answer in writing by Friday, April 12. A correct answer from just one family member qualifies the whole family. You can enter as many times as you want, there is no penalty for wrong guesses.

SOLVING THE PUZZLE

We have hidden the Afikomen in a very specific place in BIBLICAL HISTORY.
