HOME AND FARM,

LOUISVILLE, KY.

The Leading Agricultural Journal of the South and West.

Made by Farmers for Farmers.

As a record of successful agriculture, HOME AND FARM has no equal. Every topic relating to agriculture is openly discussed in its columns by the farmers themselves. No expense is spared in securing a full account of every notable success on the farm. It is distinctively the FARMERS' OWN PAPER.

A record of their daily life, presented in a form and language which make it plain to all.

ITS LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS

Contains the names of the most progressive farmers of the South and West. They do not treat of theoretical farming, but of the actual conditions which confront us to-day: B. F. Johnson; Waldo F. Brown; Henry Stewart; John M. Stahl; A. P. Ford; Jeff. Welborn; Hugh T. Brooks; John C. Edgar; Steele's Bayou; T. B. Baldwin and a host of others make this journal indispensable. Moreover, it is equally

A HOME MAGAZINE.

Every subject of interest to the home-maker is fully treated. Mary Marsden, Lois Catesby, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Daviess, Miss Cabell, Miss Mosby, Alice Winston and a score of others will contribute regularly.

FAITH LATIMER

Is in charge of our Children's Department, and she has the peculiar faculty of being both interesting and instructive.

THE MYSTERY OF THE NATION

Is a thrilling story appearing in HOME AND FARM, by John R. Musick, and is exciting wide attention. Short stories by distinguished writers appear from time to time.

BILL ARP'S LETTERS

Appear in each issue, and this humorous philosopher was never more interesting than at this time.

IN ITS EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT

HOME AND FARM speaks boldly and fearlessly in behalf of "Farmers' Rights." It favors a revision of the tariff in behalf of the farmer; better roads for the farmer; Free Mail Delivery to the farmer; Co-operation among the farmers, and its aim is to "Bust Trusts." Its motto is

"Fair Trade and Farmers' Rights."

"The price is very low, the form exceedingly handy for a work of reference, and the editing skillful and comprehensive."—Literary World, Boston.

"The literary skill and judicious editorship which have characterized the undertaking from the outset have been in no degree relaxed."—Sun, New York.

"It is an unabridged dictionary and a storehouse of information on almost every conceivable topic. The more we see of the work the more we are pleased."—Educational Monthly, Akron, O.

"The convenient form, the excellence of binding, paper, and illustrations, and the skillful arrangement of articles make this a handy cyclopedia, which will be used ten times where the bulky 'Britannica' would be consulted once. The illustrations are really helpful, and are very numerous. No matter what other cyclopedias a writer may have, 'Alden's Manifold' should be upon his shelves."—The Writer, Boston.

"It is a remarkably well made book for the price. The peculiar shape makes the book extremely easy to read, which is a most valuable thing to the student. The clean cut, heavy faced type used for titles is a good feature and materially lightens the task of the investigator. The accented syllable of every difficult word is plainly marked and the pronunciation, when it offers any difficulties, is set forth phonetically. In a word, this popular work is most carefully edited and neatly and accurately manufactured."—American Bookmaker, New York.

No man who gives as much as he ought to do ever growls about it.

THE usual treatment of catarrh is very unsatisfactory, as thousands of despairing patients can testify. A trustworthy medical writer says: "Proper local treatment is positively necessary to success, but most of the remedies in general use by physicians afford but temporary benefit. A cure cannot be expected from snuffs, powders, douches and washes." Ely's Cream Balm is a remedy which combines the important requisites of quick action, specific curative power with perfect safety and pleasantness to the patient.

Men need moral courage more than they do higher foreheads.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Twenty-five cents a bottle. jsly

There is no worship in anything you do simply from a sense of duty.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
