Sherwin-Williams Paint Store Will Be Opened Locally Soon

A Sherwin-Williams paint and wallpaper store will be opened within a few weeks on West Franklin Street in the former Carolina Cleaners building.

Bernice Ward, Gene Strowd, and Hoyle Johnson, who recently purchased the building, are completely remodeling and preparing the building for the new tenants. It's expected the store will open within two or three weeks. Details of its staff and merchandise have not yet been announced.

The building front and interior is being completely re-designed with a modernistic glass front, and large interior sales floor area. A floor-to-ceiling Pittsburgh plate glass front will be erected, flush with the sidewalk on the upper side and angling back to a depth of four and one-half feet on the lower side, where the front entrance will be. A low wall of Roman brick and a planter box will be built along the front.

TO HEAR DR. HALL

Dr. Walter A. Hall Jr., of Chapel Hill will present a scientific report at the 96th annual session of the American Dental Association to be held Oct. 17-20 in San Francisco. Nearly 150 dental educators, scientists and research workers will present reports at the four-day meeting. Dr. Hall, who is head of the department of Prosthodontics at the School of Dentistry will discuss "Variation in the Treatment Hygiene of Partial Denture Modification Spaces." Attendance is expected to be 12,000.

'Angel' Is First GM Show

The German film "The Blue Angel," starring Marlene Dietrich, will be the first presentation of the Graham Memorial Activities Board Film Series.

The film will be shown in Carroll Hall Thursday at 8 p.m. Season tickets for the eight-movies series are now on sale for $2 each at Graham Memorial and also at Ledbetter - Pickard. Tickets for single film showings will not be available.

The film, marking the establishment of Miss Dietrich as a star, is the story of a middle-aged professor who, becase he is in love with a cafe entertainer, is degraded. The story is based upon Heinrich Mann's novel, Professor Unrath.

Other films to be presented in the fall series are as follows:

On Oct. 13, "Volpone" will be shown. "The Medium" with Anna Maria Alberghetti, will be presented on Oct. 27. Walter Huston in "The Devil and Daniel Webster," will be shown on Nov. 10 Films shown in December will be "Charlie Chaplin Night" featuring several Chaplin shorts, and "Lavender Hill Mob," with Alec Guinness. The dates are Dec. 1 and Dec. 15, respectively.

"Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," with John Barrymore, will be presented on Jan. 5 and winding up the series on Jan. 14 will be "Earrings of Mme. de" starring Charles Boyer.

ATTEND MEDICAL MEETINGS

eastern area. Dr. Leonard Palum-

Two obstetricians from the University School of Medicine have been participating in professional meetings this month in the southeastern area. Dr. Leonard Palumbo was in Memphis, Tenn. during the past weekend, attending the meeting of the Southeastern Obstetrical and Gynecological Society and Dr. Charles Flowers recently returned from Daytona Beach, Fla., where he addressed the Tri-State Obstetric-Pediatric Seminar.
