NEW YORK CORRESPONDENCE.

Old Ladies Fair—Mount Vernon Festival—Ocean Telegraph—City Taxes—N Y Ledger—Edward Everett—Hard Times—Christmas—"Cancemi"—Business Prospects—No Winter Yet.

The Fair for the benefit of indigent old ladies of the Methodist Church, is open at Niblo's for the week. The weather thus far, very unpleasant, yet the exhibition is good, and the attendance large. The articles are contributed by all the churches, and by individuals. The Society has erected a large and comfortable "home," which is well-governed, and nearly paid for.

"The Mount Vernon" Festival, for the benefit of that Association, is now in full blast at the Academy of Music—"it labors under the weather," yet the interest manifested is very commendable, and the display and taste exhibited in "the getting up" is unusually attractive, so that large results may justly be anticipated.

"The Ocean Telegraph," after a long moist nap, is reported to day to have shaken off the dew of the night, and actually articulated from the mother country the word "Healey"—the man who was about this time to make some new experiments with his large machines. After all, should he succeed, and it is not impossible, how many "croakers" mouths would be stopped; and how its friends would rejoice.

The Comptroller's report for the year is out, claiming a levy for the next year of seven and three quarter million dollars. Great cry this—the highest taxed and the worst governed on the known earth.

The New York "Ledger," the most extensive wind mill perhaps in the world, and one which catches more birds with chaff than any other, is amazing the world, and the rest of mankind, with the astounding intelligence that "EDWARD EVERETT" is actually and absolutely going to condescend to write—yes, write; it don't say on what kind of paper, or with whose pen, but he is to write one or more letters "expressly for the Ledger." Well, the world has survived the "comet," and the baptism and burial of the "Telegraph," and perhaps, with proper treatment, it may be spared to see these letters—letters that are to be written because they are paid for. Here is another tremendous phenomena, and paid for by "BONNER." O, wonder of wonders—Everett writes! Everett is paid for it!! and Bonner paid him; and O ye Gods, "Mr Everett gives the money to the Mount Vernon Association!" and who couldn't, if he had it given to him! But enough of this sing of wind.

Our paving our retail streets now, would never think that twelve months ago we were all "down in the mouth," for I have never seen gayer, grander shopping; greater preparations for "Santaclaus" and Christmas. The show windows almost drive one in, they are so profuse in their attractions.

The jury in the "Cancemi" case, after three days, to the astonishment of every one was sequestered with the facts, brought in a verdict of "manslaughter in the first degree." Thus, if an appeal is not taken, a couple of years will get up "sorry for him, petitions enough to pardon him. The Italian bandits of the city, the Romish priests and thieves, are too much for New York justice.

The business prospects for next year are very promising; money is abundant, and the manufacturing interests are reviving.

We have had little or no winter yet.

Yours, truly,

December 23. J. H. R.

HUNTING WITH ARTILLERY.—Albert Pike went out recently with Major Rector, Indian superintendent, to assist in the payment of the Indian annuities among the tribes west of Arkansas. A correspondent of the Fort Smith Herald, writing from the Creek agency, describes Col. Pike's method of hunting the grouse or prairie hen: "Knowing how wild they are, he came prepared to outwit them. He hunts with a piece of artillery, a six pounder. This he hauls out on the prairie, and when he discovers a flock he unlimbers, sights the gun, and touches her off. He rarely misses. It is very exciting to see a dozen grouse fluttering with broken wings among some as many dead ones, and the Colonel chasing them around and catching them. His usual charge is a pound of powder and a quarter of a bag of turkey or swan shot. He generally shoots at about two hundred yards. He killed, in John Sellers', below here, the other day, thirty-eight grouse at a single fire. Major Reeder, who accompanies him, thinks he must have crippled one thousand that got off among the cornstalks and cockle burs.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.

GENERAL CASS ON THE CASE OF THE NORTH STARA.—Gen. Cass in a letter to Capt. Ivey, of this city dated on Monday last, while giving his reasons for withholding an authoritative censure by this Government of the proceeding at Bologna in the case of the boy Mortara, says as all individual he has no hesitation in expressing his surprise and regret at the deplorable occurrence in the papal States, and that it is difficult to conceive how such an act of injustice could take place in the middle of the nineteenth century, and in the heart of Europe. He says the judgement of the world will condemn it.

A CONGRESSIONAL MONEY MARKET.—A Washington dispatch says, "the members of Congress have drawn up more freely to date than usual,—an evidence that money is not abundant everywhere. Sergeant-at-Arms of the House has disbursed, since the 6th inst., on account of mileage and arrears of salary, $927,[illegible]. His total disbursements for the present Congress, up to Wednesday last, inclusive, amounted to $1,455,292."

ELECTION OF U. S. SENATORS.—The Legislature of Indiana has elected Henry S. Lane and W. S. McCarty as U. S. Senators from that State, to contest the seats now held by Messrs Bright and Fitch. It is not at all probable that the Senate will recognize the claims of the contestants.

WISTAR'S BALSAM IN VERMONT.

IRASBURGH, Vt., May 5.

MR. S. W. FOWLE, Dear Sir: I am nearly out of the Balsam of Wild Cherry. You may forward, if you please, two or three dozen more.—The medicine gives better satisfaction here in pulmonary complaints than any others that I have kept. I have tried it with perfect satisfaction upon myself, having been troubled with a severe cough for more than a year, and having profuse night sweats for the last month. I had tried various popular remedies without material benefit; at length I tried Wistars Balsam of Wild Cherry, and before I had finished the first bottle I found great relief. Two bottles have wrought a cure.

Yours respectfully,

HUBBARD HASTINGS.

☞ THE USE OF DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH "BITTERS," for Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Heaviness of the Stomach, or any other like affection, is second to none in America or abroad. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the Stomach, purifies the blood, imparts renewed vitality to the system, giving it that tone and energy so indispensable for the restoration of health. The numerous acknowledgements of its superior excellence and beneficent results, have assured the proprietors that it cannot but prove a great cure to the afflicted, and impart vitality to the thoroughly sick.

Mecklenburg Bonds,

SEVEN per cent. per annum.

THESE BONDS are undoubtedly the safest investment that can be made, and are really preferable to any State Bonds.

The county cannot repudiate.

They bear seven per cent interest payable semi-annually, with Coupons to the same.

They are of the denomination of $100, which will make them more current and useful for the needy purchaser.

The coupons will prove a convenient medium for paying country dues.

The citizens of the county should preserve them, and they are now offered in exchange. Proposals left at either Bank in Charlotte or with Captain John Walker will receive prompt attention.

REMARKS.

COTTON.—One week's sales were very quiet. Friday of last week, and yesterday the week previous were fully maintained, but the Holidays intervening, and unfavorable news from abroad, have caused a decline. We now quote best qualities at 10 @ 10½; inferior grades are taken at nominal prices.

FLOUR.—Superfine is little 4½—extra 4¾, and in Sacks at the same reduction.

Sales range in the Grain market.

COLUMBIA MARKET.

COLUMBIA, December 24, 1858.

COTTON.—The sales during the week have rather fallen during the week and the demand limited; 1,300 bales have been sold during the last five days, at prices ranging from 8½ @ 10½ cents. 50 bales were sold today at the above figures.

CHARLESTON MARKET.

CHARLESTON, December 24, 1858.

COTTON.—There was but a limited demand for raw cotton to day, the sales being here confined to some 1100 bales. The outside prices of the day were easily maintained, and prices
