DESPATCHES FROM UTAH.—Additional advices were received to-day at the War Department from Utah, dated March 1.—"Mormonism is represented as being on the wane, and apostatizing from the errors of late sect has become quite common. Some of the Mormon leaders, however, still exhibit feelings of hatred towards the Government. Brigham Young keeps himself secluded, and it is alleged is afraid of his own people. It is reported that he intends quitting Salt Lake at an early day, and that he has agents negotiating in some of the Northern Provinces of Mexico, and also in Central America, whither he may go to found a new settlement, where he will be out of danger and away from Gentile influence. The territorial officers experience much difficulty in the administration of law, arising from obstacles placed in their way by the Mormons, and it is frequent subject of complaint. The army is represented to be in good spirits. The Indians in the Southern part of the Territory were troublesome.—Washington Correspondent of the N. Y. Herald.

SAD ACCIDENT.—We learn that an Orphan Grinder, who has been about Goldsboro' a few days past, was killed on the Railroad on Monday night about 9 o'clock.—He was walking on the trestle work, which crosses Black Creek, about 17 miles north of this place; and was not seen by the engineer till the engine was in 15 or 20 yards of him—too late to check the progress of the train, which passed over him. The train was stopped about 300 yards from the fatal spot, and returned, taking the man on board.

His head was broken to pieces, but his body did not appear to be mangled. The sum of $225 91, chiefly in gold, was found on the body of the unfortunate stranger.—Goldsboro Tribune.

PATRIOTISM OR EXPEDIENCY.—One of the most vagrantous and wealthy merchants was about to visit Europe, and setting his house in order before he left, closed a conversation with his son and heir as follows: "Now, this is your last lesson, look at these four notes!—I have put into his hands four notes of the value of $25,000, making $100,000, with my name on the back. "Those," said he, "are the price paid for endorsing for a friend. I weekly put my name on them, and had to pay them as you see. Whenever any one asks you to endorse, look at these notes before you reply."—United States Economist.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRES IN CUBA.—Destructive conflagrations prevailed on March 28, on several estates near Cardenas, commencing in the sugar plantation of Count Penalver, a great part of whose cane was destroyed. The fire extended to the Ceres and San Ramon plantations of Senors Pedro Milian de Garcia, which were ruined; and to the sugar houses of San Joaquin, owned by Sr. Mora; Oxada, owned by Herrera; San Antonio, owned by Ruiz; and several others, all of which were burned to the ground. The South wind, which blew with great force, rendered all efforts to save the property unavailing. The cinders were carried to Cardenas.

In the Anton de la Aulgada there was another fire, which destroyed two or three houses, among them the sugar plantation of Juan Jose Palayo. The damage, which was very serious, has not been estimated.

"A SURPRISE."—A letter was received through the Post-Office in this city a few days ago, by one of our citizens, containing $100, with a request that it should be handed to a lady whose name was mentioned. The letter was anonymous, and the whole subject is a mystery, as neither the gentleman who received the letter, nor the lady mentioned therein, have the least idea of the writer, or what can be the reason of such a course.—Alex. (Va.) Gazette.

HONE ZEAL THAN DISCRETION.—Not a bad joke is told of one of the New York night inspectors. It happened, a few evenings since, shortly after the wharf watch was set, that a plain-looking countryman was seen to leave a brig lying at pier No. 4, with a suspicious looking bundle in his hands. It was a large package and a heavy one, and the stranger tugged along slowly to the pier with it, and turned the corner, sweating under his load.

"Ahs! my fine fellow, ejaculated the sharp eyed inspector—a sharp set official, by the way—"aha! I've got you this time!" and approaching the countryman, he said: "Good evening. Let me relieve you of that load, my friend."

"Eh," responded the man uneasily.

"I'll take that bundle, if you please."

"Thank you."

"It's heavy, isn't it?" said the officer.

"Yaas. Which way you goin', nabor?"

"Come along—it's all right; I'll take care of this—come on!"

"Edzactly—much obliged. It's tarnal heavy, an' I've got to git it up to the Howard House."

"Come along," continued the officer, knowingly; "we'll see about that!" and in a few minutes they reached the Howard; when the stranger observed that the inspector had no idea of halting.

"Hallo! which way, friend? I'm stopping here," said the countryman.

"It's no matter. I've seized this property, and you can explain matters at the Custom House to-morrow," continued the zealous inspector.

"Look here, friend! Not tew fast, if you please. I've paid my duties on that ere lot o' goods. Just you look at this now," and he drew forth a bit of paper from his vest pocket, signed by the Collector.

"Oh by, you scamp!" said the inspector, "this is a permit for your goods! Why didn't you show this before?"

"Why, in the fust place, you didn't ask me tew; and, in the next place, ef I had, you'd seen me break my back afore you'd git hen's that bundle clear up here for me, I know."

The inspector blowed his nose, and, cursing the countryman for a fool, turned down Fine street instanter, to resume his lonely round. The stranger put his parcel in the charge of the servant, and grinned a ghastly grin, as the over-zealous watchman departed.

Special Notices.

DYSPEPSIA.

Considering the various forms in which this disease developes itself, it may well be called "Hydra headed." In its train follow Indigestion, Pain in Stomach, Heartburn, Water Brash, Costiveness, Piles, Acidity, Oppression after Eating, Jaundice, Flatulency, Torpor of the Liver, Dizziness, Debility, Female Complaints, &c. Some of the first men in our land have given their written testimonials relative to the cures effected in their own persons by the OXYGENATED BITTERS; while testimonials from other sources, unsolicited opinions and voluntary expressions from persons who are averse to see their names in print, are perfectly overwhelming.

Read the following from a highly respectable Clergyman:

EAST TAUNTON, Mass., Feb 3, 1858.

To the Editor of the Portland Mirror.—Sir:

OXYGENATED BITTERS.—For more than twenty-five years I have been a sufferer from the dyspepsia. Besides trying the patronage of my family physicians in the almost useless trial of their various prescriptions, I have tried a great variety of patent medicines with a similar result. Through the kindness of my physician, I received last March, half a dozen bottles of the OXYGENATED BITTERS. I began to use them without any hope of receiving help from them. Being determined to give them a fair trial I continued their use, but without any perceptible benefit till June.

Since then I have gradually improved in health till I am entirely free from acidity of the stomach, and from the consequent flatulency, and the awful and almost distracting sick headache, which often for days together has wholly unfitted me for study and for all other ministerial duties, and rendered life a burden. I feel that I owe it, as an expression of gratitude to Messrs. Fowle & Co., and also a duty to the public, to recommend their Oxygenated Bitters, as in my estimation, a sure remedy, for that most trying, most vexing, and cruel of all diseases, to which poor human flesh is heir, the dyspepsia. Having suffered so long, and tried so many different remedies with no good result, I can recommend the Oxygenated Bitters with a confidence few others can. If any of the readers of the Mirror are suffering, I beg of them to make trial of these Bitters without delay.

JAMES R. CUSHING.

☞ SHAKE AND BAKE! SHAKE AND BAKE! FRIGE AND BAKE!—This is the life of agony endured by the sufferer from Fever and Ague. He wanders like an uncertain shadow, never knowing when moment he may be prostrated, and therefore disinclined to give any serious attention to business. He is a burden to himself and a burden to his friends, who are worn out in administering to his wants. This is the condition of thousands in town and country. It is no exaggeration to say that Fever and Ague kills more people than any twenty other diseases in America. For a sure and speedy cure of this terrible affliction, we take great pleasure in recommending DR. HOSSETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, which have already achieved a wide reputation for rapid and powerful effects in removing the system protracted by this disease.
