A Paris letter in the Independence says:

"The rising of the whole of Sicily in the name of Garribaldi is no longer doubtful.—Messina and Palermo, the former with a garrison of 12,000 Neapolitan soldiers, and Palermo with 15,000, are alone under the authority of the King. The royal troops, which were scattered over the other parts of the island, have all joined the insurgents. This is not all. The movement has certainly reached the Abbruzzi and Calabria, and is said to have broken out simultaneously in Umbria and in the States of the Church. The opinion generally entertained is, that Garribaldi is not himself in Sicily, but has landed on the main-land; it is even stated that he is in Omoria."

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY

This remedy has long been cherished by the community for its remarkable efficacy in relieving, healing and curing the most obstinate, painful and long standing cases of Cough, Cold, Influenza, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Inflammation of the Lungs; while even Consumption itself has yielded to its magic influence when all other means have failed. Its whole history proves that the past produced no remedy of equal value, as a cure for the numerous and dangerous pulmonary affections which prevail all over the land.

Col. Jesse J. Baker,

A well known citizen of Goldsboro,' N. C., makes the following statement of the good results arising from the use of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

GOLDSBORO,' N. C., March 2, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.,

Gentlemen:—Being solicited, I cannot refrain from expressing an opinion of your popular and remarkable lung remedy, Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. I have been observed at its wonderful effect in cases of obstinate coughs and colds with many of my numerous friends, for more than ten years past, and the result has always been speedy and certain; and with eye to my family I can with confidence certify that it has accomplished more good than any other medicine we have ever used. In fact, my experience has found it to be an unfailing remedy for coughs and pulmonary complaints, and I therefore recommend it.

Very truly yours, JESSE J. BAKER.

☞ Caution to Purchasers. The only genuine Wistar's Balsam has the written signature of "I. Butts" and the printed one of the Proprietors on the outer wrapper; all other is vile and worthless.

Prepared by S. W. Fowle & Co., Boston, and for sale by E. Nye Hutchison & Co., Charlotte, and by all druggists. Adsit & Gray, Richmond, M. A. & C. A. Santos, Norfolk, Wholesale Dealers.

It is a common observation that there are more sufferers from dyspepsia, among Americans, than can be found among any other civilized nation. The reason is obvious. We take too little exercise, and forget the wants of the body in the absorbing pursuits of business. In all such cases, ordinary medicines can do little good. What is required is just such a tonic and invigorator as Dr J. Hostetter has given to the world, in his CELEBRATED "BITTERS." The weak and nervous denizen of the counting-house, the exhausted toiler upon the shop board, and the prostrated student of the midnight lamp, have found a wonderful regenerator in the "Bitters," and prefer it to more pretentious, but less efficacious medicines. But it should not be forgotten that the agent which is so magical in its influence upon a frame which is merely debilitated, is equally powerful in assisting nature to expel the most terrible forms of disease. Who will not give it a trial?

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere. For sale by E. Nye Hutchison & Co., Charlotte, N. C.

HYMENEAL.

Married, in Winnsboro, S. C., on the 19th inst., by the Rev. C. B. Betts, Mr. J. G. WILKINSON, of Charlotte, and Mrs. NANNIE J. CUMMINGS, of the former place.

Died,

In this county, on the 16th instant, after an illness of 18 days, of typhoid fever, Mrs. SARAH S. COCHRAN, in the 29th year of her age, wife of Mr. Wm. L. Cochran, and daughter of Mr. H. S. McCulloh, of Tennessee.

Obituary.

"Death lies on her like an untimely frost
Upon the sweetest flower of all the field."

Died, in this place, at the residence of her father, (W. W. Kimo) SARAH E., fondly and affectionately known as "little Pinkie," on the 25th of May, 1860, after a distressing illness of many days, aged 8 years.

The subject of this obituary was a child of extraordinary mental endowments and of exquisite beauty and loveliness—beloved and loving whom ever known. From the inception of the attack which has resulted so blightingly upon her earthly promise and hopes of her sorrow stricken parents, she was seriously and calmly impressed, as she often assured those whose kindly office it was to minister at the side of her suffering couch, that the silken cord must soon be broken, and that she would pass away to a better world. Day after day, symptoms that at first gave no assurance that the dread disease might be averted, grew worse, and at last banished all hope of recovery—and on the night immediately preceding her consumption, her decline became painfully rapid, and the eye seemed to gaze, foreseeing it with clearer vision than the practiced eyes of those around her, summoned the family, friends and servants to her chamber, and after taking a tender and affectionate farewell of each one by name, requested that all would kneel down there in that chamber—made secured and solemn by the presence of the angel-band that had come to fan her fevered brow with their perfumed wings, to invest her in a mantle of glory and bear, exultingly, their little sister "Pinkie" home—and pray that they too might, when the world should darken on them, have a radiant angel escort to accompany them over the dark "valley and shadow of death!" and on being asked by one whose affectionate care for her comfort knew no abatement, if any thing might be done for her, she replied, "Yes, I want to go to Heaven—I want you to meet me there—kiss me—farewell!" She has gone there! and God grant that all who on that memorable occasion were thrilled with grief at her early drooping, and astonished at her intelligent admonitions, may meet here there! She was the pride of her doting parents—their daily hope and their sweetest joy!

"Around her shone,
The light of love, the purity of childhood,
The mind, beauty opening to the bud,
The heart whose softness harmonized the whole—
And Oh! that eye was in itself a soul!"

Thus she lived and thus she passed away, a tender, beautiful flower, to become an amaranth in the pastures of Heaven!

CHEROKEE REMEDY.

CURES FROM — One to Three Days.

AN UNFAILING CURE FOR

Gonorrhœa & all Diseases of the Urinary Organs.

THIS REMEDY cures when all other preparations fail. It is entirely unlike every other compound; containing no MINERAL POISON or NARCOTIC DRUG; as it is prepared solely from ROOTS, BARKS and LEAVES, and has been handed down, from one generation to another, by the CHEROKEE INDIANS. It is offered to the public on its own intrinsic merits. It performs its duty quickly and thoroughly. The UNFORTUNATE, of either sex will be cured by using this REMEDY, instead of placing themselves at the mercy of some Quack or Professor. This REMEDY strikes at the very Root of the disease; its tendency is not simply to suspend the poison, but to REMOVE THE CAUSE on which it depends.—Full directions in pamphlet form, accompany each bottle—The speedy and permanent relief afforded by this Remedy, in all cases of GONORRHŒA, GLEET, GRAVEL, STRICTURE, FLOUR ALBUS, (WHITES IN FEMALES), and all DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, has astonished the most scientific men of the age. This REMEDY not only eradicates all Poisons from the SYSTEM but INVIGORATES the most delicate constitution.

☞ It does NOT AFFECT the BREATH or INTERFERE with any CLASS of BUSINESS, or require any deviation from the usual diet.

☞ It requires no assistance from other medicine.

☞ And what ENHANCES its VALUE, is the ENTIRE ABSENCE of all NAUSEOUS TASTE, being a PLEASANT and DELICIOUS SYRUP.

PRICE $1 PER BOTTLE, OR THREE BOTTLES FOR $5.
