and harmony in her deliberative councils, in a generous spirit of emulation by all her legislators to be foremost in promoting the welfare, happiness and independence of her people.

What security, for their lives, can the people of the South expect at the hands of a sectional majority, maddened by religious fanaticism, who just upon the heels of the John Brown raid, and in defiance of a recent solemn decision of the Supreme Court of the United States—a tribunal erected by the Constitution to declare the just rights and equality of all the States and all sections—which established the equal rights of the citizens of all the States in the enjoyment of their property in the common territories, have elected a President of the United States, for the purpose of ensuring the administration of their treason and sectional hostility in the common Government of all the States.

Is there anybody crazy enough to believe that the Southern States would have entered into the Union, if their delegates to the Convention, which adopted the Constitution, could have foreseen such a deplorable contingency in the future as the election of a President by one section of the Confederacy, upon principles of avowed hostility to the other? If not, then the spirit of the compact is already broken by the simple election of Lincoln, without waiting for an overt act of his administration, which might at one blow forever paralyze our power to resist. Our national Declaration of Independence proclaims to the world that to secure the blessings of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, governments were instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed." Will any one pretend that the sets of Lincoln will derive any just powers from the consent of the Southern people? Surely not. But if there still linger in North Carolina any people who yet advocate the obsolete doctrine of non resistance, and passive obedience to the divine right of Kings and Rulers, let them be admonished by the voice of the Tories of the Revolution, and take warning by the fate of the followers of Charles the First and James the Second, Kings of England.

Let all those who still stickle for the principle upon the distinction between the right of State secession and that of resistance by the people, remember that in advocating the latter, as the only one to correct the evils of governmental oppression, they surrender all the reserved sovereignty of the States, and openly avow the absolutism of the General Government.

The government of the United States, unlike all other governments that ever existed in the world, was entered into by the voluntary consent of independent sovereign States, bound together by a written constitution of limited powers, and its permanency is based upon a continuation of their mutual confidence, affection and perfect equality of political rights, as sine qua non conditions, whose infraction would, ipso facto, work a dissolution of the compact.

It is proper to state, in conclusion, that Mr. Kilmer is not responsible for the sentiments of this article, but the writer honestly believes that they will meet the approbation of a large majority of the patrons of the Whig, whose opinions on the subject of our Federal Relations, the writer has good reason to believe, have recently undergone a great change; otherwise the sentiments here advanced would not have been offered to them.

What's in a name? The following are names of note in the county of Hanover, Virginia:

Negro Foot, Hell Town, Buzzard Roost, Dry Ring, Dog Town, Free Negro Town and Pine Cut.—Alexandria Gazette.

Unusual names to be sure, but we hear these names of places in a county in North Carolina:

Burnt Coat, Torn Shirt, Lousy Level, Jack Leared, Scotch Jo, Pinch Gut, Hell Hole, Hell's Delight and Purgatory.—Wash. Constitution.

We defy competition.

This is not entirely deficient in this class of names for localities. We have heard of Poker, Brush Squed Gut, Louestown, and Hell.—Tel. Blade.

Equity Land Sale.

By virtue of a decree of the Court of Equity of Mecklenburg County, I will sell to the highest bidder, at Irwin's Corner, in Charlotte, on SATURDAY, the 15th day of DECEMBER, 1860, a credit of six months, with interest from date, purchasers giving bond and security, that valuable TRACT OF LAND, within 3 miles of Charlotte, on the Statesville Plank Road, on which R. Brown recently lived and died, containing 270 or 235 acres. The Dower Interest of Mrs. Brown, containing about 120 acres, will also be sold at the same time and place.

On the premises are 4 never-failing springs of good water, 2 barns, 30 or 35 acres of fresh stable-manured 25 acres of good meadow land, a small comfortable dwelling house, known as the "Price place," besides two very eligible sites for building purposes.

All things considered, the property is very desirable for any family wishing to be comfortably situated.

Further information can be obtained by consulting W. A. and E. L. Barnett, on the premises.

West Green Nurseries.

300,000 Select Fruit Trees FOR SALE.

ARE the citizens of the Southern States aware that the people of the Northern and Northwestern States are making fortunes of rapid, lasting strength of trade, and that in a climate and soil to a great extent very unpropitious for fruit culture? Then why should not the citizens of the Southern States make Fruit, dried and green, one of their leading staples. Fruits grown under our South sun are noted for their size, fine flavor, and beautiful color.

The above statements are fully sustained by premiums taken over Northern Fruits, and the great amount of green and dried fruit sent North and Northwest by the Southern States during the last few years. Those of the above statements are fully sustained, and it is no use, according to the Bible, to make money by raising Fruit, then send forward your orders and wait to Westbrook and Mendenhall and they will furnish you with good marketing varieties.

DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of Medical Discoveries no remedy has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the numerous affections of the PULMONARY, LUNGS, and CHEST—of COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, INFLUENZA, WHOOPING COUGH CROUP, ASTHMA, or of CONSUMPTION itself, as this far-famed, long tried, and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superior excellence of the remedy that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its removal powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

Virginia Testimony.

Certificate from Mr. NORBORNE NORTON, of the Examiner Office, Richmond:

RICHMOND, VA., Feb. 23, 1860.

Messrs S. W. FOWLE & Co., Boston.—Gentlemen:—I with pleasure testify to the great merit of your invaluable long medicine, Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, which is likewise highly valued by many of our esteemed citizens, who have tested its virtues by trial.

I first made use of this Balsam some three years since for a violent distressing cough, which baffled the skill of physicians, and to my joy, experienced such gratifying relief as to induce me to persevere in its use. I always keep it by me, and ever find it to be unfailing in its effects. So much so that I have ever used less given such speedy relief. Yours truly,

NORBORNE NORTON.

☞ Caution to Purchasers. The only genuine Wistar's Balsam has the written signatures of "I. BUTTS" and the printed name on the Proprietors on the outer wrapper; all other is vile and worthless.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

At a meeting of the Hornets' Nest Riflemen, held on the 19th day of November, 1860, the following Preamble ad Resolutions were passed:

WHEREAS, It has pleased Divine Providence to send death in our ranks, and take away from our midst one of our comrades in arms, EZEKIEL C. ELMS, to whom, but a short time ago, life offered its choicest pleasures.

He has gone from among us, and his earthly remains rest in the grave. By his upright conduct and kindness toward all with whom he became acquainted he gained their friendship and esteem, and his memory will long be cherished in the Company.

While we deeply feel the loss his family, as well as our Company, have sustained through his early death, we, through respect for the deceased, publish the following resolutions

1st. Resolved, That although the death of our comrade in arms, E. C. ELMS, the Company has sustained a heavy loss.

2nd. Resolved, That a blank page in our Minute book be dedicated to his memory.

3rd. Resolved, That we wear the usual badge of mourning for the space of thirty days.

4th. Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with his family and friends in this their great loss, and that a copy of this Preamble and Resolutions be sent to his bereaved family.

5th. Resolved, That the above be published in the papers of this town.

CHARLESTON MARKET.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 23, 1860.

COTTON.—The cotton market continues very irregular, and the transactions of the day may be considered an entire business, amounting to 2,314 bales, at very low figures, viz: 8 a 10½.

MOBILE, November 22.—The sales to-day were 3,500 bales, nominal quotes at 10c. The sales of the week were 23,500 bales and the receipts 48,000, against 32,500 in the corresponding period last year. The increase in the receipts at this port up to this date now stands 27,000 bales.—The exports of the week have reached 14,000 bales. The stock on hand is 159,000 bales.

NEW ORLEANS, November 23.—The sales of cotton to-day were 5,000 bales. Missing is quoted at 10½ a 10½c.
